The neighborhood horse patrol program announced last month as part of the Neighborhood Improvement Program will be complemented with operating budget funds. That program represents a new strategy for dealing with street gangs and crime. It will be joined with a concerted effort to cut down on public drinking by groups of teenagers, which leads to serious problems in several areas, particularly in the summertime.

The Neighborhood Action Program for Safety, patterned after the Mattapan Citizen Security program, is another new initiative. NAPS will engage private citizens, working with the police, in the solution of local crime problems.

Total new monies for security, including tax levy funds, Neighborhood Improvement Program funds, and categorical grants from federal agencies, will come to $1.5 million.

Programs for the Elderly

The city's elderly programs are directed toward meeting the special needs of older Bostonians, particularly in dealing with four problems:

Health Care: The Health and Hospitals Department is developing neighborhood health-care programs with a special focus on the elderly. As one part of this effort, expanded outreach for the Bright Eyes, glaucoma-screening program will allow more people to take advantage of the free test. In addition, the Fire Department, in cooperation with Health and Hospitals and private groups, is developing a Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) program, designed to train every tenth Bostonian in the emergency technique that can keep a heart-attack victim alive until an ambulance comes.

The Cost of Living: Persistent inflation is a particular problem for those elderly living on savings and fixed pensions. The city is doing what it can to soften the blow. The Housing Improvement Program, with its special rebate for elderly homeowners who make repairs and improvements, will be revived and its budget increased. We will also institute a Senior Home Maintenance Program to provide the elderly with a repair service for minor household problems. The Mayor's Older Bostonians discount program will be expanded. The Senior Aides Program provides part-time opportunities for older Bostonians to earn some money to keep up with rising costs.

Mobility: Transportation difficulties can sometimes turn a home into a virtual prison. We will provide a mix of transportation services and mobile facilities to ease that problem. The M.O.B.ile Market brings food shopping to forty-five regularly scheduled locations throughout the city, for the benefit of those Bostonians over sixty who find food stores too hard to get to. The Senior Shuttle mini-buses, which carry nearly a quarter of a million passengers a year, and the taxi discount program are designed to make getting around the city somewhat easier and less expensive for Boston's elderly.

MATTAPAN LITTLE CITY HALL RELOCATED

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that the Mattapan Little City Hall has moved from its former trailer location into a renovated, Blue Hill Avenue storefront in the heart of the Mattapan business and shopping district.

The new site provides residents with a convenient location and gives the Hall staff ample office space for daily operation. The Mattapan Little City Hall had been located in a permanently anchored trailer since it was first opened by Mayor White in December of 1968.

Said Mayor White, "During the past decade since I established the Little City Hall program, the city has undergone substantial economic and social change. Many of the neighborhood Little City Halls have remained in their original facilities despite the need for bigger and better quarters. Neighborhood improvement is very important to me. We want the Little City Halls to reflect the city's effort to improve the residential environment. The new Mattapan Little City Hall adds to those improvement efforts in the Mattapan shopping district."

The Mattapan Little City Hall offers a variety of direct services to area residents, including voter registration; resident parking stickers; elderly assistance programs; tax assistance; birth and death records; and general information about city programs and services.

Mayor White recently appointed Bob Young, a Mattapan resident, as manager of the Little City Hall. Mr. Young also manages the Franklin Field Little City Hall.

Said Manager Young, "We need the larger facility to accommodate our staff and the increased walk-in clients we are getting. We want the Hall to serve the community."

The new address for Mattapan Little City Hall is 1594 Blue Hill Avenue. The telephone number is 298-0290.

Mr. Young added, "We hope to have extended hours to offer more convenience to our residents,"

NEW INFORMATION ON SMOKING POLICIES

The American Lung Association of Boston offers the following information for people who are concerned about cigarette smoking on the MBTA and commercial airlines:

Civil Aeronautics Board regulations require United States-certificated air carriers to provide no-smoking sections for each class of scheduled service and for charter service and to take whatever action is necessary to prevent smoking in those areas. The board ordered the carriers to adopt procedures to make sure each person who requests a seat in the no-smoking section is accommodated. Failure to provide or enforce the no-smoking regulation by United States carriers is a violation of CAB regulations, and a noncomplying carrier may be subject to enforcement action. If you request a no-smoking seat and are not given it or if the airline is not enforcing the no-smoking rules, report the incident to the board. The address is: Office of the Consumer Advocate, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington, D.C. 20428.

There are also indications by users of the MBTA to the American Lung Association of Boston that the ordinance prohibiting smoking on MBTA vehicles is being violated. People who have complaints about T smoking should write to Professor David Gordon Wilson, 16 Kennedy Road, Cambridge, MA 02138

WHAT IS HAPPENING?

Mayor Kevin H. White and Commissioner Alan M. Austin announce the start of a Parks and Recreation Hotline. The Hotline will inform the caller of the events during that week sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation. The telephone number will be 725-4112, and will be available twenty-four hours a day. We invite everyone to call and find out what is happening during the summer months in each neighborhood.

MAYOR DEDICATES HUB FIRE- HOUSE AS BOSTON FIRE MUSEUM

Mayor Kevin H. White has presented the deed to an eighty-seven-year-old Congress Street firehouse to the Museum of Transportation for its Boston Fire Museum at dedication ceremonies in South Boston.

Boston Pops Maestro Arthur Fiedler, who has donated his rich collection of fire equipment and memorabilia to the museum, accepted the deed and in turn presented the document to Museum Curator Duncan Smith.

Said Mayor White, "More than anything, this museum recognizes the debt that a city owes to the men of the fire service. Boston boasts the longest tradition of voluntary and professional fire service to a community in the country. You really can't appreciate the true value of a fine, professional fire service as we have here in Boston until your home has been struck by fire."

The museum purchased the fire station, which was decommissioned in 1977, from the city Public Facilities Department for $1,000.

Joining Mayor White, Fiedler, and Duncan on the platform were Boston Fire Commissioner George Paul and Public Facilities Commissioner Donald Manson.

The Boston Fire Museum, a division of the Museum of Transportation will house an extensive collection of fire artifacts as well as pieces from the Boston Fire Department, a number of metropolitan fire departments, and the Society for the Preservation of New England Antiquities. In addition, a special museum program chronicling the Great Boston Fire of 1872 will be developed.

A special $400,000, fund-raising campaign, with Maestro Fiedler as honorary chairman, has begun to provide for the renovation of the firehouse and the installation of historic and educational exhibitions.

Gifts to the museum are tax-deductible, and should be sent to the Museum of Transportation, 316 Congress Street, Boston MA 02210.

WHAT'S NEW IN SPACE?

It isn't a science fiction story that the Hayden Planetarium at Boston's Museum of Science portrays in its new summer program, "What's New In Space?"

The manned space shuttle, and unmanned vehicles hurtling their way across the Planetarium dome into the noxious atmospheres of distant worlds are all planned features of the American space program. All are expected to be in action within the next decade.

In fact, even some ordinary citizens are now signed up for allotments of experimental areas in the orbiting shuttle—at a minimum cost of $3,000.

The space shuttle will take off like a rocket, orbit like a space ship, and land back on earth on a runway like a conventional plane. It represents a departure from current practices, however, because it will launch and retrieve satellites in space, and from that same lofty position observe the earth, sun, and stars from a manned laboratory called Spacelab.

Unimagined information may be gained from a powerful shuttle-launched space telescope. Free of the earth's obscuring atmosphere, the telescope will be trained on remote galaxies at the fringes of space. Scientists anticipate that their knowledge about the universe may be revolutionized.

Among the United State space program's future possibilities could be unmanned probes of Titan, the moon of Saturn that is the only satellite in the solar system known to have a dense atmosphere; and a landing on the nucleus of the Tempel II comet. Colonies of people on space stations are the concluding projection into the future covered by the Planetarium program.

The program is illustrated by numerous photos taken from space, a time-lapse film of the sun in X rays, and images of space vehicles. Closeups key planets and other celestial objects on the 60-foot, domed ceiling is realistically achieved with advanced technological devices orchestrated by the Planetarium staff.

Narrated by John Lynker of WEEI, the program contains electronic music and special effects created by John Serrie of Electronic Music Laboratories, Inc., Vernon, Connecticut.

What's New In Space? is shown daily and Friday night at 8, through September 4. The fee is 50 cents above Museum admission. Children under five are not admitted, though they may enter other parts of the Museum free of charge.

The Massachusetts Association of Realtors is offering a six-week Real Estate License Exam Preparatory Course, July 17 to August 24.

McGrath, Esq., of Boston, the course covers material for both the real estate salesman and brokers examinations. BOSTON INSTALLS NEW FIRE ALARM BOX SYSTEM

Mayor Kevin White, on July 5, announced that Boston will begin shifting its fire alarm network from the traditional lever-operated, fire alarm system to modern, telephone-style, fire alarm boxes.

Said Mayor White, "These new call boxes are more effective than the traditional pull-handle alarm in two ways: the telephone allows the dispatcher to receive specific information about the reported fire, and the new system dramatically reduces the number of false alarms turned-in."

The installation of approximately 100 of the innovative call boxes is the result of a two-year pilot project in which false alarms markedly decreased in areas where the telephone box alarm was installed.

Manufactured by the Gamewell Company of Medway, Mass., the boxes cost about $650 each. Thirty-five of the lime-green boxes have already been installed. The remainder will soon replace existing boxes in parts of Roxbury, Dorchester, and the downtown business district.

Said Fire Commissioner George Paul, "About 30 percent of the nearly 60,000 alarms rung yearly in Boston are false. This "voice box" has reduced the number of false alarms in the pilot program area."

The new alarm consists of a lime-green box and pole about the same size as the current alarm box. The box holds a telephone receiver and instructions for use in both Spanish and English.

When the receiver leaves the cradle, its number and location are electronically recorded at Fire Alarm Headquarters, and flashed onto a dispatcher's console screen. The dispatcher can then elicit specifics on the report from the alarm caller.

She received $50 as a first prize in the contest. Marybeth is a senior at Mt. St. Joseph Academy in Brighton.

Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total work hours performed.

3. The contractor shall provide written notification to the Director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs within ten (10) working days of award of any construction subcontract in excess of $10,000 at any tier for construction work under the contract resulting from this solicitation. The notification shall list the name, address, and telephone number of the subcontractor; employer identification number; estimated dollar amount of the subcontract; estimated starting and completion dates of the subcontract; and the geographical area in which the contract is to be performed.

4. As used in this notice, and in the contract resulting from this solicitation, the "covered area" is Boston, Massachusetts, Suffolk County.

A prebid conference will be held on July 20, 1978, at 10 a.m. at the office of the Project Manager, Mr. Joseph P. Brown, 50 Arborway (722-5005). It is imperative that prospective bidders have a representative attend. Any request for interpretation of plans and specifications should be submitted in writing at the same time.

All bidders will be required to certify that they are not on the Comptroller General's list of ineligible contractors.

The provisions of Massachusetts Executive Order No. 130, Anti-Boycott Covenants, are incorporated by reference as part of this contract.

All bidders will be required to certify as part of their proposal that they are able to furnish labor that can work in harmony with all other elements of labor employed or to be employed on the work.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a bid deposit of twenty-three hundred dollars ($2,300), in the form of a bid bond, or cash, certified check, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued to the MBTA by a responsible surety, bank, or trust company.

In view of the specialized nature of construction, an award will not be made to a contractor who is not equipped to undertake and complete the work. The low bidder and/or lowest responsible bidder may be required to submit within five (5) business days after opening of bids a postqualification statement on forms to be furnished by the Authority.

The successful bidder shall be required to furnish a performance bond and a labor and materials payment bond, each for the full amount of the contract price. The surety shall be a surety company or securities satisfactory to the Authority.

MAYOR'S BUDGET MESSAGE: FISCAL '78-'79

(Part II)

Information/Involvement: To help senior citizens find the services available to them, the Elderly Affairs Department runs a number of outreach and information programs. The Visiting Aides Programs, the Elderly Hotline, and Boston Seniority are all devoted to this end. In addition to information, the Hotline is designed to provide counseling, help in dealing with various bureaucracies (public and private), and a sympathetic listener.

A variety of volunteer programs provide opportunities for service to Boston's senior citizens.

Programs to assist the elderly will be expanded substantially from last year, with an additional $900,000 in city funding and greatly increased federal funding.

Neighborhood Service Delivery

A policy of concern for Boston's residential neighborhoods has to be implemented with money: operating money for service delivery, and capital money to build the infrastructure which makes both public services and private investment possible. This administration has invested in neighborhood-oriented public capital at an annual rate fourteen times that of the previous administration. But that money cannot be well spent unless there are effective lines of communication from the neighborhoods to City Hall and to the operating departments.

The Little City Halls were established ten years ago to develop such lines of communication. The extensive citizen participation process which helps to shape the Neighborhood Improvement Program is directed to that same end. In this past year we have also made extensive use of survey research, to give us a more systematic understanding of neighborhood needs than would otherwise be available.

In the next year, we intend to further strengthen this communication process with the creation of Neighborhood Service Cabinets. These cabinets will be directed by the managers of the Little City Halls and will help line departments concentrate resources on pressing needs as seen by local residents. In addition, they will improve the ability of various departments to work together at the local level. In this way, we hope to deliver more effective services without increasing expenditures. As part of this effort to better serve the individual needs of individual neighborhoods, Police Department will give greater weight to expressed neighborhood needs in determining patrol activities.

Management and Productivity Improvement

During the past year we have begun to centralize and improve the city's management planning process. This year's budget represents a step forward in unifying the taxlevy budget with other city activities funded by the Community Development Block Grant, the capital budget, federal manpower programs, and the Boston Plan. We have also run a more analytic budgeting process than ever before, with a particularly instructive effort at zero-based budgeting for the Police Department.

During the past year we have also begun major work on our financial and management control systems. We are about to complete the first year of a massive three-year effort, involving more than thirty-five man-years of time, to improve our financial information system and to train an internal audit staff. We are complementing this with management improvement projects directed at electronic data processing, the collections of bills and claims at the hospital, and city-wide cash management. We will build on that effort next year, with projects to revise our payroll and personnel systems, to put the Health and Hospitals Department on an enterprise fund organizational basis, and to strengthen our training programs for line management. In addition, I am directing the Office of Management and Budget to develop a quarterly performance and expenditure review process. These new tools will help us monitor the budget and oversee the implementation of a series of productivity improvement efforts in the line departments.

Restricted Choices in Balancing the Budget

This year, as every year, we face a budget gap that must somehow be closed. Operating costs increase, primarily as a result of the inescapable pressures of inflation. Pensions, assessments, and other non-operating items also increase. Revenues from the property tax do not keep pace, leaving, on average, a 7 percent gap that next year will exceed $40 million.

Unless additional revenues come in from outside, we must either raise the tax rate or cut services. Our dilemma is that neither option is acceptable. Excessive taxation and inadequate services alike are threats to Boston's role as the economic, cultural, and social center of New England, and make it a less attractive home for the 650,000 people who live here.

Mayor's Budget Message

The Upward Push of Mandatory Cost Increases

New costs imposed from outside and inflationary increases in the basic costs of doing business — wages, benefits, and purchases of goods and services — will lead to increases of more than $40 million this year in operating and other spending.

The major items include:

- more than $10 million in higher labor costs.

- $7 million in increased health insurance costs.

- $6.1 million for increased pension costs for retired employees.

- $5 million for normal inflation in the prices of city materials and supplies, especially the rising costs of energy.

- $3.8 million in additional state assessments, including $3 million more for the MBTA.

- $3 million in unemployment insurance contributions required under a new federal law.

These costs are legally mandated or otherwise outside the power of the city to control. Two particular problems are labor settlements under compulsory binding arbitration and health insurance premiums.

Compulsory Binding Arbitration.

Public collective bargaining under compulsory binding arbitration has not been working well. This has been the case for all the cities and towns in the Commonwealth, not just for Boston. By separating the power to impose costs from the responsibility for paying the bill, the process reduces accountability and invites excess. During the years in which mandatory arbitration has been in effect, the cost of living rose 22.3 percent, but total wages and benefits per employees in departments covered by binding arbitration rose 27.1 percent.

Arbitration has also proved ineffective in clearing away work rules which block productivity increases. Boston is the only major city bound by contract to maintain the two-man police patrol car, which significantly reduces the number of patrol runs we can accomplish within any given Police Department budget.

The Rising Costs of Health Insurance.

Employee health insurance has been the area of most rapid escalation among the city's costs, just as health care has been the most inflationary force in the nation's economy. For the next year we project a total health insurance bill of $23 million. Master Medical coverage for the family of a Boston employee will cost $1,740, of which the city pays three-quarters.

The combination of fee-for-service medicine and third-party billing makes effective cost control all but impossible. Further, the Boston area has the most expensive medical care in America, due in part to our concentration of teaching and research hospitals.

These factors limit our ability to control the increase in health insurance costs. One encouraging trend is the growth of Health Maintenance Organizations, which provide complete medical care for a fixed annual fee, rather than charging for each treatment given. An increasing fraction of Boston's employees is choosing prepaid group health care, at a savings of more than 25 percent over traditional health coverage. We intend to actively encourage the development of alternatives to fee-for-service medicine in meeting the health care needs of our employees.

Cost-Cutting and Its Limits

The first move toward bridging the gap between rising costs and fixed property tax yields is to cut costs. We have cut costs, and will continue to do so, but our opportunities here are increasingly unattractive or unattainable.

Controllable Costs — City Departments.

Over the last four years, we have reduced the city workforce by 3,200 employees, or about 20 percent. By comparison, the Commonwealth's own cost-reduction campaign has yielded a workforce reduction of less than 1 percent. During this past year alone, we have reduced the city payroll by 975, for an annual savings of $12 million.

There are several constraints on further payroll reductions. Going through the legally required layoff procedure usually means that months elapse before a decision to reduce the workforce becomes effective, thus virtually eliminating any savings within the first year. The rigid seniority system, with its associated "bumping" rights, eliminates the opportunity to let the least productive workers go, and instead spreads disorganization and ill-feeling throughout a department as the result of even modest layoffs. Eliminating specific facilities is even more time-consuming.

By far the most significant constraint, however, is the fact that we are now past the fat and getting near the bone in many critical areas. We have vigorously sought federal funds to help offset the impact of earlier cutbacks, but the process of shrinking the workforce cannot long continue if such essential services as police and fire protection, streetsweeping, parks, and libraries are to be maintained at adequate levels.

Uncontrollable Costs — Especially the School Department.

Unfortunately, the most important remaining opportunities for cost cutting are not under any Mayor's control. Spending by city departments accounts for only about two-fifths of the total city budget. The remainder — some $370 million for fiscal 1978 — goes to the School Department, Suffolk County, debt service, pensions, and State assessments.

The biggest uncontrollable expenditure is for the School Department. That department spends almost three times the budget of the largest of the city departments, with each year's appropriation serving as a "floor" below which the city has no legal authority over the department's future spending.

That may have made sense when school enrollments were steadily increasing. But the changing age structure of Boston's population means that enrollments have fallen substantially in recent years.

Yet school expenditures have not fallen, and operating costs per pupil have soared to $2,795, almost five times the per-pupil spending of 1965. Boston now has the most expensive pupil schooling in Massachusetts, with costs equal to the tuition at exclusive private schools. Despite these lavish expenditures, however, the educational performance of the schools, as measured by nearly all observers as well as by objective tests, is still unacceptably poor.

For this year, the picture is brighter than in the recent past. There are signs of improved management with the new School Committee, and the proposed reorganization is the most hopeful development in recent memory. It is to be hoped that improved management will be reflected in lower budgets, or that school costs will continue at essentially the present level, letting inflation reduce the real level of resources now consumed.

BOOKLET ON "VANDALISM" RELEASED

Mayor White Call "Managing Vandalism" Booklet a "Significant" Contribution to Parks Management.

Mayor Kevin H. White has released a 58-page guide to the problem of vandalism in parks and recreation facilities.

The booklet entitled "Managing Vandalism," grew out of a major study of vandalism in Boston Parks. That study, funded by the National Science Foundation to the tune of $124,000, theorized that the causes of park damage, other than wear and tear, are rooted in: design, maintenance, management, and staff problems.

Mayor White said, "What this study represents are common sense approaches, recognizing that public officials above all need practical help rather than academic research if they are to improve municipal performance."

Several thousand interviews of parks consumers, abutters, community relations officers, and maintenance personnel were conducted by the five-member project staff.

Mayor White, calling the guide, "an unusual document," explained that one condition of the grant was to make the guide available to other cities so they could learn from Boston's experience.

FUND RAISER FOR McCORMACK ARTS CENTER

A gala fund-raising event entitled "A Round of Pleasures" has been set for August 10 to help defray the cost of renovating the former Strand Theater into the Harriet McCormack Center for the Arts in Dorchester.

Bill Dalton, chairman of the Center's fund-raising committee, says the event will be held at Lombardo's, 17 Porter Street, East Boston, and will "consist of rounds of drinks at an open bar, hot hors d'oeuvres, listening and dancing to the music of Ed Pizzi's nine-member orchestra and great conversation from 8 - 12 midnight."

The cost of a ticket is $25 per person and Mr. Dalton expressed the hope that the event would attract 500 and upwards in an effort to meet the numerous expenses involved in the Center's restoration.

"We want to give everybody, whether they live in Dorchester, other sections of Boston or outside the city, an opportunity to be part of this wonderful project and to be able to say that they helped to contribute toward the cost of restoring this one-time 'showplace of Dorchester,'" he said.

Tickets can be purchased by contacting the following: Ed Forry, First American Bank, Codman Square, tel. 436-1500; Paula Lombardo at Lombardo's, tel. 567-5221; the John Robert Powers Finishing School, 9 Newbury Street, Boston, tel. 267-8781; Bill Dalton, Dorchester, tel. 288-0989; and Jim Ryan, UMass-Boston, tel. 287-1900, ext. 2147. Tickets also will be available at the door.

Constructed at a cost of $1 million, the Strand Theater opened its doors as Boston's first "suburban" movie palace in Uphams Corner on Nov. 11, 1918. Through the years it highlighted silent movies, "talkies," double features and vaudeville acts featuring Milton Berle, Fanny Brice, Fred Allen and Dorchester's own Ray Bolger. As business fell off, it was closed in the late 1960s.

However, a group of concerned citizens, determined that the facility should not be dark forever, established a committee to restore it as a cultural center for the arts. Members also decided to name it for former U.S. Speaker of the House John W. McCormack's late wife, Harriet, a one-time opera singer. Federal and city funds were obtained to pay for most of the major costs, but additional funds are also needed to cover other expenses entailed in the work of restoration.

YOU DIRTY RAT!

Keep the lid on and starve a rat.

Starve a rat? Makes sense, since rats are really nasty animals to have around, but why should the lid be kept on? What lid are you talking about?

The lid is your garbage can lid. The very important reason to keep garbage covered is because rats thrive on the food scraps we throw away. Rats — although shy by nature — are not content to settle for just the garbage however.

First, you should know that rats are a threat to life. They will attack people when cornered. Rats have been known to bite helpless infants and defenseless older people and invalids.

Second, rats are a threat to property. Every year, it is estimated that rats destroy and contaminate about a fifth of the world's food supply. There are approximately 100 million rats in the United States today. Authorities of the Center for Disease Control in Atlanta estimate that each of these rats damages between $1 and $10 worth of food every year. Rats also pose an indirect hazard to life and a direct hazard to property by gnawing and eating through wiring causing electrical fires and structural damage.

Rats carry and cause dread diseases ranging from mild to severe in intensity. Some of the diseases that rats spread are trichinosis, salmonellosis (food poisoning), and murine typhus fever. Perhaps the most infamous disease that rats are responsible for transmitting is the "plague" or Black Death, that once killed millions of people in Europe, Asia, and Africa. Indeed, for this reason alone, rats are responsible for causing more deaths than all the wars in history! Today, the plague exists in wild rodents mostly in the western states of the United States. The bacteria causing plague is transmitted from one rodent to another and to man by the bite of the fleas that travel on the skin of the rat. The disease can cause death if it goes untreated. Fortunately, modern medicine is now able to control the widespread outbreak of the disease.

So why don't we create a highly effective poison to wipe out rats? Poisoning and extermination can be somewhat effective, but rats develop immunities to very strong poisons. While scientists continue to develop new, stronger strains of poisons, it is now recognized that poisoning campaigns have only a temporary effect in reducing the population of rats. Increasing emphasis on controlling sanitary conditions in areas where large rat populations thrive (and not in killing individual rats on a sporadic basis), is now believed to have a more lasting and permanent effect in controlling rodents.

Rats will seek food anywhere, but in our cities, rats primarily thrive on our garbage, our food scraps. To make certain rats don't find any food around your household, you should follow these suggestions:

Outside Your House:

(1) Whenever possible, garbage cans should be set off the ground and held firmly in place. This prevents rusting, cans tipping over, and general damage to the cans.

(2) Cans should have tight-fitting lids and these lids should always be replaced after dumping garbage into the pail because rats can enter through an opening the size of a quarter.

(3) Have a sufficient number of cans to prevent overloading.

(4) Do not use 50-gallon drums. They are too heavy and do not have tight-fitting lids.

(5) Use galvanized steel cans rather than plastic bags to store garbage. Rats are constantly gnawing to blunt the edges of their teeth — each tooth growing to lengths of 5 and 6 inches. Plastic bags conceal smells, prevent flybreeding, and are useful as liners, but present no obstacle to rats if used alone. Be aware also, that as of August 1, 1977, according to the Sanitary Code of the Massachusetts Law, plastic bags cannot be used alone to store garbage outside for collection. They may be used as liners for rat-proof containers, but they alone are not rat-proof and stray animals can break into them causing spillage that rats can live on.

Inside Your House:

(6) Keep your house as clean as possible. Keep shelves storage, and sink areas clear of waste.

(7) Store all food in covered containers.

(8) Remove all uneaten pet food and water.

For more information on how you can starve a rat, call the Boston Environmental Health Improvement Program, Department of Health and Hospitals, City of Boston, at 424-5410.

Editor's Note: Our thanks to writer Charles Stahl and the Boston Environmental Health Improvement Program, Department of Health and Hospitals, for the use of this informative and interesting article.

NEW MEMBER JOINS MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

Boston's Museum of Science announces that Hoyle, Doran and Berry, Architects, 248 Boylston Street, Boston, has become a new business member.

The local firm is among 400 in New England that support the Museum as a means of participating in cultural and educational activities in the community. One of the privileges of membership is free passes that can be distributed to employees and their families. Some 50,000 such passes have been made available in the past year to acquaint newcomers to the area with Museum resources and to provide others with a family recreation facility.

Business and industrial firms also support the Museum's program by sponsoring exhibits, acting as consultants, and utilizing the Museum for science-oriented meetings and announcements.

TRAINING PROGRAMS OPEN FOR CETA-ELIGIBLE BOSTONIANS

In 1976 Mayor Kevin H. White created the Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA) in response to Boston's high unemployment rate. EEPA—which administers all CETA funds throughout the city—also sponsors job training programs in fields such as computer operating and programming, bookkeeping, keypunching, auto mechanics, and health career training.

Right now, there are immediate openings in health career training programs.

For CETA-eligible Boston residents, EEPA is sponsoring a tuition-free 15-week course to train people to become nursing assistants. Nursing assistants are members of the health care team whose responsibility include the taking and recording of patient's temperature, pulse, respiration and blood pressure and pre-operative and post-operative care. The course is run by the Dimock Community Health Center in Roxbury.

Public assistance recipients receive $30 allowance during training. All other CETA-eligible clients receive a minimum wage allowance plus a traveling and dependent allowance.

EEPA is also sponsoring a training program in licensed practical nursing (LPN) in conjunction with the Department of Health and Hospitals' School of Practical Nursing. This is a 50-week program designed to train people in bedside nursing. Students are taught basic nursing skills, science, nutrition and pharmacology. On-the-job training is provided at Boston City Hospital and an affiliated chronic disease hospital.

This program, including tuition, uniforms, books, and fees, costs about $1,400. However, financial assistance may be obtained by CETA-eligible applicants.

Said Mayor White, "A career in the health care field is as challenging as it is rewarding. I would encourage all CETA-eligible Boston residents with an aptitude for such work to apply for one of these training slots."

Classes in both the nursing assistants and licensed practical nursing programs will begin soon. Registration has already begun. If you are interested in either program please call or visit one of the following centers for more information on CETA eligibility and admission requirements.

SAVIN HILL WOMAN WINS WITH "WIN"

In June, last year, Madison Park High School sophomore Joyce Clements felt that school had nothing more to offer her.

The 18-year-old Savin Hill resident dropped out. She tried night school. She tried to find a job. But she faced a dead end.

Then, she heard about the Work Incentive (WIN) CETA program run by Boston's Employment and Economic Policy Administration. That program is designed to train and employ welfare recipients through work experience counseling and employment placements.

In its brief existence, WIN has successfully placed 52 applicants in such diverse jobs as clerical work, welding, carpentry, and health occupations.

Mayor Kevin H. White, reviewing the demonstration project's first-year performance observed, "Coordination and cooperation among a variety of agencies through this program is just one part of EEPA's effort to lower the unemployment rate in Boston."

Through WIN, Joyce Clements is now employed as a file clerk in EEPA's Research Planning and Evaluations Department.

And she is much happier now than she was one year ago. "Now, I have my own money. I'm better able to support myself, and I have responsibilities in my job that I never had before."

Said EEPA Administrator Charles Atkins, "We are especially proud of the WIN program which has placed 100 percent of its enrollees into jobs. We hope to expand the program in our efforts to alleviate Boston's unemployment rate."

Atkins explained that a large part of EEPA's success stems from close cooperation among EEPA, Action for Boston Community Development (ABCD), the Division of Employment Security, and the Department of Public Welfare.

For more information about the project WIN program, call 727-7088.

YOU CAN'T FIGHT FIRE WITH FIRE

"You can't fight fire with fire" is the slogan adopted by Mayor Kevin H. White's Summer Task Force in its campaign to discourage neighborhood residents, seeking relief from the summer heat, from opening local fire hydrants.

Illegally opened fire hydrants have become an increasingly dangerous hazard to life and property during the dog day afternoons of summer. In 1977 alone, over 3,500 hydrant openings were recorded through the Mayor's Office of Public Service 24-Hour Service.

Said Mayor White, "City dwellers have traditionally beat the summer heat by opening a local hydrant. We are really working against that psychology. The hydrant openings may provided temporary relief from the heat, but they represent a danger to neighborhoods by reducing water pressure—pressure that must be obtained for fire fighting in the event of an emergency."

The Summer Task Force will be attempting to impress the severity of the potential problem open fire hydrants represent through newspaper articles, radio and television public service announcements, and donated billboards—all emphasizing "You can't fight fire with fire."

Alternatives to the open hydrant tradition do exist: city and MDC pools and beaches are often in sight of open hydrants.

Said Mayor White, "Open hydrants are much more than summer mischief, particularly when suitable recreational alternatives are clearly available. Those still insisting on opening hydrants will be placing their neighbors and themselves in potential danger from the reduced water pressure."

MAYOR'S BUDGET MESSAGE: FISCAL '78-'79

(Part III)

The Limits to Raising Revenues and Taxes

After cost-cutting has reached its limit, some of the remaining budgetary gap can be bridged by improving collections from current sources of revenue. In the past, as much as 26 percent of automobile excise taxes were going uncollected and delinquencies on the property tax were rising. A variety of programs, of which the Rogue's Gallery was the most publicized but not the most important, has reduced these delinquencies and yielded $2.5 million per year in additional collections.

Full realization of the revenue potential of parking enforcement depends on the legislation to create a Parking Violations Bureau, but other steps have also been helpful. From $5.9 million in 1976, parking collections reached $7.2 million last year, and we hope to bring in $8 million this year, partly as a result of the crackdown on parking scofflaws and other aggressive enforcement activities. We hope that out-of-town motorists will modify their current cavalier attitude toward our parking ordinances under the increased pressure, thus yielding a more orderly traffic flow in addition to increased revenue.

Our other basic option on the revenue side — a further increase in the tax rate — is simply unacceptable. The large increase of two years ago has the tax rate very near the point of maximum, sustainable yield, and perhaps beyond it.

By some studies, the effective tax rate now averages 9.3 percent of sales price. At that level, new building is uneconomic in almost all areas of the city; in fact, no major private construction has taken place in Boston since the 1950's except under tax-limitation agreements. In some areas the disincentive to investment has even led to failure to maintain existing structures. While the Housing Improvement Program has effectively combatted this tendency in many residential neighborhoods, problems still remain. The neglect of relatively small amounts of needed maintenance over a few years can ruin what was otherwise a perfectly sound structure.

Any increase in property taxes would thus generate further pressure towards disinvestment and decay, and towards eventual abandonment and removal from the tax rolls. The property tax has become too self-destructive to rely on for needed increases in local revenues.

The Continuing Need for Equitable State Aid

Given the inadequacy and unacceptability of tax increases or further cutbacks of the city workforce, increased state aid of about $45 million will be needed to balance the fiscal 1979 budget. We expect to receive at least that much from pending legislation, based on the state's fiscal position, Boston's contribution to state revenues, and pre-1975 standards of equitable distribution. The Governor has estimated his own package to be worth $50 million.

Boston's Share of Economic Growth and Recovery.

Boston generates 22 percent of the state's total revenues, yet receives only 11 percent of the local aid. Further, we are restricted by state law to the property tax, a tax which grows less rapidly than the economy at large. Other state laws declare over half of our property exempt from taxation: property owned by schools, churches, hospitals, the state government itself, and others. Finally, owners of the remaining property must pay taxes to serve not only our population but also the 350,000 nonresidents who work and visit here on the typical day. This is a very heavy burden.

It is also a burden which, prior to 1975, we shared to a greater extent with the state. However, during the national economic downturn of 1974-1975, the state reacted to its fiscal crisis by cutting aid to the cities and towns and by shifting expenditure burdens to them. These moves contributed to Boston's own fiscal crisis, which we "solved" in the only way available — with the tax increase of 1976.

But the national economy has now substantially recovered, and the state's fiscal position along with it. Where we were forced to participate in the fiscal crisis caused by the recession, we now ask only to participate to an equal extent in the results of relative prosperity. If we were to get the same fraction of state revenues in fiscal 1979 as we did in fiscal 1975, state aid to Boston would go up more than $55 million: enough to balance our budget with a substantial tax-rate decrease.

Pending Fiscal Legislation

At present, the Governor and the General Court are debating whether to increase school aid or speed up state assumption of county costs. We agree with the Massachusetts Taxpayers Foundation that they can and should do both. Either would be of particular benefit to Boston and the other cities of Massachusetts.

The state's education aid formula is designed to equalize educational finance capabilities among communities of varying wealth. Boston and other less wealthy communities have therefore suffered particularly badly from the underfunding of school aid. The Governor's package would yield us additional aid of $22 million.

The peculiar structure of Suffolk County, paid for entirely by Boston taxpayers but providing services both county-wide (the jail, the D.A.'s office), and state-wide (a large part of the business of the Superior Court), has always put an unfair burden on the city. That gives us a special stake in state assumption of costs. Immediate takeover would be worth $21.6 million.

The city has submitted its own legislative package for consideration by the General Court. It consists largely of proposals to rectify what we see as inequities. The largest elements, in dollar terms, are:

- A new MBTA formula, with the state assuming the full costs of nonlocal, commuter express service (worth $21 million to Boston);

- Payment of the state's arrears on its share of the maintenance costs of urban renewal projects ($11.5 million);

- Resumption of Medicaid payments under General Relief, as recommended by the Governor ($11 million);

- Establishment of a Parking Violations Bureau ($5 million).

We believe that a reasonable allocation of the state's surplus and current revenues would produce substantially more than the $45 million needed to balance this year's budget without a tax increase. Any aid above that level will go, not to increased expenditures, but to further reductions in the accumulated deficit, and to reductions in the property tax.

The Continued Revitalization of Boston

If we look up from immediate fiscal problems, the city's future is brighter than it has been in years. The worst of the school crisis is behind us and economic strength is returning. The population has stabilized after years of decrease; the total number of jobs is going up rather than down; property values are firming where they had been weak, and have made dramatic gains in some neighborhoods.

Favorable Economics and Demographics

We are confident that the recent gains are not transitory. Not only do we expect significant results from the new private and federal commitments represented by the Boston Plan, we see the favorable developments of the last few years being supported by long-run trends.

Economically, they are the first fruits of a massive public investment program and reflect the natural attractions of Boston as the financial, cultural, and services center of New England. Demographically, as the "baby boom" of the 1950s reaches the age of family formation and home-buying, we will pass from a period of housing abandonment to a period of housing demand. Increased demand will help stabilize weak neighborhoods and regenerate areas that deteriorated. Rising property values may generate a different set of social problems, but the city's survival as an economic organism will not be in question. It is possible that some major cities, particularly those that were centers of manufacturing rather than services, will be too far down the road of decay for that trend of the 1980s to rescue them. Boston, in contrast, will clearly be a survivor.

The Dangers of 100 percent Revaluation

property reassessment at 100 percent of sales prices. This is a major threat to all we have done and hope to do in making Boston's residential neighborhoods good places to live and raise a family. The total social impact of shifting $78 million in annual tax burden from industry to private homeowners cannot be accurately predicted in detail. At the very least, some neighborhoods now heading for stability would face disinvestment and deterioration.

Only passage of the Classification Amendment in November can prevent the disaster of revaluation. The corporate interests which would reap windfall profits from the sudden shift in tax burdens away from their holdings will have millions to spend to defeat the amendment. The homeowners who stand to lose from the defeat of classification cannot possibly compete with the sort of advertising that big money will buy in this new era of corporate free speech.

We are committed to winning the fight against 100 percent revaluation. I, as Mayor, along with other members of the Massachusetts Mayor's Association, will contribute to a modest, but vigorous, public education campaign. If the voters in November have a clear idea of the issues at stake, the outcome will not be in doubt.

This, then, is our operating plan for fiscal 1978-79. It relies more than we would like on the cooperation of forces beyond our control, most notably the success of our legislative package on Beacon Hill and the Classification Amendment at the polls. It acknowledges that these forces are in too many instances unlikely to be cooperative and it proceeds to limit and hold back on our financial commitments accordingly.

Still, at bottom, the plan for next year is an optimistic one, reflecting a set of external conditions more favorable than not, and establishing program and management objectives both reachable and worth reaching for.

Respectfully submitted,
KEVIN H. WHITE,
Mayor.

TRANSBUS: BUS OF THE FUTURE!

A group of disabled citizens from the Boston Self-Help Center recently demonstrated how persons in wheelchairs can use specially designed, public transportation when they use the new passenger ramps at Ashmont Station to ride the MBTA to the Harvard Station.

With the cooperation of the MBTA, the group boarded a train at Ashmont Station, which was modernized in 1976 with special ramps for persons in wheelchairs. They rode to Harvard Square, held a short meeting, and then reboarded a train for Ashmont.

The primary reason for the Boston Self-Help Center meeting is to gain public support for the Transbus, the bus of the future, which would provide access to persons in wheelchairs, and for regulations to ensure accessibility in the future to transit vehicles and stations.

Since 1974, the MBTA has been developing better transportation for the segment of the public with special transportation needs. As a result of that development, "The Ride" service for disabled persons was started in April, 1977. The vehicles used are specially equipped vans with wheelchair elevators, or lifts.

Approximately 800 persons are registered users of The Ride, which provides door-to-door service within the present service area of Allston, Brighton, Back Bay, South End, parts of Roxbury, and parts of Cambridge. In the first fourteen months of operations, these handicapped persons have used the 75-cent fare service 15,500 times to go to their jobs, to medical centers, and for social and recreational use. The Ride operates every day of the week on the following schedule: Monday, 7 a.m. to 10:30 p.m.; Tuesday, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Wednesday, 7 a.m. to 10:30 p.m.; Thursday, 7 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Friday, 7 a.m. to 1 a.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. to 1 a.m.; and Sunday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

The Ride is expanding its operations and will have ten vehicles in service by the end of this year, and officials anticipate there will be thirty vehicles in service by the end of 1979.

Ronald J. Tober, chief operations planning officer for the MBTA, said today: "What we see is a fleet of 200 to 250 vehicles in the 1980s to serve these special needs. Obviously, a door-to-door service is an expensive operation, but for hundreds of people, a van with a wheelchair lift is the only way for them to get around."

Mr. Tober commented, "The T is also planning and building special access to vehicles and stations to accommodate these hundreds of persons in wheelchairs who are able to use public transportation if it is specially designed."

"In 1976, the station modernization at Ashmont Station included the special ramp system. In 1977, the Oak Grove Station was opened with an elevator able to be used by the handicapped and any other members of the public."

"Late in 1978, the oldest subway station in America, Park Street Station, will have an elevator from the corner of Winter and Tremont Streets to the station below. At Washington Station, there is an elevator available in the Jordan Marsh store which can take passengers to the Orange Line, northbound platform."

"All the forthcoming new stations, from Harvard to Alewife on the Red Line Northwest; the Red Line stations in South Quincy and Braintree; and the Southwest Corridor stations on the relocated Orange Line will have elevators.

"Obviously, it takes a lot of engineering, a lot of manpower, and a lot of additional time and money to extend mass transit service to persons in wheelchairs. This is a federally mandated program, and the MBTA approves of the idea, even though it costs a great deal more to build and operate these specially designed features," said Mr. Tober.

"What we want is to make sure that the federal government will provide the additional money that is needed to make this federally mandated program work. That will mean not only money for construction of station elevators, but money for additional manpower to maintain wheelchair lifts on vehicles so that they will operate on the relatively few occasions they are used," he said.

"We are experimenting currently with a wheelchair lift on one bus, and we are going to install five more wheelchair lifts on current buses."

"We recognize that there are special challenges involved—for example, the evacuation of persons in wheelchairs from a train stalled in the subway."

"We want to work with the groups involved to make sure that their accessibility to public transportation occurs as fast as possible. Right now, there are few routes that a person in a wheelchair can use, but they will be expanding as we get new and modernized stations and vehicles. The new Blue and Orange Line cars, arriving late this year and next year, will be accessible, as will the rehabilitated Ashmont cars on the Red line and the Silverbird cars on the Red Line once their seating pattern is installed. An elevator is being built at the State Station and a ramp is planned for the rebuilt Wonderland Station."

"The MBTA opened in 1897 and it is the oldest subway system in America, concluded Mr. Tober. "Obviously, it is not easy or quick to rebuild a system's stations and vehicles so that there is a 32-inch-wide door or ramp or elevator to accommodate wheelchairs. But we're getting there."

DON'T GET TAGGED!

Tagging of Parked Cars Confining Pet Passengers

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that Boston's meter maids this summer will be posting heat prostration warning cards on the windshields of all parked cars confining pets.

The pink warning cards, produced by the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, bear the legend, "Hot Cars Kill Pets."

Said Traffic and Parking Commissioner Emily Lloyd, "As the city's meter maids walk their rounds they often see family pets confined in extremely warm autos. The windows are sealed, and there is no water for the pets."

Mayor White added, "We are hoping that this program, in cooperation with the MSCPA, will make drivers more aware of their responsibility to their pets."

Each summer, according to the MSCPA, countless dogs and cats suffer needlessly and even die in locked cars parked in the sun. With no fresh air or water, these pets could perish from heat prostration.

MINORITY BUSINESSMEN: SEEK CITY CONTRACTS!

Mayor Kevin H. White encourages minority business executives to actively seek more contracts from the City of Boston.

Mayor White, speaking at a Parkman House reception for minority business leaders, outlined the efforts his administration has made to develop a better rapport with minority businesses.

Said Mayor White, "We have taken a number of steps to pursue more equity for minority businesses in their dealings with the city. That will mean new faces and new talent contracting with the city to provide services and materials. It will also mean new capital for businessmen who have not been in the mainstream of traditional city purchasing and contracting practices."

In November, 1977, Mayor White created the Office for Minority Business. That office, directed by Walter E. Williams, was assigned three main objectives:

—To develop policies to require city departments to contract with minority business enterprises;

—To identify, recruit, and certify, minority businesses as resources for various city departments;

—To act as an advocate for both minority businesses and city departments.

Mayor White formalized his commitment to a more active role in city contracts for minority businesses through a late June executive order. That order directs city departments to provide a greater role for minority businesses in the awarding of city contracts for procurement and purchasing of supplies, materials, equipment, services, and construction contracts.

Also at that reception, Mayor White presented plaques to three entrepreneurs who were named to the list of the "Top 100" Minority Businessmen in America by Black Enterprise Magazine. The executives were: Eugene V. Roundtree, president of All Stainless Co.; Denis A. Blackett, president, HII Corporation; and John B. Cruz, III, president of John B. Cruz Construction Co., Inc.

Mayor Announces Major Expansion of Mounted Police Patrol in Boston Neighborhoods

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced neighborhood schedules for sixty new boats of mounted police assigned to help residents keep crime down in Boston's neighborhoods.

Mayor White said the mounted patrol "is more visible and more personal to the community than cruiser patrols and more mobile than foot patrols."

Crime in Boston is down 6 percent in the first six months of 1978, the Mayor said, and he stressed that the city's crime rate dropped 12 percent overall in 1977.

"The drop in the crime rate is encouraging," Mayor White said, "but there are still problems we have to deal with — including vandalism and destructive behavior by gangs of young people — and the mounted patrol is ideal for police work in these areas."

The Mayor announced the mounted patrol at a press conference at City Hall plaza, accompanied by Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan, Superintendent Dan MacDonald, of the Bureau of Field Services, Captain Stanley Dirsa, who will head the mounted patrol, and thirty officers of the patrol.

Mounted patrols have traditionally been used for crowd control and traffic direction in the downtown business and theater districts and in the city's parks since the first police horse began work in Boston in 1883.

The patrol increased to sixteen horses in the 1960s.

The new horses will give Boston more than seventy-five horses, the highest proportion of mounted patrol in any major American city.

The Mayor said the first introduction of the added mounted patrols to the neighborhoods will take place in late July at Town Field in Dorchester.

The Mayor said "Dorchester will get eighteen horses because territorially it is the city's largest neighborhood, and because the people of Dorchester want a positive police presence to help them develop better neighborhood security and to establish better police-community relations."

Allston-Brighton will get four patrols.

Back Bay-Fenway, and Beacon Hill will get six and four respectively. Charlestown will get two and Chinatown will get one.

East Boston will get three horse beats and the North End will have two. South Boston will have one mounted patrol.

Jamaica Plain will have three mounted patrols, as will Mattapan-Franklin Field. Roxbury will get three mounted patrols.

Hyde Park will have one mounted police patrol and West Roxbury and Roslindale will have two each.

The downtown district will have five mounted patrols.

More than thirty Boston police officers have graduated from Police Academy mounted patrol training course as part of the program, and former stables in the Fenway and at Franklin Field are being renovated to supplement facilities at the police stable in Jamaica Plain.

The program is a major element of the Mayor's Neighborhood Improvement Program, and will be funded by both city funds and federal Community Development Block Grants. The total program cost will be about $1.5 million.

V. LETTER OF THANKS

"June 20.

Dear Commissioner Paul:

On Monday evening, June 19th, around 5:30 p.m., Engine 28 and Ladder 10 responded to a three-car accident on Circuit Drive outside the Shattuck Hospital. The sight that I saw as a result of the accident was one of horror and sadness, to see people so badly hurt and also one who died because of this crash.

The one thing that kept me together at the scene was to see the officers and men of Engine 28, and Ladder 10, working as professionals and human beings, to care for the injured and remove them from their trapped cars with care and compassion, with no time lost to transport them to area hospitals.

I know that your men and everyone in your department risk their lives twenty-four hours a day, year-round, whatever may be the case.

I cannot help but write to you to tell you what a blessing to know that you have such dedicated men in your department.

I want them to know that my prayers go with them always and this I shall always remember for a lifetime.

Sincerely,

Charles W. Sturgeon, Jamaica Plain, Mass."

"June 16.

Dear Commissioner Paul:

Now that things have settled down here at the Lenox. I wanted to take this opportunity on behalf of Mr. Roger Saunders, president of the Lenox Hotel, as well as the entire staff to express our thanks to the firemen who did such a fine job putting out the electrical fire in our basement.

The problem was serious enough to cause us to close down for approximately forty-eight hours. Your men are to be commended for the manner in which they handled this very serious and dangerous situation. They responded quickly and had our guests evacuated swiftly, safely, and without causing great alarm.

Sincerely,

Anthony N. Gaeta,
Vice President and General Manager."

He had stopped breathing and had become cyanotic. Fire Fighters Nee and Holt immediately commenced cardiopulmonary resuscitation until Fire Captain Kennedy resumed breathing. While other members called for an ambulance and resuscitator service, Captain Kennedy again lapsed into a cyanotic condition and Fire Fighters Nee and Holt resumed cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

Upon arrival of Ladder Company 19, oxygen was administered until the arrival of the Boston City Hospital ambulance. Fire Captain Kennedy lapsed into a cyanotic condition on two occasions while being transported to the Boston City Hospital and was revived by Fire Fighters Nee and Holt.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to highly commend Fire Fighters Nee and Holt for their swift and efficient administration of cardiopulmonary resuscitation and their persistence in reviving their company commander. Their case is referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration

Bids shall be accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a bid bond or cash or a certified check or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority. A bid bond shall be: (a) in a form satisfactory to the Awarding Authority; (b) with a surety company qualified to do business in the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority; (c) conditioned upon the faithful performance by the principal of the agreements

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Authority, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of successful bidder.

Attention is also called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment and to the Boston Redevelopment Authority's Equal Opportunity Compliance Policy, adopted February 20, 1969, revised June 12, 1975, and to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Supplemental Equal Employment Opportunity, Anti-Discrimination and Affirmative Action Program.

Attention is also directed to the Instructions to Bidders — Award of Contract: Rejection of Bids and the prohibition of abnormally high and abnormally low prices for any class or item of work.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest to do so.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days from the date of the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of bidders, prior to awarding the contract.

Bidders on this work will be required to comply with the President's Executive Order No. 11246 and amendments or supplements to that Executive Order. The requirements for bidders and contractors under this order are explained in the Instructions to Bidders.

Any contract or contracts awarded under this invitation for bids are expected to be funded in part by a grant from the United States Environmental Protection Agency. This procurement will be subject to regulations contained in 40 CFR 35.936, 35.938, and 35.939. Neither the United States nor any of its departments, agencies or employees is or will be a party to the Invitation for Bids or any resulting contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including, without limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subbidders), and the provisions with the respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246. A statement of workforce needs as required by section 3 and a section 3 Affirmative Action Plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. These are forms AAP1-AAP6 and AAP8 and can be found at pages ST1-ST10 of the contract documents. This requirement will be strictly adhered to. Proposals submitted without the required forms will be rejected. No bidder shall be eligible for award on this project unless he/she is able to demonstrate to satisfaction of the Awarding Authority his/her ability to comply with these requirements.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the minority participation section of the City of Boston Contract for U.N. Funded Construction Contracts the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent of his/her bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purpose of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business at least 50 percent of which is owned and controlled by minority group members or, in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by minority group members who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

All prospective bidders will be required to attend a prebid conference to discuss the federal, state, and local compliance requirements cited above with the Contract Compliance Officer.

Prebid conference will be held at 11:30 A.M., August 14, 1978, at Mr. Reggie Johnson's Office, Room 917.

WATER AND SEWER COMMISSION: AN ANALYSIS

Dear Customer:

Since the Boston Water and Sewer Commission came into existence last year, there have been many questions about who and what we are, what we do and, of course, why the water and sewer rates went up. It's also possible that some of you will not have even heard about the Commission until you receive that first bill from us.

We have anticipated many questions and taken the opportunity to impart this information in order to answer them. We think it's important that you, our customer, know what the Commission is and understand what we do. We hope you will take the time to read through the following pages.

Although the water and sewer business is considered an essential service, one most people cannot do without, we see it another way: our customers are essential to the water and sewer business, and we're here to serve you as well as we can.

If you have any questions about the Boston Water and Sewer Commission, please call or write our business office at: The Boston Water and Sewer Commission, 10 Post Office Square, Boston, Mass. 02109, Tel. 426-6046.

John S. Howe,
Chairman,

Melvin B. Miller,
Vice-Chairman,

Michael J. Rotenberg,
Commissioner.

About the Commission

What is the Boston Water and Sewer Commission?

The Commission is a municipal agency that was formed last year by state legislation to take over the functions of the Water and Sewer Divisions of the Public Works Department of the City of Boston. According to the law, it is headed by three commissioners who are appointed by the Mayor, subject to the approval of the City Council. The commissioners appoint an executive director who is responsible for the day-to-day management of the Boston Water and Sewer Commission. As of January 1, 1978, all the people who worked for the Water and Sewer Divisions of the city's Public Works Department became employees of the Commission.

What exactly does the Commission do?

The Commission provides water and sewer service to nearly 90,000 customers in the City of Boston. It buys the water it provides from the Metropolitan District Commission (MDC) and maintains approximately 1,000 miles of water pipes through which it flows. The Commission also maintains about 1,400 miles of sewer pipes and pumping stations, with which to collect customers' sewage and transport it to the MDC which, in turn, provides treatment.

RACIAL VIOLENCE INVESTIGATED

Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan has announced that representatives of the United States Attorney's Office and the Federal Bureau of Investigation met recently with officials of the Boston Police Department concerning incidents of racial violence in city neighborhoods and housing projects. Attending this meeting were George McMahon, assistant United States attorney; Allen G. Ringold, special agent, FBI; Robert Wasserman, operations assistant to the police commissioner; and Sergeant Francis Roache, commander of the Police Department's Community Disorders Unit. At this meeting, a review was made of the information on these incidents gathered by the Boston police. A large amount of material was provided to the federal authorities by the Police Department. This material is being evaluated by federal authorities.

At the conclusion of the meeting, the federal officials met with Police Commissioner Jordan. At this point, they indicated that they had seen enough information to share the concern of the police commissioner.

Assistant United States Attorney McMahon indicated that the evaluation of the information provided by the department would take several days and that he would keep in close contact with department officials during that period.

The Commission bills its customers for water and sewer service based on the volume of water used.

The Commission also provides fire service connections to over 4,000 customers. These connections are used for fire emergency systems such as sprinklers.

What advantages does the Boston Water and Sewer Commission provide?

The Boston Water and Sewer Commission offers its customers advantages in three major areas: rate equity, management, and conservation.

In the past, water rates were based on a declining block — the more water used, the cheaper the rate. The Boston Water and Sewer Commission is mandated by law to charge a flat rate for water — this way, all customers pay the same price for a given quantity of water.

The Boston Water and Sewer Commission is also mandated by law to be self-sufficient from rate revenues (the Commission's only source of revenue) and it is not allowed to accumulate any deficit. When the Water and Sewer Divisions were part of the Public Works Department of the City of Boston, a deficit accumulated over the years. It was necessary for the city to pay for any deficit from general revenues from property taxes. This meant that property taxes subsidized the tax-exempt users (and over 50 percent of the property in Boston is tax-exempt). As a separate entity created by state law, the Commission must charge all customers for their actual water and sewer use, so now everyone, including tax-exempt institutions, will pay their fair share. No longer will the property taxpayer subsidize a water and sewer deficit.

Under the Commission, all water and sewer functions are now consolidated into one agency with one individual, the Commission's executive director, responsible for its management. Within this one agency are all administrative and operations functions: billing and collection; water and sewer maintenance; engineering; customer service; purchasing; etc. These functions are no longer spread out between many agencies as they were when they were part of the city's Public Works Department.

The third major advantage of the Boston Water and Sewer Commission is the incentive its new rate structure creates for water conservation. The flat rate (as discussed above and in the Rates Section) encourages conservation by all customers, and the elimination of minimum rates insures that small-volume customers pay only for the services they use.

In addition, the Commission is enlarging its program of leak detection. If we can decrease the amount of water used and the amount lost through leaks, the need for the MDC to expand its water supplies will decrease. If such expansion can be avoided, the major capital costs associated with it, which would be borne in part by the Commission and, of course, our customers, can also be avoided. Even if the MDC has to make a physical expansion, if we can reduce the amount of water used in Boston, we can argue that Boston shouldn't have to bear a major part of expansion costs.

What other plans for improvements does the Commission have?

In addition to the leak detection program already under way, we plan to remeter the entire city, where necessary, over the next five years. One of the biggest problems the Commission faced was that approximately 50 percent of the water we bought from the MDC was unbillable. This was due in large part to meter slippage (as meters age, they will slip and measure less water than actually passes through them) and unmetered public usage (such as that currently used by City of Boston buildings). The leak-detection and metering programs will address the first two causes contributing to that 50 percent figure. In addition, we plan to meter all city buildings (schools, parks, hospitals, and other municipal buildings) and bill them for their water usage.

Also at the top of our list of priorities are capital improvements to the physical water and sewer system. It's an old system and needs a good amount of work. We hope to be able to get federal money in addition to our own funds for its rehabilitation.

Rates

What are the new rates?

Effective January 1, 1978, the rates are: Water, $8.90 per 1,000 cubic feet ($1.19 per 1,000 gallons); Sewer, $3.96 per 1,000 cubic feet ($.53 per 1,000 gallons). See Services Section for a list of charges for special services.

How are they different from the old rates?

The new rates are different in three ways. First, the dollar amount per unit of water or sewer use has changed. This is illustrated below:

Annual Consumption Level	Water Bills Under Old Rates	Water Bills Under New Rates	Sewer Bills Under Old Rates	Sewer Bills Under New Rates
4,000 cu. ft. (4 units)	$46.00*	$35.60	$5.00	$15.84
40,000 cu. ft. (40 units)	306.00	356.00	40.00	158.40
400,000 cu. ft. (400 units)	2,612.00	3,560.00	400.00	1,584.00

* minimum rate for 6,000 cubic feet

 minimum rate for 5,000 cubic feet

The 4,000 cubic feet consumers are generally people living in single-family homes. Customers consuming 40,000 cubic feet per year are generally large-family homeowners or those who own multiple-family homes. Those properties consuming 400,000 cubic feet are generally large apartment buildings or businesses such as laundries and car washes.

Second, the Commission is required by law to charge a flat rate for water, i.e., a fixed amount per unit of consumption. The old rates were based on a declining block — the more water used, the lower the rate.

Third, minimum charges have been eliminated. Under the old rates, many customers, particularly single or elderly homeowners, used less water than payment of the minimum charge entitled them. Now, customers pay only for what they use.

What's the advantage of a flat rate?

First, it's fair to all customers — everyone pays the same amount for a given quantity of water used. Second, it's an incentive to conserve water. Now that the rate doesn't get lower as the amount of water used gets higher, people are more likely to use water wisely and economically.

Why did the rates go up?

Put simply: so that the Commission could meet the expenses of supplying water and sewer services to its 90,000 customers. But there is more to it than that. Over the past years the revenues received by the Public Works Department of the City of Boston were not enough to meet the cost of providing water and sewer services. The Commission assessed everything it would have to pay for in order to provide service to 90,000 customers and then calculated how much water and sewer rates would have to be in order to meet those expenses. According to the law, the Commission held public hearings on December 21, 1977, and on January 17, 1978, on a proposed set of rates which met those expenses. After taking into consideration all the information and arguments presented, the Commission voted on March 15, 1978, to adopt the proposed rates with two exceptions: the proposed charges for the turning on and shutting off of water service were eliminated.

What are those expenses the new rates pay for?

As discussed earlier, the Boston Water and Sewer Commission is required by law to be self-sufficient from rate revenues. That is, rates must bring in enough money to cover each year's costs. The Commission's major annual costs are:

MDC Assessment for Water and Sewer Services, 37 percent.

Operating Expenses (wages, salaries, supplies and materials, damage claims, discounts for elderly and fully disabled), 34 percent.

Capital Expenses, 17 percent.

Debt Service, 9 percent.

Routine Maintenance and Repairs to the System and Equipment, 3 percent.

"No," replied the waitress. "It's a parking ticket."

SUMMERTHING: INSTANT HAPPINESS

In the summer of 1968, something special happened to Boston. It didn't happen for just a day, a week, or a month — it happened all summer long. And it didn't happen in just one or two neighborhoods — it happened all over the city. By summer's end, many of Boston's residents had been delighted, challenged, entertained, enriched, and encouraged. That special something was Summerthing, Boston's very first neighborhood festival — a summer program of free entertainment, visual arts, and creative workshops offered to all its residents from the North End to Roxbury and from the Back Bay to Hyde Park.

It was the first time for as long as Bostonians could remember that they had an opportunity to come to free performances by such stars as Woody Herman, Anthony and the Imperials, Olatunji and his African Dancers, the Boston Ballet Company, and the Boston Philharmonia. It was the first time that in their own neighborhoods, children, teenagers, and adults could enroll in one, two, or more free, creative workshops — workshops whose offerings were so varied that each person could not help but find one which stirred his imagination or called to an as yet unexplored talent. And it was the first time that communities worked together planting gardens, building new playgrounds, and painting giant, wall murals to make all the neighborhoods brighter places in which to live.

Boston's first Summerthing summer was indeed very special. It was the harbinger of more good summers to come.

Summerthing is more than fun or something to do in the summer — it is much more. The program awakens and involves, and Bostonians recognize this. According to a survey by the Becker Research Corporation, Boston residents see Summerthing as something which "brings people together," "gets people to work together," "creates an interest in city activities," and "provides more awareness of arts in the inner city."

Through the medium of the arts, Summerthing helps to strengthen the fabric of our community and make Boston a better, brighter, and happier place in which to live. That special something is what Summerthing is all about.

Summerthing is funded in part by the City of Boston and in part by contributions from private foundations, organizations, business firms, and interested citizens. The funds are dispersed by The Boston Foundation, Inc., a nonprofit, tax-exempt foundation. Contributions, which are tax-deductible, are always welcome and may be sent to The Boston Foundation, Inc., c/o Summerthing, City Hall, Boston, Mass. 02201.

The Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs serves as a coordinating and resource center for the neighborhoods, as well as being responsible for maintaining the artistic quality and balance of the entire program. Neighborhood coordinators, residents of each of Boston's twenty neighborhoods, implement each community's own plans for the summer festival activities. Summerthing coordinators are full-time, paid, staff members during the summer months and are responsible for a budget from which they pay for administrative staffs and hire workshop teachers.

Each community's plans for Summerthing events include workshops and projects for children, teenagers, and adults in art, music, drama, dance, photography, or any other subject that may appeal to a particular neighborhood; and performances such as theater, popular music, square or folk dancing, block dances, and movies. Artistic talent thus finds expression in Summerthing workshops, while performances give local artists recognition, encouragement, and an opportunity to share their abilities with the communities in which they live.

In addition to major and small performances and neighborhood workshops, Summerthing offers a varied selection of mobile attractions which travel to Boston neighborhoods all summer long. These popular Summerthing programs include the Moviebus, which brings full-length, feature films to neighborhoods six nights a week; Soul Train, which creates an instant block party with a truck, a record player, an enthusiastic disc jockey, and today's most popular soul music; Disco Set, which has the same ingredients as Soul Train but features today's rock and roll, reggae, rhythm and blues, and salsa sounds; the Poem Mobile, which visits neighborhood poetry workshops and stages poetry reading events; and Troubadours, two- and three-person troupes of actors, singers, clowns, mimes, and jugglers who travel throughout a neighborhood giving performances wherever people are gathered.

Also available to neighborhoods is Jamboree, a festive caravan of educational workshops in the arts, which travels to Boston communities for all-day festivals of creative learning. Jamboree workshops offer instruction in subjects ranging from Theater Forms and Faces to Fibre Play.

In addition, Senior Summerthing offers creative and artistic events for Boston's elderly during the summer. These events include sing-alongs, theatrical performances, creative movement classes, big band dances, bus trips to museums, aquariums and the zoo, plant clinics, and a variety of workshops.

Responding to other community needs, Summerthing has developed programs of special activities for the city's Spanish-speaking, residents of housing developments, patients in hospitals and nursing homes, and those in correctional institutions.

MAYOR PRAISES SIGNING OF TAX CLASSIFICATION BILL

Mayor Kevin H. White, on July 24, praised Governor Dukakis' signing of the Property Tax Classification Bill, H.B. 6054, as "another step toward saving property taxpayers in this state from the burdens of 100 percent valuation."

The Governor's signature means that the enabling legislation providing for classification will be "on the shelf" should the people of the Commonwealth vote to amend the Constitution in regard to taxes in the November elections. The Classification Amendment is Referendum Question One.

The proposed amendment and bill are in response to court-ordered, 100 percent valuation of all property, which Mayor White says would be disastrous to the state's homeowners.

"The tax burden will be shifted from business onto the homeowner and tenant under 100 percent valuation — approximately $265 million statewide, and $65 million in Boston alone," said Mayor White. "For some communities, this would constitute a doubling of homeowners' tax bills."

The Amendment, Question One, asks voters to decide on a change in the Constitution to allow "no more than four classes" of property for the purposes of taxation, and to "assess, rate, and tax such property differently" according to class.

The bill, signed today, spells out the terms of the tax change should the Amendment pass. The legislation sets the tax rate for residential property at 40 percent of fair market value; for commercial property at 50 percent; for industrial property at 55 percent; and for open space the rate is set at 25 percent.

The bill also provides for a $5,000 exemption on assessed value within the residential class.

The bill was submitted to the Legislature by the Massachusetts Mayors Association and passed by both houses on July 11.

TAX DELINQUENTS PAY

Boston Police Commissioner Joseph Jordan announced recently that as a result of the department's annual hackey carriage inspection which ended on July 5, 1978, delinquent motor vehicle excise taxes in the amount of $150,000 had been collected.

The delinquent taxes were levied on taxicabs licensed by the City of Boston and had not been paid for a number of years. All licensed taxicabs were required to pay any outstanding and delinquent excise taxes before they were able to receive their medallion license for the 1978-1979 year.

The collection of the taxes was the result of a joint effort between the Hackney Unit headed by Lieutenant Norman Ebsary, and the Delinquent Tax Unit of the city's Treasury Department.

THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

Prerevolutionary days were a time of dramatic confrontation, persistent boycott of British goods, and constant petition of an unyielding British parliament.

In Massachusetts, Colonial statesmen, centered in Boston, organized political groups that met frequently to discuss the politics of revolution. At town meetings held in Boston's Faneuil Hall and the Old South Meeting House, the principles that formed the basis for our Declaration of Independence were tested and proven in long sessions of debate.

Talk gave way to action and, in the 1770s Boston became the hotbed for real revolution. Colonists, infuriated by the presence of an armed British militia, taunted infantry officers — an act of mild aggression that led to the Boston Massacre on March 5, 1770.

Increased friction during the 70s served to weaken Britain's stronghold over the Colonies. The imposition of new and stiffer taxes and limitations on the right to self-government led to open rebellion — the notorious Boston Tea Party, the famous warning ride of Paul Revere, the first confrontation at Concord, the Battle of Bunker Hill and, after an eleven-month siege, the final expulsion of the British military from Boston, March 17, 1776. Four months later the Second Continental Congress voted for full independence.

MDC STUDIES QUALITY OF HARBOR WATERS

The Metropolitan District Commission announced July 18, that it has begun preliminary engineering studies pertaining to control of combined sewer overflow discharges into Boston Harbor.

MDC Commissioner John F. Snedeker explained that, "Previous Boston Harbor water quality studies have shown that the discharges from the combined sewer overflows are now the greatest source of pollution of the harbor waters. These discharges have long been a concern to health officials because of their proximity to bathing beaches and shellfish beds."

The MDC has undertaken this program to abate pollution of Boston Inner Harbor, Dorchester Bay, the Charles River Basin, and the Neponset River Estuary.

Currently, the MDC provides treatment of waste-water flows at the Deer and Nut Island treatment plants. During rainstorms, however, combined storm-water overflow facilities to mitigate the impacts of these discharges, and a third facility is being built.

The engineering studies include: investigation of existing sanitary and storm sewer systems, gauging and sampling of the overflows, hydrologic analysis of the combined sewer system, water quality evaluation, development of control alternatives, and the preliminary design of a recommended plan.

Commissioner Snedeker continued, "We look forward to extensive public participation programs including meetings with municipal officials, the general public, and local interest groups."

Federal construction grants of $3,345,000 have been awarded to the MDC for the project by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. Under the present schedule, construction of all facilities recommended as a result of the planning would be completed by 1985.

The projects are being managed through the MDC's Environmental Planning Office by Ms. Libby Blank, director of environmental planning, and John R. Elwood, combined sewer overflow project manager.

The firm of Camp, Dresser, and McKee, Inc. (CDM), of Boston, will prepare a plan for the Dorchester Bay Area and will assist MDC in overall project management. Plans for the Charles River Basin will be developed by Metcalf & Eddy, Inc., of Boston, for Boston Inner Harbor by O'Brien & Gere, Inc., of Syracuse, New York, and for the Neponset River Estuary by Havens and Emerson, Inc., of Cleveland, Ohio.

If you think twice before you speak, you'll never get into the conversation, which may bother you at the time, but you'll be grateful afterward.

SUMMER JOBS PROGRAM CONTINUES

Mayor White Announces $220,000 Grant to Youth Summer Jobs Program

Mayor Kevin H. White, on July 27, announced that the Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA) has been awarded a $220,000 Department of Labor grant for its Summer Program for Economically Disadvantaged Youth (SPEDY). This is the second supplemental appropriation awarded to that program, bringing the total funding to approximately $4 million. Boston is one of four cities nationwide to receive this additional funding. New York City, Atlanta, and Cleveland also received grants.

Said Mayor White, "This additional money will allow the city to hire about 675 more youths for summer jobs. To compensate those neighborhoods not covered by the Boston Plan Project Y.E.S., we have specified that this money be used to hire youth in nonentitlement areas."

Eligible youths living in the following neighborhoods may apply for SPEDY jobs: Allston-Brighton, East Boston, Roslindale, West Roxbury, Jamaica Plain (including Bromley-Heath), Franklin Field, and the parts of Dorchester, Roxbury, and Mattapan not included in Project Y.E.S.

SPEDY jobs are available in public agencies and nonprofit organizations to economically disadvantaged youth, fourteen to twenty-one. Enrollees earn the minimum wage, and work up to twenty-five hours per week for eight weeks. The SPEDY program is run under contract to EEPA by Action for Boston Community Development, Inc. (ABCD).

"The City of Boston," Mayor White continued, "has provided nearly 15,000 jobs for youth, and that's more than twice as many as last year. We have made significant progress in the youth unemployment crisis."

In addition, the number of year-round jobs available through EEPA programs, Project Y.E.S., On-the-Job Training (OJT), Youth Employment and Training (Y.E.T.P.) and Youth Conservation and Community Improvement Program (Y.C.C.I.P.), has quadrupled since last year.

Charles M. Atkins, EEPA administrator, recognizes the ongoing needs of Boston's unemployed youth. "EEPA," Mr. Atkins promises, "will continue to work with the U.S. Department of Labor to maximize the expanded available resources for all youths in the City of Boston."

XI. HIGH COMMENDATION

At 1711 hours June 16, 1978, Box 1579 was struck for a fire at 287 Beacon Street, incident No. 26241.

Upon arrival of Engine Company 33 and Ladder Company 15 at the above location, members were informed that a child was still inside the fire building. Fire Lieut. Nicholas Keenan, Ladder Company 15, donned an air-mask and proceeded to lead a search of the premises. Lieut. Keenan found a child on a bed adjacent to the fire area and as he removed the victim from the building, he performed mouth-to-mouth resuscitation until he reached the outside where other members relieved him until arrival of an ambulance. The child was removed to the Children's Hospital for treatment by Health and Hospitals personnel.

Since the fire, heat, smoke, and gasses had built to a considerable degree because ventilation had not been accomplished or lines of hose placed into operation. Fire Lieut. Keenan performed this act without regard for his own personal safety, under extremely hazardous conditions. The Fire Commissioner is pleased to highly commend Fire Lieut. Keenan, Ladder Company 15, and his case is referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration.

XII. COMMENDATION

The Fire Commissioner is in receipt of a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Walter Junkins of Readville, commending the members of Engine Company 49 for the services provided when they responded to an incident involving their daughter who was struck by an automobile.

NO. 33

WATER AND SEWER COMMISSION: AN ANALYSIS

Part II, continued from last week.

How frequently will the Commission issue its water and sewer bills?

Combined water and sewer bills are issued four times yearly to all customers beginning with the Commission's first billing in June, 1978.

If I don't pay my water and sewer bill, will the amount due be added to my city property tax bill?

No. Now that the Commission is separate from the city, the process of adding unpaid water and sewer bills to property tax bills (known as a municipal lien) will no longer be carried out. However, unpaid 1977 water and sewer bills and 1976 sewer bills from the city will be added to 1979 property tax bills.

Is there a charge for late payment?

Yes. There is a delinquency charge of 1½ percent per month (an annual percentage rate of 18 percent) on amounts unpaid after thirty days.

How is the delinquency charge computed?

On your bill you will find noted the last billing date and the current billing date. The computer will take the number of days between billing dates, minus thirty days, and then multiply any overdue, unpaid balance by the number of days times 0.04932 percent (the annual 18 percent percentage rate divided by 365 days).

If I can't pay my water and sewer bill all at once, may I make partial payments?

Of course, but remember — any balance outstanding after thirty days is subject to the delinquency charge of 1½ percent per month.

Will my water be shut off if I don't pay my water bill?

Although the Boston Water and Sewer Commission is empowered by law to begin proceedings to terminate service if bills remain unpaid after six months, we hope we won't have to do so. We urge customers to pay their bills on time — the costs of unpaid bills are a burden that the Commission and, ultimately, all customers will have to bear.

Where can I pay my water and sewer bill?

Bills from the Boston Water and Sewer Commission can be paid by mail, using the self-addressed envelope enclosed with your bill; in person at the Boston Water and Sewer Commission office on the seventh floor of 10 Post Office Square (behind the John W. McCormack Post Office and Court House); or in person at local Little City Halls (Little City Halls can accept only a check or money order, not cash). Any water or sewer bills from the City of Boston must be paid at Boston City Hall.

Adjustments

How are billing errors corrected?

The Commission will make adjustments if you are overbilled because of incorrect meter readings. Call or visit our Customer Service Department if you think your bill is incorrect (426-6046).

If I get an estimated bill, can I have my bill adjusted to the actual reading?

There are two reasons why you might receive an estimated bill. First, as we mentioned before, water and sewer bills are issued quarterly. Your billing date might occasionally fall between scheduled meter readings. So an estimated bill based on your normal use may be rendered. Second, sometimes our meter reader is unable to obtain a reading of your water meter. In this case, too, an estimated bill based on your normal use may be rendered. Any variance due to estimation will be automatically corrected by the next billing since your meter should have been read by that time. So an adjustment for an estimated bill is not really necessary.

What if I think my water meter is faulty — can I get an adjustment on my bill?

If you think your water meter is reading incorrectly and want us to check it, a $10 deposit must first be made with the Boston Water and Sewer Commission. If we find your meter to be over-registering your water consumption, or if it does not work at all, we will adjust your bill, replace or repair your meter, and refund your deposit. If your meter is found to be working correctly or under-registering your water consumption, you must pay the amount you have been billed and your deposit is kept by the Commission. A common reason for an "unexplainable" increase in metered, water consumption is that there are leaks in your pipes, in which case you should have a plumber check your system. (See section "About Leaks" for some startling information on water loss through leaks.)

Water and Sewer Commission

Are there any special adjustments?

Yes. Homeowners, sixty-five years of age or older, and fully disabled homeowners, living in structures of one to four dwelling units, are eligible for a discount on their water bills for that structure. For example, if you are sixty-five years of age or older, or fully disabled, and live in and own a three-family home, you are eligible for the discount. If you are sixty-five years of age or older, or fully disabled, and own but do not live in a three-family home, you are eligible for the discount. The discount is 10 percent of the water bill up to a maximum of $2.50 per quarter.

How do I apply for either discount?

Those customers sixty-five years of age and older are required to bring a proof of age (such as a birth certificate or photocopy of same, driver's license, MBTA Senior Citizen Pass) to the Boston Water and Sewer Commission's Customer Service Department (seventh floor, 10 Post Office Square). Those customers requesting a discount for the fully disabled should provide the Customer Service Department with a doctor's certificate identifying the handicap and its permanency, an "award" notice from Social Security or, for veterans, a card from the Veterans' Administration.

How does the Commission define "fully disabled?"

If a person is "unable to engage in substantial, gainful activity because of a physical or mental impairment which has lasted or will last for at least twelve months," he or she is considered to be "fully disabled."

Services

What other services does the Commission provide and what do they cost?

The following is a list of special services and their fees:

Fire Flow Test (fixed fee)

This tests the hydraulic capabilities of the water distribution system for fire fighting, $100 (day); $300 (night).

Temporary Connection

Construction (a hydrant and meter are installed for the duration and the customer is billed for the water consumed during that period), $250 deposit.

Demolition (fixed fee), $25.

Inspection Fee (New Water Service)

This covers processing the application and the cost of inspecting the field work when it is done by an outside contractor, $85.

Service Installation

The Commission only installs 3/4-inch to 2-inch services; all other installation must be done by an outside contractor, $250 to $500 for (3/4-inch to 2-inch service).

Special Meter Test, $10 deposit.

Sidewalk Excavation Fee, $150 deposit.

Fire Service Fees — 4-inch and smaller, annual charge, $225; 6-inch, annual charge, $500; 8-inch and larger, annual charge, $900.

As a homeowner, where does my responsibility end and the Commission's begin, regarding water and sewer pipes?

Regarding water service, the Commission is responsible for water pipes from the water main up to 18-inches from the building foundation, or wall in cases where the building or wall abuts the property line and there is no lawn. When there is a lawn, the Commission is responsible for the pipe from the water main to the property line.

Regarding sewer service, the Commission is responsible for the sewer line in the street; the homeowner is responsible for everything else up to the connection to that line.

Fire pipes are totally the responsibility of the owner of the building which they serve.

About Leaks

A little water leak loses a lot! A slow drip can add up to fifteen or twenty gallons a day. A 1/16 inch faucet leak can waste one hundred gallons in twenty-four hours. Add up all of the leaks in all of the homes in Boston and the figure would amount to a lot of wasted water — and dollars.

Your water meter is a good instrument for detecting water leaks in your home. For leak detection, turn everything off carefully so no water is being used anywhere in the house or outside. Then look at the dial of your water meter and note the position of the red hand. After thirty minutes, check the position of the red hand again. If it hasn't moved, you have a relatively watertight home. If it has moved, you should start checking faucets, hose connections, or the toilet.

Most leaks, aside from toilets, are in faucets and are most commonly caused by worn washers, o-rings or other seals. Check all of the faucets in your house once or twice a year. If any of them drip after you have turned them off firmly, turn off the water supply line, take the faucet apart, and replace the defective part. Usually it's not hard to do, although some faucet designs do present a challenge. Any good household do-it-yourself book offers easy-to-understand advice if you need it.

There are occasions when water losses may be due to other problems: meters get old or worn, pipes wear out, etc. If you have problems with your underground piping, you may have to call a plumber. Faulty meters or problems with the piping from the water main to your connection will

Water Conservation in the Home*

Think about water. It's yours for the asking twenty-four hours a day. All you have to do is turn a faucet, but think again.

The water you use doesn't come magically from nowhere. It's a carefully manufactured product — clean, safe, piped directly into your home. It's a valuable resource that shouldn't be wasted.

Water will recycle itself eventually, come what may. But high-quality water that we need and expect in our homes is not an infinite resource, even in wet ol' New England. Besides, you're paying for every drop whether it's used or wasted. So conservation can be a solid favor to your pocketbook, too.

Water conservation is a smart way of life. Here are some ways to practice it:

Toilets

Everytime a toilet is flushed, about seven gallons of water go into the sewer. There are two ways to cut down here. First, don't use the toilet for things it was not meant for, and second, reduce the water per flush.

Toilets should not be used as a trash can to flush away tissues, gum wrappers, cigarette butts, spiders, diapers, or anything else that ought to go into a waste basket or garbage can. All of us do it at one time or another, but use of the toilet as a waste basket is just a phenomenal waste of water. Imagine pouring three, two-gallon buckets of water on a little spider or piece of tissue — ridiculous!

Most toilets use more water than is really necessary and work just as well with less. So you can put a brick in the tank to displace some of the water, right? Wrong! The extra weight might crack your tank. Also, the bricks may begin to disintegrate after awhile, causing serious and expensive problems in your plumbing.

Use a plastic soap or laundry bottle instead. It's safe, easy, and inexpensive. Fill a few with water to weight them and put them in the tank.

Caution — Don't put the bottles where they'll jam the flushing mechanism. Be sure you don't displace so much water that you have to double-flush to get the thing to work. Double-flushing wastes more than you save.

Toilets are notorious for their hidden leaks. They can waste hundreds of gallons a day, undetected. Leaks occur when the toilet is out of adjustment or when parts are worn, so it's important to check it periodically. It's not hard or complicated.

Most toilet leaks are at the overflow pipe or at the plunger ball. If it's at the overflow, the water level is usually too high, although sometimes the overflow pipe gets a leak below the water line. Gently bend the float arm down so the valve shuts off the water about a half-inch below the top of the overflow pipe. Sometimes that valve is worn and will run like a leaky faucet and have to be replaced. If you're an experienced do-it-yourselfer you can do the job. Otherwise call a plumber.

Plunger ball leaks aren't as easy to spot. The best way to check is to drop a little food coloring into a tankful of clear water and wait to see if it shows up in the bowl. If it does, you probably have a leak at the plunger ball, either because the ball needs replacing or because the mechanism is out of alignment. This, too, is a relatively simple repair for a do-it-yourselfer.

Showers

People used to think showers were less wasteful than tub baths, period. That failed to take into consideration the fact that many of us spend ten or twenty minutes or more in the shower. Since most showers pour out between five and ten gallons per minute, that can add up in a hurry.

There's no hard and fast rule — it's more a matter of self-control. A partially filled tub uses far less water than a long shower, while a short shower uses less than a full tub. Or you can install a low-flow shower head, available at most local hardware stores.

Shaving, Brushing Teeth

Don't leave the water running. Run as much as you need, then turn off the tap until you need some more. Water running unused goes straight down the drain — and that adds up.

Kitchen

Automatic dishwashers claim the most water in kitchens — about fifteen gallons per run. The secret here is to make sure the washer is fully loaded before you turn it on, because it's going to take that fifteen gallons whether there's a dinner's worth of dishes or just a couple of cups.

Don't bother rinsing dishes in the sink before you put them in a dishwasher. Scrape them clean and let the machine do the rest.

Are you the dishwasher in your household? Remember not to wash dishes with the water running. A sinkful of wash water and one of rinse water will do the job just as well.

Don't let the faucet run when you scrub vegetables or prepare other foods, either. Put a stopper in the sink instead.

For a cold drink of water, don't stand there letting it run to get colder — store a jug of ice water in the refrigerator instead.

Laundry

Many washing machines use forty or more gallons of water a load, whether you have them stuffed full or with only a couple of socks. Save up for a full load and make your water work efficiently, or remember to set your machine for a lesser load if it can be adjusted. As with the dishwasher, you save energy and electricity, as well as water.

For hand laundering, put a stopper in the wash basin for both wash and rinse. Don't let the faucet run.

WATER WONDERLAND: WORTH VIEWING

Mayor Kevin H. White, Commissioner Alan M. Austin, and the Department of Parks and Recreation announce a Water Wonderland at 12:00, August 20, at Jamaica Pond. The Water Wonderland will include sailing and rowing races with all the participants of these programs, and entertainment for the whole family. Bring a picnic, watch the excitement, and come have fun.

FRANK AHEARN: WE SALUTE YOU!

Boston Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan has announced that on July 14, at a ceremony at Police Headquarters, Mr. Francis E. Ahearn, civilian clerk, was feted on the occasion of his completion of fifty years' service to the Boston Police Department.

Mr. Ahearn began working for the department on July 12, 1928, and has been continuously employed since then in the Office of the Police Commissioner during which time he served under ten different police commissioners.

Leading the gathering of friends and coworkers in honoring Mr. Ahearn for his long and dedicated police service, was Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan who presented him with a gold replica of a police badge.

Mr. Ahearn is still in good health, is a productive employee, and has no immediate plans to retire.

COMMONWEALTH PROPOSES AUTOMOBILE INSPECTION AND MAINTENANCE PROGRAM

A recent telephone survey, conducted by the American Lung Association of Massachusetts, has revealed that most Bay State drivers are unaware of the Commonwealth's proposed, automobile-emissions inspection and maintenance (I&M) program. The inspection and maintenance program is an effort to reduce air pollution from automobiles by including a simple emissions test as part of the present motor vehicle safety inspection.

The Lung Association contacted 230 persons in a statewide, random, telephone survey. Only 31 percent of those contacted had heard of the proposed inspection and maintenance program. Of these who were aware of the program 92 percent supported such a program for Massachusetts.

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency has ordered an inspection and maintenance program for the Commonwealth in order to combat air pollution caused by automobiles. The Lung Association has made the program one of their top priorities for the year.

Daniel F. O'Grady, chairman of the Lung Association's Environmental Committee said, "The inspection and maintenance program will become a reality for Massachusetts in the near future. Unless the public is properly educated in the need for this program and the practical aspects of the implementation of such a program, we're likely to have some real problems. We see public education on inspection and maintenance as essential, particularly considering the general lack of knowledge on the subject that was revealed by our survey."

Mr. O'Grady further noted that the high level of support found among persons who had heard of the program indicated that the majority of drivers will be in favor of inspection and maintenance once they are properly informed.

MOUNTED POLICE START PATROLS

Mayor White gives Mounted Police Patrols ceremonial sendoff to Dorchester assignments.

Boston's Mounted Police Patrols began their first neighborhood assignments in Dorchester on July 29, following an introductory ceremony in Fields Corner conducted by Mayor Kevin H. White.

Mayor White said the patrols "will dramatically improve relations between the police and people in Dorchester's neighborhoods," and contribute to a further downturn in the city's crime rate, which has dropped 18 percent in the last eighteen months.

"The drop in the crime rate is encouraging," the Mayor said, "but there are still problems we have to deal with, including vandalism and destructive behavior by gangs of young people, and the Mounted Patrol is ideal for police work in these areas."

The Mayor told residents the Mounted Patrol is "more visible and more personal to the community than cruiser patrols and more mobile than foot patrols."

Mayor White said Dorchester is getting eighteen Mounted Patrols because territorially it is the city's largest neighborhood and because "the people of Dorchester want a positive, highly visible, police presence to help them develop better security in their neighborhoods." He said the eighteen units will give Dorchester "the highest concentration of Mounted Police Patrols of any urban neighborhood in the nation."

Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan introduced the individual patrols serving each neighborhood. The mounted police then went directly to their assignments for their first tour of duty.

Commissioner Jordan said the Dorchester Mounted Patrol Program will be "closely watched" by local police officials, residents, and national police experts to determine the impact of the community-based, mounted patrols on crime and police-community relations.

Additional mounted units will be phased into other Boston neighborhoods over the next three months. By mid-fall, Boston will have seventy-five Mounted Patrol Units working sixty beats in the city's neighborhoods.

In Dorchester, the Mounted Police will patrol:

—Adams Village from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and 5:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

—Peabody Square from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and 5:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

—Uphams Corner from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and 5:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

—Codman Square from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and 5:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

—Fields Corner (business district, MBTA to Adams), 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and 5:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

—Fields Corner (business district, Gibson to MBTA), 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

—Bowdoin (business district) from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., and 5:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

—Jones Hill from 5:30 p.m. to 1 a.m.

T PLANS NEW BUS-STOP SIGNS

A federally aided program to install standard bus-stop signs at some 8,000 bus and trackless trolley (trolley bus) stops will soon be started by the MBTA to provide route information for the riding public.

The new double-sided, sandwich-style sign has been approved by the Federal Highway Administration and the Massachusetts Department of Public Works and will be used to replace the mishmash of outdated, bus-stop markings that exist throughout the MBTA bus network.

A similar program for signing streetcar stops is being planned as a separate project.

The new sign is different from any other traffic sign in the area and, therefore, will be more visible for bus patrons and bus drivers. It is round at the top, 12-inches wide and 34-inches long (38-inches long in Tow Zones).

The front side of the sandwich-style sign will face the street and show the (T) logotype, a picture of a bus, and the international "No Parking" symbol. The back side will face the sidewalk, show the (T) logotype, and tell what buses run and where they go.

The signs will be installed in all cities and towns which have bus service.

The MBTA plans to advertise for bids in the fall. The successful bidder will fabricate the signs during the winter months and install them as soon as the frost is out of the ground. Another part of the project, in some areas, will be to paint the words BUS STOP on the street pavement.

Actually, the new, standard, bus-stop sign will become visible to the public in September when the new Downtown Freedom Mall, formerly the Auto Restricted Zone, opens. Last week, the Massachusetts Department of Public Works awarded a contract for signs to be installed at thirty-eight locations along the Freedom Mall.

The new, bus-stop-signing project is part of the MBTA's $10.6 million federally aided Transit Efficiency Program designed to erect bus shelters, obtain preferential treatment for transit vehicles on city streets through traffic signals, provide improved fare collection facilities, reduce private vehicle use in congested areas, upgrade existing transit services, and improve the internal information services of the Authority. Federal aid pays for 80 percent and forty-year state bonds pay for 20 percent.

BOSTON POLICE REPORT

Boston police today announced that as a result of their intense traffic enforcement campaign during the week of July 14, to July 20, 1,829 citations were issued for various violations and thirty-eight violators arrested.

Since the campaign was launched by Mayor Kevin H. White and Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan on September 6, 1977, 103,787 citations have been issued.

The enforcement has been directed to priority violations of speeding, failure to stop at red lights, stop signs, illegal turns, driving to endanger, and driving while intoxicated.

The Registry of Motor Vehicle inspectors, along with members of the Boston Police Mobile Operation Patrol, issued 803 citations of the weekly total.

In addition, Boston police in the eleven districts and the Tactical Patrol Force issued 1,026 citations during this period and made thirty-eight arrests.

ARTS AND CRAFTS EXHIBIT

Mayor Kevin H. White and Commissioner Alan M. Austin proudly announce the opening of the Parks and Recreation Arts and Crafts Exhibit (and sale) at the Curley Recreation Center, South Boston, on Friday, evening, August 18, 1978, from 6 p.m. until 9 p.m. On display will be painting, collages, and mixed media, as well as children's art and a display of quilts and other related items. The exhibit will continue through Saturday, August 19, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

DON'T STAY AT HOME COME TO THE PLAZA!

The Boston Parks and Recreation Department's "Wednesday Nights on the Plaza" series is well under way on City Hall Plaza, bringing high-caliber, live entertainment to Bostonians and visitors throughout the month of August.

On August 16, an exciting Hollywood Review will be presented featuring the popular Guy Rotunda, the Artists Showcase singers and the famous comedian, Billy Kelly.

On August 23, Irish Night will feature the lovely and versatile Carmel Quinn and the Irish Revolution, an excellent singing group. Last year Ms. Quinn and the group received a five-minute, deserved, standing ovation.

August 30, the entertainment will close with Italian Night, featuring the famous international singing star, Angelo Picardi, who, by the way, was born in Boston's North End and grew up on Prince Street. He still possesses one of the most thrilling voices in the country.

His presentation, Italy, American style, will end the city's ethnic night entertainments on the plaza for the summer.

Featured entertainers with Angelo Picardi are: Comedian Tony Vallo, the Neapolitan Singers Quartet singing modern songs and opera selections, Guy Giarrappa and his excellent North End Roma Band will also perform. Music will be provided by the Les Smith Orchestra.

So, weather permitting, we suggest you arrive early, 7 p.m., and enjoy these excellent professional presentations graciously given to Bostonians by Mayor Kevin H. White, free of charge. Alan M. Austin, commissioner of the Boston Parks and Recreation Department is to be commended for implementing this delightful project.

Dom Stagno and his capable maintenance crew will be on hand to assure proper seating arrangements for the viewers. I will be there watching the show while munching on a hot pizza.

STATE REALTORS SPONSOR IMPORTANT SEMINAR

The Massachusetts Association of Realtors is sponsoring a one-day seminar on the crucial step in any real estate transaction — closing the sale.

The one-day seminar will be held Friday, August 18, from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., at Sidney Hill Country Club, Chestnut Hill, and will feature motivational expert Tom Hopkins, president of Champions Unlimited. The program is open to all real estate practitioners at a $35 cost, including workbook. Details are available from Ron Hallett, Champions Unlimited, 95 West Squantum, Quincy (617-328-1477).

The seminar will cover such subjects as avoiding sales slumps, time planning, handling rejections, using your voice effectively, handling ad calls, mentally preparing yourself to sell, etc. The association featured Mr. Hopkins in a seminar on "Obtaining Listings" earlier this year.

Founded in 1924, the Massachusetts Association of Realtors is the parent organization for the twenty-six boards of realtors in the Commonwealth and has over 8,800 members. The term REALTORS is the exclusive designation of members of the National Association of Realtors who subscribe to a strict code of ethics.

HOUSING COURT

Mr. John E. Murphy, Jr.,
Supervisor of Personnel.

Dear Mr. Murphy:

On July 12, 1978, I appointed Mr. Sumner Bernstein of 39 Worley Street, West Roxbury, Massachusetts, to the position of administrative secretary, Grade R-14 of the Housing Court of the City of Boston.

Prior to this appointment, Mr. Bernstein, a graduate of Boston Latin School and the University of Maine (B.A. in Business Administration), served nearly ten years as the assistant manager of the Allston-Brighton Little City Hall. As assistant manager, he also represented the Little City Hall and the City of Boston in work with many individuals and groups in the Allston-Brighton community. He carried out these and other duties professionally and efficiently on behalf of the Mayor's Office of Public Service.

Because of Mr. Bernstein's prior experience and his outstanding qualifications for the position of administrative secretary, I respectfully request that his one-year, two-year, three-year, four-year, five-year, and six-year increments be determined under Rule 15f of the Classification and Compensation Plan for Suffolk County, effective July 12, 1978.

Thank you for your attention.

Very truly yours,

R. SUSAN DILLARD,
Clerk of Court.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

OFFICE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Program for Juveniles

Dear Mayor White:

As acting director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Project Have, Inc., 146 Bowdoin Street, Boston, Mass., in an amount not to exceed $93,206, for the period January 1, 1978, through December 31, 1978, or such additional time period, not to exceed the period of six months, as may be granted by written approval from the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice upon written request of the contractor and the city.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-415).

The purpose of this grant is to allow project Have, Inc. to provide services such as outreach, advocacy, vocational testing, training, and job placement for juveniles referred from courts and police or hanging on the streets. Project Have, Inc. was chosen among some twenty other Boston organizations that answered a request for proposals put out by this office. They were selected because: (1) their application met all guideline requirements; (2) their program design was well-structured and supported by commitments from potential employers; and (3) they have expertise in the employment field and a solid reputation among employers.

Thus, because of the reasons noted above and the competitive nature by which they were selected, it is respectfully requested that public bidding be dispensed with.

Sincerely,

BRIAN M. LEAHY,
Acting Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As acting director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice (MOCJ), I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to L'Alianza Hispana Inc., 645 Dudley Street, Dorchester, Mass., in an amount not to exceed $147,778, for the period January 1, 1978, through December 31, 1978, or such additional time period, not to exceed the period of six months, as may be granted by written approval from the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice upon written request of the contractor and the city.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-415).

In 1977, La Alianza Hispana received a planning grant from LEAA to identify the service needs and gaps for Hispanics in the City of Boston; and to develop a program to respond to those identified service needs and gaps. The $140,000 grant for the creation of an Hispanic Youth Unit was the result of this planning effort.

La Alianza Hispana proposes to utilize project funds to reorganize Alianza's youth programs, and to form a new youth unit within the organization. The youth unit, which will be composed of existing Alianza staff, and new staff funded through this grant, will provide comprehensive services to Hispanic youth including: recreation; literacy training; English as a second language; G.E.D. training and other remedial education services; career education, job development and placement; and individual counseling. Project staff and consultants will provide advocacy services in schools and court; and direct educational, vocational work on the model, data-collection system.

Thus, because of L'Alianza Hispana's expertise in the juvenile delinquency field and the competitive process that all applications were screened under, particularly for program design and content, it is respectfully requested that public bidding be dispensed with in awarding this contract.

Sincerely,
BRIAN M. LEAHY,
Acting Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As acting director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Y.M.C.A. Services Corporation, 316 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Mass. in an amount not to exceed $57,707, for the period January 1, 1978, through December 31, 1978, or such additional time period, not to exceed the period of six months, as may be granted by written approval from the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice upon written request of the contractor and the city.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83).

The purpose of the grant is to allow Y.M.C.A. Services Corporation, to continue a program designed to reduce the rate of crime in the South Dorchester area by providing a comprehensive group of service to thirty youths, ages eleven to sixteen, who will be referred from the Police Department, Dorchester District Court, and local agency personnel.

The project will provide family and individual counseling, crises intervention, educational services (training and job placement), and recreational services. In addition to providing these direct services to youths the project will work with the court, Police Department, and the community to divert youth from the court process.

The program was chosen for funding in 1975 through an extensive competitive process involving both the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice and the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice. Since it was selected for funding after rigorous competitive process at both city and state levels, I request that no further formal bidding be required.

Respectfully,
BRIAN LEAHY,
Acting Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As acting director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Hillside-D.A.R.E., Inc., 145 Hillside Street, Roxbury Crossing, Boston, Mass. in an amount not to exceed $21,111, for the period January 1, 1978, through December 31, 1978, or such additional time period, not to exceed the period of six months, as may be granted by written request of the contractor and the city.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-415).

The purpose of the grant is to allow Hillside-D.A.R.E., Inc. to supplement a separately funded, career-exploration, and education program with a job orientation and placement component. The idea is to motivate juveniles, at least 50 percent of whom are delinquent, to attend education and career-exploration classes by providing an actual job as part of the training and experience. Hillside-D.A.R.E. was chosen among some twenty other Boston organizations that answered a request for proposals put out by the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice and supported by this office. They were selected because (1) they have an excellent reputation of successful dealings with juvenile delinquents; (2) they developed a well-structured project which included commitments from various employers; and (3) they had a commitments of other funds from the Department of Education, a condition which gave them priority status according to the guideline requirements.

Thus, because of the reasons noted above and the competitive nature of the process by which they were selected, I respectfully request that public bidding be dispensed with in awarding this grant.

Sincerely,
BRIAN LEAHY,
Acting Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As acting director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Roxbury Children's Services, Inc., 22 Elm Hill Avenue, in an amount not to exceed $43,278, for the period January 1, 1978, through December 31, 1978, or such additional time period, not to exceed the period of six months as may be granted by written request of the contractor and the city.

Awards of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83), and further amended by the Crime Control act of 1976 (P. L. 94-503).

The purpose of the grant is to allow Roxbury Children's Services, Inc. to begin a program to provide twenty early offenders from Boston Juvenile Court with counseling and part time, work experience in the human services field.

This Program was chosen for funding through an extensive competitive process involving both the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice (MOCJ) and the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice (MCCJ). This will be a continuation program with the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice.

In the spring of 1975, M.O.C.J. developed a document, a Request for Proposals (RFP) which outlined specific populations which were in critical need of services and services which were, in general, lacking in the Boston area. This R.F.P. was mailed to approximately 100 agencies, both public and private, and individuals who responded to a notice, sent to 200 agencies and individuals, which stated the availability of funds and the R.F.P..

Of the 100 agencies and individuals who requested the R.F.P., Thirty-two submitted proposals. All the proposals were reviewed and evaluated by four staff persons. Twelve proposals were selected as most promising, i.e., met the R.F.P. specifications and demonstrated the quality and structure needed to compete for funding on a statewide basis. After extensive review by M.O.C.J. and M.C.C.J., this program was one selected for funding. The proposal and review process was repeated in 1976.

As this program was selected for funding only after undergoing an extensive and rigorous competitive process at both the city and state levels, I request that no further formal bidding be required.

Respectfully,
BRIAN LEAHY,
Acting Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As acting director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with advertising, and to award a contract to the Boys' Clubs of Boston, Inc., 15 State Street, Boston, Mass., in an amount not to exceed $57,528, for the period January 1, 1978, through December 31, 1978, or such additional time period, not to exceed the period of six months, as may be granted by written approval from the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice upon written request of the contractor and the city.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83).

The purpose of the grant is to allow the Boys' Clubs of Boston, Inc. to continue a project begun in October, 1975, which offers a diversion and treatment program aimed at first and second offenders which attempts to prevent future involvement of these youths with the criminal justice system. The project consists of five components: (1) seminars of criminal behavior and the juvenile justice system; (2) photography; (3) counseling; (4) tutoring; and (5) social, cultural, and recreational activities; and seeks to serve youth from the Roxbury community.

The Boys' Clubs of Boston, Inc., is a non-profit corporation that specializes in services to the very clients this program serves. It has been an effective component of the community in dealing with the problems of youth.

Because of the need for continuity of services to youth enrolled in the program and because of the unique services required to perform the function of this contract, it is believed that advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,

BRIAN LEAHY,
Acting Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As acting director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Boys' Clubs of Boston, 15 Green Street, Charlestown, Mass., in an amount not to exceed $52,778, for the period January 1, 1978, through December 31, 1978, or such additional time period, not to exceed the period of six months, as may be granted by written approval from the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice upon written request of the contractor and the city.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Juvenile Prevention Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-415).

The El Centro reading program is sponsored by the Boys' Clubs of Boston and is located at their El Centro Clubhouse in the South End. This program will provide bilingual reading instruction and support services to approximately fifty Hispanic youth. Recruitment for the majority of youth will be coordinated through the Bilingual Department of the Boston Public Schools and various middle and high schools throughout the city. Approximately one-third of the clients will be first and second offenders.

The program will offer literacy instruction in both English and Spanish for students whose abilities in one or both languages are at the following levels: (a) non-readers; (b) first and second grade; (c) third grade; (d) fourth grade. Classes will average eight students. Students will participate in classes two evenings a week and will participate in counseling on the third evening. Educational counselors advocates will be hired to work with each client and their school to identify and resolve any nonacademic problems which impede the youth's ability to successfully participate in his or her school. Each program cycle lasts one year. At the end of the year, if a student has reached a fifth-grade, reading level he or she has completed this project.

Thus, because of the Boys' Clubs expertise in the juvenile delinquency field, and the competitive process that all applications were screened under, particularly for program design and content, it is respectfully requested that public bidding be dispensed with in awarding this contract.

Sincerely,

BRIAN M. LEAHY,
Acting Director

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As acting director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to the Boys' Clubs of Boston Incorporated, 15 State Street, Boston, Mass. in an amount not to exceed $11,611, for the period January 1, 1978, through December 31, 1978, or such additional time period, not to exceed the period of six months, as may be granted by written approval from the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice upon written request of the contractor and the city.

Awards of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83).

The purpose of the grant is to allow the Boys' Clubs of Boston, Inc., to continue a program to provide employability skills and basic English-language training to Spanish-speaking youths, with a final component of private-sector, job placement.

The program was chosen for funding in 1975 through an extensive competitive process involving both the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice and the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice. Since this program was selected for funding only after extensive and rigorous competitive process and review at both the city and state levels, I request that no further formal bidding be required.

Sincerely,

BRIAN M. LEAHY
Acting Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As acting director of the Mayors' Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to United South End Settlements, 566 Columbus Avenue, Boston Mass., in an amount not to exceed $93,871, for the period January 1, 1978, through December 31, 1978, or such additional time period, not to exceed the period of six months, as may be granted by written approval from the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice upon written request of the contractor and the city.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Act of 1974 (P.L. 93-415).

The purpose of this grant is to allow the Boston Chinese Youth Essential Services, Inc. to provide counseling and advocacy to Chinese youths at Roxbury High School, Brighton High School, and in the Chinese community, Boston. Chinese Youth Essential Services, Inc. was chosen after answering a request for proposals which was put out by the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice (MCCJ) and supported by this office. The process by which they were selected was highly competitive. They were chosen for a number of reasons including: (1) they were made a priority for funding the previous year by the Juvenile Delinquency Task Force of the MCCJ; (2) their program fell squarely within the guidelines which put a priority on education and ethnic minority programs; and (3) the program had the support of a number of other funding sources, a priority consideration of the guidelines.

United South End Settlements, Inc. which has supported the Boston Chinese Youth Essential Services, Inc. in both a financial and programmatic capacity will act as the fiscal conduit for the grant. This organization has significant financial and grant management experience and is willing to loan money to the project during its initial months of operation, before money can be released by MCCJ.

Thus, because of reasons noted above and the highly competitive nature of the process by which this grant was selected, it is requested that public bidding be dispensed with in the award of this contract.

Sincerely,

BRIAN M. LEAHY,
Acting Director.

North Market Celebrates Completion

The North Market building will officially open, completing the $30-million restoration of historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace in the heart of downtown Boston.

The North Market will herald the debut of thirty-five new shops covering 60,000 square feet of retail space offering both Boston's serious shopper and the fashion-minded visitor unique and carefully selected merchandise to suit special tastes.

According to John P. Boorn, vice-president/development director of Faneuil Hall Marketplace, "The North Market building's distinctive merchandise, devoted to fashion, leisure, sports and outdoor activities, and to the world of children provide the final ingredients we needed to make the Marketplace a complete shopping experience."

The roster of fashion tenants reads like a shopper's dream. Visitors to the North Market will find the first American Fiorucci shop outside New York. Others include the Shop for Pappagallo, for shoes; Mark and Company, sophisticated women's wear; Sandpiper for Men and Boys; and Little Pipers, casual clothes for leisure living, large and small; and the Barefoot Eagle, Mexican-designed styles for women. A true fashion son of Boston, the well known Louis, will open its first-ever store for women. Tannery West, the come-East offspring of the famed leather fashion shop, will also be among the new merchants.

For the sports spectator or activist another New York-based store, Kreeger and Sons, the outdoor wear specialists, has taken up new quarters in the handsome old building; also, Halley Stewart, a New Orleans-bred shop for active sports chic and the Lodge at Harvard Square, offering quality casual clothes.

Bill Rodgers, winner of the Boston Marathon, will open a new Running Center in the North Market. For those who need something to run off, there's Sweet Stuff, which promises to be the most sensuous candy store in the country with its black lacquer walls and flamingo-pink logo.

Pavo Real (it means "Peacock") accommodates the adult, fantasy world with papier mache and metal-sculpture animals by Mexican artist Sergio Bustamante.

A substantive part of the North Market's innovative merchandise mix is devoted to shops for children of all ages. There's the White Rabbit, a kids-only bookstore, where the browsing shelves are on the little people's level, and a number of shops devoted to having fun, as well as being fashionable. Among them are the Enchanted Cottage of Miniatures, the Kite Site, Boxes (just what it says), the Building Permit (play-sized construction materials of all kinds). A multi-level shop, Calliope, offers infants' and children's clothes representing the finest of American and European fashions, on the first level. The upper floor houses one of the largest collections of stuffed and soft toys. Very visible in the department is a 13-foot giraffe.

North Market will also have three restaurants, one of which, Tregony Inn, is an authentic English pub. The interior is being built in London and shipped her for assembly.

Other establishments include architect Ben Thompson's Flower Market Restaurants, actually a trio of restaurants, with the Flower Garden Cafe on the street level, Thompson's Fish and Chowder House on the lower level, and the Wild Goose Rotisserie and the Bunch of Grapes Lounge on the second and third levels.

Rounding out the dining experience is Healthworks, a contemporary, health-food restaurant.

Faneuil Hall Marketplace has been metamorphosed into a vibrant, charming, and very much alive, center-city attraction that is breathing important new life into what was a dying area.

Quincy Market, first of the trio of Marketplace buildings to be restored to active duty in 1976, offers a bewildering temptation of food treats for both on-the-spot and take-home enjoyment. Fashion apparel, home furnishings, and specialty shops fill the sprawling South Market building, which opened last August.

Handled with care by the Rouse Company, one of the nation's best-known retail developers, Faneuil Hall Marketplace already attracts some 35,000 people a day. They come to browse in the specialty shops, to sample the smorgasbord of food treats, and, in the best European tradition, to relax and socialize in the cobblestoned streets amid the flowers and open-air cafes.

The traditional ribbon-cutting will take place at 11 a.m. with Massachusetts Governor Dukakis, Mayor White of Boston, and other state and city officials participating.

Following the brief ceremonies, the rest of the day will be given over to entertainment, planned and spontaneous. The opening day will be climaxed by an open-air concert by the Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra. The Marketplace concert will be free to the public.

MAYOR URGES PASSAGE OF NATIONAL URBAN POLICY

Mayor Kevin H. White announced on August 12, he will convene a meeting of the Policy and Planning Committee of the National Conference of Democratic Mayors (NCDM) in Boston, August 25, to develop plans to lobby Congress for passage of the national urban policy. Mayor White is president of the conference.

The Mayor said the Carter administration's $8-billion program for aiding the cities "has suffered badly in a Congress controlled by Democrats.

"That should not happen," the Mayor said. "The programs that are in jeopardy primarily benefit the poor, the disadvantaged and struggling minorities in cities across the nation.

"These are the traditional constituencies of the Democratic party—and this is not the time to cut back on our efforts to help them."

The Mayor cited three areas of the urban policy that are in trouble:

—The CETA program, which was cut by $1 billion via a floor amendment.

—Countercyclical funding, which a House subcommittee cut two weeks ago. This program provides about $1.3 billion for cities to lower property taxes. Boston stands to lose about $5 million.

—The Public Works program, which provides about $1 billion a year to cities for urban renovation and cleanup projects.

Mayor White said the Democratic Mayors will "have to take on a bigger role than in the past to work with Congress for favorable action on vital elements of the urban policy."

Mayors expected to attend the Parkman House meeting include Michael Bilandic, Chicago; Richard Hatcher, Gary, Ind.; Maurice Ferre, Miami; Charles Royer, Seattle; and Frank Logue, New Haven.

Following the meeting, the Mayors will meet for discussion with Ann Wexler, special assistant to President Carter; BU President John Silber, and John White, head of the National Democratic Committee.

NEW POSTAL PROCEDURE

Mail Claim Check, a new procedure which uses fewer forms and can cut time waiting in line to pick up mail, is being introduced at post offices in the Boston Postal District.

Postmaster Philip L. Sullivan said the new system will provide customers with a number claim check when a letter carrier is unable to deliver special delivery, registered, insured, certified, C.O.D., customs, express mail, and postage-due mail because no one is at home. The new form serves as both a notice of arrival and claim check for mail that cannot be immediately delivered as addressed.

"Seven forms will be eliminated and be replaced by two. Storing mail for pickup numerically rather than by name will speed up the retrieval time and reduce time spent in line when calling for mail," Postmaster Sullivan said.

The Postmaster said it was important for customers to refer to the claim check when making inquiries, and that they bring it with them or know its number when calling for mail.

Mail Claim Check will be used primarily in offices that have carrier delivery service, but may also be used in some locations where patrons get their mail delivered through lock-boxes and general delivery.

BOSTON'S LANDMARKS

Boylston Building

2-22 Boylston Street, Boston

The designation category of Landmark was given to the Boylston Building on November 30, 1977.

The owners are Century Building Trust, Philip S. Gopen, David Gopen, Oscar Cohen, and David Presson, trustees.

A six-story, masonry and iron frame commercial structure, the Boylston Building is significant as an urban design feature at the corner of Boylston and Washington Streets, and as the work of the notable Boston architect Carl Fehmer.

Built in 1887 to replace Charles Bulfinch's Boylston Market Building, the Boylston Building displays a transition in design from the ornamental masonry tradition to the Chicago school, metal-frame design. A decorative veneer of Nova Scotia sandstone features details from Renaissance and Romanesque period, with prominent, round arches throughout and particularly large, second-story windows. Storefronts of modern design have changed the appearance of the ground floor.

The Boylston Building is also a prominent feature of the streetscape, and is set off in the crook of Boylston Street by the new Liberty Tree Park.

MAYOR LAUDS "SOUTHIE" RESIDENTS

Mayor White cites South Boston residents for earning degrees via Equivalency Exam.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on August 1, congratulated and passed out high school diplomas to sixty-nine South Boston residents who earned their degrees through an Equivalency Exam in a ceremony at the Condon Community School on D Street.

Mayor White commended the graduates for their "perseverance and determination to get degrees despite the everyday responsibilities of work and family life." Residents went three hours a night, three times a week for fifteen weeks to complete the course.

The Mayor cited the South Boston group for having the best passing rate as a group ever registered in the Equivalency Exam. A total of sixty-nine out of seventy-nine who took the test June 2 and June 3 at the Condon School passed, or about 88 percent.

Officials of the Bureau of Adult Services of the State Department of Education said the normal passing rate is 70-75 percent.

The Mayor said the exam's success was due to holding it in the neighborhood, rather than requiring candidates to come to the testing center on St. James Street in Park Square.

Mayor White urged the State Board "to hold future exams in community schools in all Boston neighborhoods," based on the success of the South Boston program.

Among the graduates were:

— A husband and wife combination: Stanley and Theresa Swimm of Spring Garden Street, Dorchester; and her sister, Mrs. Catherine MacDonald of East Second Street.

— A mother and son combination: Mildred Pumphret and John Pumphret of East Eighth Street.

— Mrs. Frances Sullivan, of East Third Street, who will be attending the School of Nursing at Mass. General Hospital this year.

Also attending the ceremony were:

— Paul Grogan, director of Boston Community Schools.

— Sean Gibney, director of Boston College's Urban Learning Center, which provided materials and teachers Patrice Devin and Linda Davis.

— Miguel Gutierrez, chief examiner for the Bureau of Adult Services.

— State Representative Raymond Flynn of South Boston

— and about 150 spouses, friends, and relatives of the graduates.

MAYOR PROMOTES BOSTON AS CONVENTION CENTER

Mayor White tells Association Executives Boston to have 3,000 new hotel rooms.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on August 13, told about 3,000 members of the American Society of Association Executives that Boston will have close to 3,000 new hotel rooms "in the near future" for convention and tourist accommodations.

The Mayor told the group, members of which plan conventions for trade, industrial, and travel groups, that Boston must "keep pace in preparing for the future by building facilities for people who want to come to our city."

He said the Hynes Veterans Auditorium, where the ASAE convention is quartered, will be expanded by 50 percent to meet convention demand.

The Mayor said plans for 3,000 new hotel rooms in the city "are in an advanced state of negotiation," including:

— A 1,000-room hotel in Copley Square planned by Urban Investment and Development, Inc., of Chicago

— a 1,000-room hotel at South Station

— and a waterfront hotel nearing the stage of designation of developer.

Mayor White told the association executives he was "frankly promoting the city" in emphasizing its potential for development, but stressed that "Boston needs new facilities to augment and to accent its historical and cultural attraction to tourists and conventioners across the nation."

He urged ASAE members to "take full account of Boston's distinct personality" in planning their conventions and to "bring your business to Boston for the time of your life."

BACK BAY/BEACON HILL LITTLE CITY HALL RELOCATED

The Back Bay/Beacon Hill Little City Hall has opened its doors to neighborhood residents to celebrate its new location at 182 Tremont Street, Boston.

Mayor Kevin White has recently announced the opening of several new Little City Hall facilities as part of his commitment to, "Bring government closer to the neighborhoods." The relocation of the Back Bay/Beacon Hill Little City Hall provides neighborhood residents with a convenient location and a larger facility to accommodate expanded service offerings.

Said Mayor White, This is the tenth anniversary year of the Little City Hall program. Boston's neighborhoods have undergone substantial change within the past decade in their physical and social makeup. The Little City Halls must adjust to these changes. Neighborhood improvement is very important to me and the halls reflect our effort to improve the business district environment as well as the residential environment."

The new Back Bay/Beacon Hill Little City Hall is located in the heart of downtown Boston, providing easy access for area residents.

Invitations to the open house were extended to neighborhood residents, City Hall staff, and representatives from local agencies and civic groups.

Hall staffers provided refreshments and music was provided by the Charles River Chamber Players. Hall staff includes: Acting Manager Ralph Rogers; Service Coordinators Marie Welby, Paul Debole, and Cecil Gozier; Outreach Worker, Lyn Cole; and the C.E.T.A. maintenance crew responsible for neighborhood clean-up requests.

"RUNNING CLINIC" OPENS

Mayor Kevin H. White, Commissioner Alan M. Austin, and the Department of Parks and Recreation are happy to announce the opening of a Running Clinic. The clinic started August 14, and will be held at Jamaica Pond under the supervision of Ron Mills, a long-distance, running specialist, and other runners from our area with guest appearances by internationally known runners. The Boston Parks and Recreation Running Clinic will be geared towards running for health, not competition. The highlight of the clinic will be a weekly race to be held on Saturday mornings at Jamaica Pond. Also on the agenda will be film highlights of the larger road races, guest speakers, and clinics on first aid and running attire. This will be one of the most unique programs offered anywhere in this region. There is only one prerequisite: each participant must have proof of a clean bill of health! For further information please call Dorothy Curran at 725-4006.

MAYOR ADVOCATES: RELOCATE CHARLES STREET JAIL

Mayor White submits jail plan to Council revising site of Nashua Street proposal.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on August 1, submitted to the City Council a revised administration proposal for a new Charles Street Jail moving the proposed site from the riverfront to land near the Registry of Motor Vehicles.

The Mayor said the change was made at the request of community and environmental groups concerned about creating an urban greenbelt in the lower Charles Basin.

The home rule petition would transfer the site of the Deer Island House of Correction to the state in return for the state-owned property encompassing the administration's Nashua Street proposal.

The Nashua Street site is favored by the White administration for construction of a $27-million jail and correction facility.

Mayor White said moving the proposed jail site back from the riverfront would "satisfy the objections of those concerned with its impact on the riverfront."

He urged the Council to "break the incredible deadlock" that surrounds the jail issue and approve the home rule petition before the October 2 deadline imposed by U.S. District Judge Arthur Garrity. As of that date, no new prisoners may be housed at the old Charles Street Jail.

The petition would then require the approval of the State Legislature and Governor Michael Dukakis, but negotiations with the Legislature and the state administration have been described as fruitful by city officials.

The city would receive $15 million from the federal government in return for the Deer Island property, which would reduce the cost of the new jail and corrections facility to below the cost of the Council's proposed renovation of the 128-year-old jail.

MULTI-COURSES AT UMASS

Extended Day Program, UMass-Boston includes more than 150 courses, from accounting, creative arts, languages, literature, natural and physical sciences, social sciences, to urban and women's studies. One may take a single course or pursue a degree in one of eleven different areas. Tuition is low — $66 per course. The courses are held late in the afternoon or evening. They begin on September 6. Tel. 287-8100.

The Town council meeting had been stormy, and tempers were hot. "You sir," shouted one member at another, "are about the most pigheaded man I have ever met!"

"Order, order!" interrupted the chairman. "You gentlemen seem to forget that I am in the room."

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

OFFICE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE Prerelease Residency Program

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As acting director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to Massachusetts Half-Way Houses, Inc. (M.H.H.I.), Huntington Avenue, Boston, Mass. in an amount not to exceed $131,868, for the period January 1, 1978, through December 31, 1978, or such additional time period, not to exceed the period of six months, as may be granted by written approval from the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice upon written request of the contractor and the city.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1969 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83).

The purpose of the grant is to allow Massachusetts Half-Way Houses, Inc. to establish a prerelease residency to divert inmates from the Suffolk County House of Correction to community-based, residential programs. The program will focus on imparting vocational or training skills and experiences to inmates prior to parole eligibility.

Massachusetts Half-Way Houses, Inc. is a private nonprofit organization that possesses the experience to respond to the unique problems of the House of Correction's young adult clients and the administrative capacity to implement the program in such a way as to maximize the security of the community and success of the program. M.H.H.I. has already developed the referral, support, and supervision procedures which would otherwise take a substantial commitment of time and effort of Deer Island staff who are needed for other functions.

Because of the unique services required to perform the functions of this cost reimbursement contract and the unique ability of M.H.H.I. to implement this program, it is believed that advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,
BRIAN LEAHY,
Acting Director

Offenders Services Program

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As acting director of the Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with advertising and to award a contract to the Massachusetts Half-Way Houses, Inc., P.O. Box 348, Back Bay Annex, Huntington Avenue, Boston, Mass. in an amount not to exceed $10,885, for the period January 1, 1978, through December 31, 1978, or such additional time period, not to exceed the period of six months, as may be granted by written approval from the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice upon written request of the contractor and the city.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Massachusetts Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1963 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83).

The purpose of the grant is to allow Massachusetts Half-Way Houses, Inc., to continue the Boston Offenders Services Project for offenders leaving the Suffolk County House of Correction. The project offers financial assistance to meet immediate practical needs, counseling, social services, and employment referrals for these offenders.

The Massachusetts Half-Way Houses, Inc., is a private, nonprofit organization, which has made the present day Boston Offenders Services Project's operation an extremely important and integral aspect of the overall criminal justice strategy for the City of Boston both in terms of release-program management and in terms of service delivery to Deer Island inmates. Massachusetts Half-Way Houses, Inc. is an agency which has long-standing relationships and influence with both state and local components of the criminal justice system and a unique management capability and system for effective operation of the project. Massachusetts Half-Way Houses, Inc.'s financial management system has made Boston Offenders Services Project a model of responsible grant administration.

Because of the unique services required to perform the function of this contract, it is believed that advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Respectfully,
BRIAN LEAHY,
Acting Director.

Therefore, for the reasons cited above, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose at this time.

Sincerely,
JOHN E. DREW,
Director.

OFFICE OF PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT

On the basis of Mr. Vincent's experience and due to the professional nature of the services, public advertisement would not serve any useful purpose.

Sincerely,
JOHN WEIS,

VICTOR E. HAGAN,

Leasing Certain Premises

Dear Mayor White:

Under a delegation of its power from the Public Facilities Commission to the director of Public Facilities, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising in extending the lease of certain premises deemed necessary and convenient by the director for the Mayor's Office of Drug Abuse purposes. There is a further delegation of power from the commission to the director to execute such lease or extension thereof upon receipt of said written authority from the Mayor of Boston.

The demised premises consist of approximately 2,000 square feet of office space on the sixth floor of 31 State Street. The term of the lease will be twelve months, beginning July 1, 1977, and terminating June 30, 1978.

The term rental will be $10,599.96, payable in twelve, equal monthly installments of $883.33. The lessor will provide and pay for all utilities except telephone.

A tax escalation clause based on the 1977 tax rate is included in the lease.

Since these facilities are both adequate and convenient, it is not felt by the writer that public advertising would be useful in this instance.

Very truly yours,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

Exterior Building Repairs

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On Monday, January 9, 1978, at Southwest High School, as a result of extremely high winds, gusting at one time to 90 mph, a section of metal lath and plaster ceiling on an exterior soffit collapsed and fell and adjacent areas became structurally unsound.

Because of the exigency of the situation and the danger to persons and property arising therefrom, I requested and received written approval from the Massachusetts Department of Labor and Industries to dispense with meeting the requirements of section 44A, chapter 149, G.L., as it pertains to public advertising, providing we obtained bids from at least three reputable contractors normally engaged in this type of work. The bid results are summarized below:

Clifford Construction Co., Inc., $5,700; Dartmouth Construction Co., Inc., $6,250; John Palumbo Company, $6,500.

Your Honor's written approval, therefore, is respectfully requested, in recognition of the fact that an emergency situation exists, to authorize the dispensing with public advertising for bids, and to award a contract for this work to Clifford Construction Co., Inc., 9 Oliver Street, Randolph, Mass., for $5,700.

VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

Architects Services, etc.

Dear Mayor White:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on December 15, 1977, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to award a contract to Somerville Engineering, Inc., S.E. Architects Division, engineers, a Massachusetts corporation, of 400 Highland Avenue, Somerville, Mass.

Under the terms of the contract, Somerville Engineering, Inc. will provide architectural and engineering services in the preparation of design development drawings, basic outline specifications, working drawings, detailed specifications, construction cost estimates, and supervision of construction of the alterations and repairs, for the Parks and Recreation Department, to the L Street Recreation Building, Columbia Road, South Boston, at a cost for such service of 11.5 percent of the presently estimated cost of construction of $62,000, minus $1,069.50 for preliminary plans previously prepared under a feasibility study, the cost of the proposed services not to exceed $7,260.50 (including $1,200 for supplementary services).

Due to the professional and technical nature of the services to be performed, it is my judgment that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
VICTOR E. HAGAN,
Acting Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Equipment Repairs

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I hereby request your authorization to award a contract, without advertising, to Power Products, Inc., Wakefield, Mass., for the period of January 27, 1978, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $10,000.

The contract is for the repairs to heavy-duty transmissions for equipment used on our snow-removal and ice-control program.

As a result of our continuous snowplowing and removal program from the storm of January 20, 1978, five truck transmissions burnt out. To ensure that the vehicles were back in service before another storm, two units were sent to a vendor with whom we had a repair contract and three units to Power Products, Inc. They are the local distributor for Allison Transmissions and are well qualified to do the work.

Although we did not have a contract with Power Products, Inc., it was the optimum course to take in the interests of the public's safety and health. To solicit public bids while the equipment was out of service would have been impractical.

In view of the above, your approval is respectfully requested to award a contract, without advertising, to Power Products, Inc., in the amount of $10,000.

Sincerely,
JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

The contractor, in collaboration with the District II Elementary Schools shall carry out the intent of the Phase II, collaborative school-University pairings.

The project will attempt to meet three priority needs:

(1) To promote multicultural sharing and understanding among teachers, students, and parents; (2) to integrate music, visual art, movement, and dramatic storytelling into basic skills instruction to capitalize on the students preferred learning styles; (3) to involve parents in the activities of the elementary schools of District II.

Music & Art Development, Inc. has been requested by the BFS to collaborate with the District II Elementary Schools in its desegregation plan and has worked closely with the school in drawing up its proposal. Because Music & Art Development, Inc. is especially capable of delivering the services noted above, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant for chapter 636, state-approved, Project No. 78-2D-0050.

Sincerely,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

Various Educational Materials

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The School Committee respectfully requests the approval of your Honor for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to D. C. Heath and Company, for the purchase of books and certain other educational materials, for the period July 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978.

Very truly yours,
LEO J. BURKE,

ESAA Project

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to James Zinkowski for the implementation of a pilot project, Teaching In a Multicultural Classroom: Materials and Techniques, during the period January 3, 1978, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $3,000.

The contractor shall assist in the taping and editing of sixty-six thirty-minute multicultural classroom lessons; in training teacher trainers in the use of videotapes, recorder, and monitor, and the maintenance of videotapes for playback sessions to participants; in making monthly reports and suggestions to the coordinator; and in performing any media tasks as directed by the coordinator.

Because of the need to initiate the program during the present academic year and because of the video background of this consultant, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from the Emergency School Aid Act, Grant G01-77-526-01.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

Legal Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement and to award to Goodwin, Procter & Hoar, attorneys-at-law, 28 State Street, Boston, Mass., a contract for legal representation in matters relating to civil proceedings involving racial imbalance and desegregation, at a cost not to exceed $50,000.

Since the services to be provided under the proposed contract are to be both professional and confidential in nature, it is the view of the Boston School Committee that publicly inviting proposals would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

Reading, Language, Science Instruction

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Boston University, for the period September 1, 1977, through August 31, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $98,332.

The contractor shall provide services to the following schools in Community District 1, namely the Taft, Edison, Baldwin, Farragut, Hamilton, Mead, Winship, Oak Square, and St. Columbkille in the areas of reading, language, and science instruction. The contract will provide on-site assistance to classroom teachers and conduct workshops in reading and language-arts methodology. Boston University's junior interns are field-based in the aforementioned elementary schools, each paired with a cooperating teacher. Interns receive instruction for their methods and materials course (CH 300) in the basic skills at the Mary Lyons School.

The contractor shall be reimbursed for "travel expenses" up to the maximum amount of $2,500.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of General Law c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under a grant from the federally funded Title VII, Right-to-Read Program.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

Infant Education Programs

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I am writing this letter on behalf of the School Committee and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, to request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Karen L. Donnelly, Hillcrest Farm, Dover Road, New Hampshire, for the position at Jackson-Mann Infant Stimulation Program.

Ms. Donnelly as coordinator-infant teacher will be responsible for planning and implementing individual, prescriptive, educational programs for the infants enrolled in the program. Duties will include scheduling of children; conducting audiological, speech, and language evaluations; parent consultation; and record-keeping. The salary is $9,000, fringe benefits, $1,350, from November 4, 1977, to June 30, 1978. Jackson-Mann Infant Stimulation Program is funded by the Department of Public Health, Division of Family Health Services, Cost Center No. 064.

This is a highly specialized program serving infants zero to three years of age and is the only one of its kind in the country. Staff responsibilities are so specialized that there are very few people available with the necessary qualifications and experience to provide the services. For these reasons it was necessary to recruit out-of-city residents.

Therefore, it is the determination of the School Committee that the interest of the Boston Public Schools would not be served by public advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

Carpentry Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to George Jordan, for the period of January 3, to June 23, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $4,997.90.

The contractor shall work part time, five hours per day, in the Title IVC Project Shelter at Madison Park High School, as site manager and carpentry instructor. He shall organize renovation work activities at the site, order materials, and teach small groups of high school students how to use basic carpentry tools.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by Public Advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed without an appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under Title IVC, No. 044-77, which are state-approved.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD J. WINTER,
Secretary.

Crime Prevention Program Set For Hub

Mayor White announces creation of federally funded Crime Prevention Program; aim is increased neighborhood involvement.

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced the creation of a federally funded, city program aimed at increasing citizen participation in crime prevention in Boston neighborhoods.

The program, the Neighborhood Action Program for Safety (NAPS), will be based in eight neighborhoods under the coordination of the Mayor's Office of Public Service. The project is funded through a grant of $370,000 from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA) and $39,000 from the City of Boston.

Mayor White said, "The crime rate in Boston has dropped 18 percent in the last eighteen months. One important reason for that drop is increased community participation in crime prevention. This program takes that participation one step further, tailoring the community crime-prevention programs to the needs of individual neighborhoods."

NAPS coordinators will be located in the local Little City Halls to oversee the coordination of municipal resources, including Police, Fire, Housing Inspection, and Building Departments, and the Youth Activities Commission, with community groups.

Neighborhood residents and citizen groups will participate in developing the program design to meet specific local needs.

The goals of the program are to:

- Reduce the incidence of crime in the neighborhoods
- Reduce the fear of crime in the neighborhoods
- Involve local residents in crime-prevention activities
- Improve cooperation between police and citizens

The NAPS program suggests two types of valuable community activities: defensive programs, such as neighborhood security checks; and police support programs, such as prompt reporting of suspicious neighborhood activity.

The NAPS administrative staff will be located in the Central Office of the Office of Public Service. Headed by Program Director Patrick Ryan, the central staff will monitor and develop various program phases.

In Mattapan, the NAPS coordinator will work closely with the District III Community Council and Captain John Dow.

A Community Development Block Grant-funded citizen band, radio-alert unit will also be working with the NAPS program in District III.

Said Mayor White, "The matching of the CB program with the local NAPS effort is an example of matching federally funded programs to complement each other. This approach will reinforce, not only the partnership between the citizens and the police, but demonstrate a good use of existing resources."

Neighborhood Action for Safety Coordinators will be located in the following neighborhoods:

Allston/Brighton—Jamaica Plain
Mission Hill—Fields Corner
Uphams Corner—South End—
Mattapan

T LEASES "PUSH-PULL" RAIL COACHES

Starting on October 1, MBTA commuter rail passengers will be riding aboard some of the sixty modern "push-pull" commuter rail coaches being leased from Toronto Area Transit Operating Authority.

The MBTA Board of Directors on August 7 authorized a contract between the two authorities for the leasing of the sixty coaches at a two-year cost of $1,971,000. The contract also provides for payments of additional expenses of $398,000 to cover voltage conversion, transportation, temporary import bond, and insurance.

The coaches, which will greatly improve the MBTA's commuter rail service that is operated by the Boston & Maine Railroad, are being leased pending delivery of new coaches and locomotives and completion of conversion work on some of the existing equipment.

Built between 1947 and 1974, the Toronto coaches are of modern design and in excellent operating condition. They seat ninety to ninety-two people and are all equipped with electric heating systems.

The MBTA is currently involved in a $95,000,000, federally aided Commuter Rail Improvement Program which includes the purchase of sixty new coaches and thirty-five locomotives, and the conversion of sixty Budd Rail coaches. The program also includes major improvements to rights-of-way, stations, and parking lots on all lines.

SMALL BUSINESS REPRESENTATIVES CONVEENE

Mayor tells White House Regional SBA Conference neighborhood businesses are the pulse of the city.

Mayor Kevin H. White said Boston's small neighborhood businesses "are the pulse of the city" at the opening of a two-day conference, August 17-18 at the Copley Plaza Hotel, sponsored by the White House Conference on Small Business.

Mayor White told the group:

"I think it's appropriate that you've chosen Boston as the city to kick off your regional conferences. For as many of you know, ours is very definitely a city of small businesses. Some 85 percent of Boston's businesses have fewer than twenty workers, and some of these businesses are as old as the city itself. Uphams Corner Store in Dorchester, for instance, is the oldest grocery store in the country.

"Small businesses are important here for a simple reason: Boston is a city of strong, stable neighborhoods — neighborhoods that are as diverse as they are numerous — and the backbone of these neighborhoods is the local businesses that operate within their boundaries. There is no better measure of a neighborhood's vitality than the health of a local commercial district.

"The best way to take this city's pulse is to visit one of these districts.

- Codman Square in Dorchester
- Central Square in East Boston
- Cleary Square in Hyde Park
- East Broadway in South Boston
- Mattapan Square
- Brighton Center

"These areas are becoming so successful that they are drawing business away from surrounding suburban malls and bringing it back into the city where it belongs.

"In the last decade we launched a neighborhood business program that has helped to foster this vitality. We have found that efforts such as these are an extremely wise investment for the city.

"We have:

- Put in new street lighting
- Subsidized renovations of storefronts and installation of security improvements
- Increased foot patrols
- Assigned mounted police units
- Organized cultural festivals in business areas as an innovative marketing tool, and
- Provided technical assistance to businessmen.—

"And it has paid off. The change in our neighborhoods has been dramatic not only in terms of economic activity but psychologically as well. Healthy small businesses have provided a sense of stability and increasing neighborhood pride. Where once there was apprehension, now there is confidence.

"Businesses are paying us back, not only by keeping businesses in the neighborhoods, but by expanding them, creating jobs for the people who live in those neighborhoods."

The Mayor pointed out that the city's small businesses provide 3,500 jobs — 3,300 of them filled by people living in the city's neighborhoods."

MAYOR LAUDS NEW RETAIL MALL

Mayor Kevin H. White on August 21, praised the development of a new mall in Boston's downtown retail district as "a positive sign for the city's resurging economy."

Mayor White's remarks came as "The Corner," a 120,000-square-foot mall housed in the former location of Gilchrist Department Store at the corner of Washington and Winter Streets, formally celebrated its grand opening with the inflation of a 60-foot-diametered, hot-air balloon.

"The Corner" will eventually house forty-five retail tenants, fifteen fast food outlets, and twenty-nine permanent stalls. The $3-million project occupies the first four floors of the Gilchrist building, which was built in 1910. Four other adjacent structures have been gutted to accommodate the new mall.

Said Mayor White, "When Gilchrist closed its doors, many people feared that this building would become one of downtown's great white elephants. But it didn't because men with vision believed in the city and its future."

Mayor White added, "The city, too, has invested in this area in a variety of ways. The most dramatic investment will become a reality in the autumn when this section of the downtown is closed to automobiles, making it a virtual pedestrians' paradise, allowing shoppers to walk more freely among Filene's, Jordan's, and The Corner."

Ronald Drucker of the Drucker Company, the project developer, is exploring other uses of the upper six floors of the building.

CHILDREN'S MUSEUM CLOSSES FOR MONTH OF SEPTEMBER

The Children's Museum will be closed for the entire month of September for its annual, spruce-up operation. Exhibits will be refurbished and a new exhibit, Playspace, will be installed.

The museum will reopen at its Jamaicaway location on Sunday, October 1.

YWCA ELECTS NEW PRESIDENT

Dorothy Root Birdsall, Duxbury, Mass., has been elected president of the board of directors of the Boston Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA), the oldest YWCA in the nation. A lifelong YWCA member, she is the daughter of William Henry Root, the architect and general contractor who designed the Boston YW's largest facility on Clarendon Street in Boston in 1929.

Ms. Birdsall is presently a faculty member and academic advisor at Chamberlain School of Retailing in Boston and a member of the executive board of the Fashion Group of Boston.

Founded in 1866, the Boston YWCA is the city's primary provider of physical fitness, housing, educational and employment services for women and girls of all ages, social and ethnic backgrounds. The association serves more than 5,000 women and girls from more than sixty-five greater Boston communities.

Earlier this summer the association announced plans for a major renovation project to rejuvenate its facility on Clarendon Street, Boston, and to establish the first, fully equipped athletic and social club for professional women in Boston. More than $167,000 has already been pledged or contributed to the renovation fund. The largest single donation to date is a grant in the amount of $50,000 from the Committee of the Permanent Charity Fund, for repairs to the exterior of the building, the mechanical plant, meeting rooms, and other public areas of the building.

HUB AWARDED FUNDS FOR EDUCATION PROJECTS

Boston wins three quarters of a million dollars more for private sector youth job training

Mayor Kevin H. White, on August 9, announced that the U.S. Department of Labor has awarded nearly three quarters of a million dollars to Boston for two, private-sector youth training, education and employment projects.

Boston and New York were the only two of the 522 applicants nationwide for this project to receive funding for two proposals. Only forty-five proposals nationwide were funded.

The two projects are administered by the city's Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA).

Mayor White said, "The training that these programs provide will enable disadvantaged youth to compete on a higher level for private-sector jobs. We will be training these young people in high demand jobs — jobs with a future."

Said Erik Butler, director of EEPA's Youth Services Division, "The success of these programs, both in attracting funding and in securing adequate training, is the interest and participation of private-sector interests."

One project, contracted by EEPA from the Tri-Lateral Council for Quality Education, would expand career information, guidance, and job-seeking skills training for up to 10,000 disadvantaged, in-school Boston youths.

The second program would involve at least fifty youths in comprehensive and credited education, work experience, and training in energy careers. That program will be provided by the Education Collaborative for Greater Boston under contract to EEPA.

SYMPHONY STATION TO GET NEW KIOSKS

New kiosks at the Green Line's Symphony Station will be built by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for the MBTA under terms of a "cooperation agreement" approved August 7 by the MBTA Board of Directors.

The MBTA will pay the BRA $91,750 for the work, which will be done as part of the construction of Symphony Plaza East and Symphony Plaza West at Huntington and Massachusetts Avenues, under the BRA's Fenway Urban Renewal Project.

The new kiosks are scheduled to be completed in the early fall.

BOSTON'S LANDMARKS

31-39 Stuart Street, Boston*

The designation category of Landmark was given on November 30, 1977, to Jacob Wirth's Restaurant. The owner is La Grange Street Realty Trust, William J. Fitzgerald, Trustee.

The two contiguous houses making up Jacob Wirth's Restaurant are significant not only as home of a famous Boston eatery, but as rare survivors of a once-dominant architectural type.

Jacob Wirth, an immigrant from Germany, founded his restaurant in 1873 within a block of the current location. In 1878, Wirth bought the house at 37-39 Stuart, using the ground floor as a bar and restaurant. In 1889, he leased the adjacent house at 31-33 Stuart; today's interior fittings, including mahogany bar, brass railings, and oak tables, date from this expansion. Little changed in the menu or ambience over the long tenure of the Wirth family, which ended with the death of Jacob Wirth, Jr., in 1965. Under new ownership, the restaurant continues its traditions today.

The two buildings, dating from 1844, are the best remaining examples of the bowfronted, row housing which proliferated in Park Square from 1835 to 1850.

A relatively scarce residential type in the central city, these vernacular Greek Revival style buildings also serve as an important stylistic link between the earliest Beacon Hill bowfronts and the Italianate style prevalent in the South End development of the 1850s and 60s. The current storefront was added by Wirth when he expanded into both houses.

The chairman of a meeting interrupted debate on an issue to announce that a minibus was blocking the driveway and asked that it be moved. A voice in the audience called out: "I move the minibus!"

Another voice said: "I second it!"

The chairman banged his gavel. "The minibus has been moved and seconded," he said. "Proceed!"

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

SUFFOLK COUNTY District Attorney's Office

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As District Attorney for Suffolk County, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to Mr. Michael Manfreda.

It is my conclusion based on: (1) the experience and background of Mr. Manfreda; (2) the fact that Mr. Manfreda has been working in this office for more than five months; and (3) the need for preservation of confidentiality with respect to this office that public advertising will serve no useful or practical purpose.

Mini-Computer System

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As District Attorney for Suffolk County, I respectfully request your Honor's written permission to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to Sirvess, Inc., 490 Riverview Drive, Totowa, New Jersey 07512, in an amount of $4,800, for the period of January 1, 1978, through June 30, 1978.

The purpose of this contract is to allow the Suffolk County District Attorney's Office to a mini-computer system. The upkeep of this system includes both service and parts. This company has been servicing this same machine for close to four years and we would like to have them continue. It is absolutely necessary for this operation to continue smoothly since it is one of the essential aspects of my office.

The rental cost is $800 a month and will remain the same for the entire six months.

For the above reasons, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,
GARRETT H. BYRNE,

the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages as set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for the employment are not discriminated against because of their race, creed, color, or national origin.

The Building Commissioner is allowing a thirty-nine-day period to complete the demolition and site clearance of these buildings starting within seven (7) days after the signing of the Mayor's award.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest to do so.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including, with limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246. A statement of workforce needs as requested by section 3 and a section 3 affirmative action plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. These are forms AAP1-AAP6 and AAP8 and can be found at pages ST1-ST10 of the contract documents. This requirement will be strictly adhered to. Proposals submitted without the required forms will be rejected. No bidder shall be eligible for award on this project unless he is able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Awarding Authority his ability to comply with these requirements. All prospective bidders will be required to attend a prebid conference prior to submitting a bid. The time and place will be announced.

The general bid shall be filed before the time stated above for the opening of general bids.

No general bid may be withdrawn after the time limit for filing general bids and for five (5) days (Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays excluded) from the opening of the general bids. (Aug. 28.)

OLD STATE HOUSE — Built 1657, rebuilt after 1747. Oldest state building in U.S. Headquarters of Bostonian Society. Contains valuable collection of early Americana. Here convention met to adopt Federal Constitution. Here too were old whipping post and stocks.

BOSTON MASSACRE — Near old State House, marked by unique paving on State St., corner of Congress. Here first bloodshed of Revolution was shed, March 4, 1770.

PAUL REVERE HOUSE — oldest in Boston. Built 1660. Revere lived here 1770-1800. Open week days, 10 to 4.

Paul Revere Mall
Old North Church in Background

OLD SOUTH MEETING HOUSE — Present building erected, 1729. Here citizens gathered to protest drafting into English navy, demand withdrawal of British troops and plan "Boston Tea Party."

CITY HALL — Site of first public school in America, Boston Public Latin School. Present building dedicated, 1865.

FANEUIL HALL — The world-famous "Cradle of Liberty," center of Revolutionary movements in Boston and one of city's most interesting and historic buildings. Rebuilt in 1763.

OLD NORTH CHURCH — oldest church edifice in Boston. Built 1723. In its tower the lanterns were hung to signal Revere and Dawes that the British were marching to Lexington and Concord.

COPP'S HILL BURYING GROUND — 2nd oldest in Boston, dating from 1650. Here lie Increase, Cotton and Samuel Mather, Edmund Hartt, builder of "Old Ironsides," and Robert Newman who hung the lanterns in the Old North Church nearby. Gravestones still show bullet marks of siege.

PARK STREET CHURCH — Site of granary where sails of "Old Ironsides" were made. Here "America" was first sung and because gunpowder was stored in basement in 1812, it's known as "Brimstone Corner."

THE CUSTOM HOUSE

The Custom House, built by Ammi B. Young in 1834-47, originally stood at the water's edge. It was built to replace the first Boston Custom House constructed by Uriah Cotting earlier in the century. Greek Revival style with a striking Doric colonnade, the two-story structure was capped by a saucer dome, now visible only from the interior. In 1913 when Customs needed additional space but had no budget for acquiring a new site, a 30-story tower was built over the dome, thereby preserving the structure for the future. As a federal building, the Custom House was exempt from the city's 125-foot height restriction placed on all construction in 1904. The Custom House thus became the first "high-rise" in Boston and remained the tallest structure in the city until the construction of the John Hancock Building in 1949. The Custom House observation platform on the top floor is open to the public, free of charge, and offers an outstanding view of the city.

BOSTON COMMON — Set aside in 1634 for a "trayning field" and "feeding of cattell." Here British troops were quartered, Colonials mustered for Quebec and Civil War Regiments assembled. And from what's Park Square now, the British set out for Lexington. Of particular interest are the Great Elm, branch of the original, older than Boston and scene of Colonial executions... and the grave of the artist Gilbert Stuart.

The U.S.S. Constitution lies in dock at the United States Naval Shipyard, across the Charles River at Wapping and Chelsea Streets, Charlestown. She was launched in 1797 at Hartt's Shipyard, a short distance from her present resting place. In the next year she helped clear the coast and the West Indies of French privateers. Later engagements with the British in the War of 1812 brought her undying fame and her nickname Old Ironsides. The 44-gun frigate was constructed of well-seasoned live oak and red cedar timbers secured by bolts and copper sheathing made by Paul Revere. Now restored and seaworthy, the historic craft may be boarded daily, 9:30 to 4, free. Uniforms, cannon, and newspaper accounts of the War of 1812 are displayed.

KING'S CHAPEL — Founded 1686. First Episcopal church in New England — became first Unitarian Church in U.S., 1785. Here British officers worshipped during siege. Open 9 to 4. BURYING GROUND — First burial here in 1630. Graves of Gov. Winthrop, Rev. John Cotton, John Davenport, founder of New Haven, Roger Clap, first settler in Dorchester, and Mrs. John Winslow (Mary Chilton), first woman of Mayflower to touch America.

GRANARY BURYING GROUND — Here are the graves of John Hancock, Sam Adams and Robert Treat Paine, signers of Declaration. Also, Paul Revere, Peter Faneuil, Ben Franklin's parents, victims of Boston Massacre, Boston's first mayor, John Phillips, Mary Goose (famous "Mother Goose") and 9 early governors.

BOSTON CITY HALL: A VIGNETTE

How It All Began . . .

In 1962, a nationwide competition was conducted by the Government Center Commission of the City of Boston for the design of a new City Hall, the focal point of the entire downtown Boston, Government Center Urban Renewal Project. The overall plan for the project, prepared by I. M. Pei & Partners, architects and city planners, was an undertaking of such tremendous scope that its like has been attempted by no other American city. It has transformed the blighted Scollay Square area into a modern Government Center containing sixty acres of striking contemporary buildings designed by outstanding architects.

Boston's national competition for a City Hall design was the first by a major American city since 1909 and it drew 255 entries. The design selected was submitted by the New York architectural firm of Kallmann, McKinnell and Knowles. A jury of four, nationally known architects and three, Boston laymen termed the design impressive, functional, economical, and harmonious with its surroundings. The winning team then joined with two Boston firms, Campbell, Aldrich and Nulty, architects, and LeMessurier Associates, consulting engineers, to form The Architects and Engineers for the Boston City Hall and to execute the design and supervise construction.

A visitor to Boston's City Hall can find assistance with anything from overnight accommodations to local theater listings at the Visitor Information Center booths located on the third- and fourth-floor levels of the building. Trained staff are available to answer your questions and provide information concerning Boston's diverse activities and services. In addition, tours through the architecturally renowned building are available to groups and individuals. Special informative and educational tours can be arranged for your group.

Praise . . .

Boston City Hall has received these awards:

American Institute of Architects Honor Award

Harleston Parker Medal, an award by the City of Boston and the Boston Society of Architects for excellence in design and construction.

Precast Concrete Institute Award for excellence in architectural and engineering design using precast concrete.

Bartlett Award sponsored by the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped and given to those projects recognized as having a great degree of accessibility and usability for the handicapped.

Ongoing Activities . . .

Special programs initiated for the building by the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs and the Real Property Department are unmatched by any other city government in the United States. Included in the fifth-floor gallery and in other exhibit areas within the building are regularly scheduled music and dance performances, both inside City Hall and in warm weather, outside on the Plaza; special receptions and other city-sponsored events; and a tour guide program which has shown thousands of visitors through the building since 1969.

In the same way that Boston City Hall serves as a model of contemporary architectural design, this administration is promoting Boston as a model for urban revitalization.

Through sound management, economic initiatives, and increased federal assistance, Boston has emerged from the troubled mid-70s and is ready to reclaim its distinction as "the Athens of America."

This administration has focused its economic development efforts on bringing business and light industry back to the city, creating jobs for city residents, and firming up the city's tax base.

In the Faneuil Hall Marketplace adjacent to City Hall, Boston has one of the most dynamic urban restorations in the country. This small-business, success story will be the model for projects of its type nationwide.

The comeback of Boston's waterfront is another success story, paralleling the resurgence of the city's mercantile district, the expansion and upgrading of parks and recreational areas, and the steady decline in the city's crime rate due to sophisticated police work and improving social conditions.

Boston neighborhoods have stabilized and the city's housing stock is being restored through rebate programs for residents repairing and refurbishing their homes.

At no time in Boston's history has the city offered services comparable in quantity and quality as in the last decade.

The "Little City Halls" continue to bridge the gap between municipal government and residents in the city's neighborhoods.

Recreational opportunities for youth are being augmented by a new concern for providing meaningful, productive jobs for our young people.

The Mobile Market shopping van, the Senior Shuttle, the elderly hot lunch program, visitation programs, and other services make life more enjoyable for the elderly.

Municipal resources, under innovative and prudent management, are bolstering the material needs and morale of the city's residents. We are restoring community confidence in the ability of government to tackle and resolve the complex afflictions of our urban centers, and restoring Boston to its rightful status as a showcase American city.

BOSTON'S LANDMARKS

Young Men's Christian Union 48 Boylston Street, Boston

The designation category of Landmark was given to the Young Men's Christian Union on November 30, 1977.

The owner is Boston Young Men's Christian Union.

Home of a service and recreation organization, the Young Men's Christian Union building is the most accomplished structure of High Victorian Gothic design still standing in the central business district.

Designed by Nathaniel J. Bradlee in 1875, the five-story structure is built of masonry with a street facade of buff colored sandstone. Although the building conspicuously lacks the polychromy typical of the High Victorian Gothic period, the massing and detailing, especially the ornate main entranceway, clearly define the period.

The Boston Young men's Christian Union was founded in 1851 to provide a focal point for intellectual, religious and social life of young men in the city. The union still provides in this building a wide range of activities and social programs: chess and camera clubs, gymnasium facilities, a summer camp for children, and two social service programs.

ROBERT J. RYAN HEADS BOSTON REDEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

Robert J. Ryan, thirty-four, former director of Boston's Office of Property Tax Equalization, has been appointed as director of the Boston Redevelopment Authority. His term started September first.

Said Mayor White, "Bob Ryan's background in dealing with both real estate and tax structures uniquely qualifies him to lead a modern, urban, revitalization agency. His experience in city government is broad. He is well-respected, and has demonstrated a wide range of understanding of the problems confronting the city."

Mayor White added, "Modern development projects entail more than one dimension. They require an awareness of the overall needs of the city. Bob Ryan possesses that quality, together with strong administrative skill. That combination,
I hope, will give the proper direction to the BRA's efforts."

During his ten years with the White administration. Mr. Ryan has held a variety of positions.

From 1968 to 1970, he was the service coordinator for the Mayor's Office of Public Service. He then became administrator of the George Robert White Fund, a post he held through 1976.

In 1974, he was named associate commissioner of the Assessing Department. He held that post until 1977 when he assumed his duties as equalization director.

Mr. Ryan, a Mission Hill native and North End resident, holds a 1966 bachelor of science degree in management from Suffolk University, and a 1969 law degree from Suffolk University Law School.

A member of the International Assessing Association, Director
Ryan is also a member of the Boston Bar Association, the Federal Bar Association, and the American Bar Association. He also serves as a trustee of the Board of Charitable Donation for the City of Boston.

NEW 15-CENT STAMPS REPLACING "A" STAMP

The U.S. Postal Service is in the process of phasing out the nondenominated "A" stamp as post offices receive large supplies of new stamps showing 15 cents.

With only a limited supply of 15-cent, Oliver Wendell Holmes stamps on hand when the Postal Rate Commission recommended the 15-cent rate for first-class mail, the Postal Service turned to the 4.8 billion A stamps it had kept to meet possible short-term needs.

Since that time, the Postal Service has issued five, new, 15-cent stamps that are now being distributed to area post offices.

As the Postal Service announced at the time of its issuance, the A stamp should not be used for international mailings, because of prohibitions in international postal agreements against use of nondenominated stamps.

Because the cost of mailing a letter to Canada and Mexico is the same as the domestic rate, the A stamp is being accepted in these two, neighboring countries.

"DOWNTOWN CROSSING" PEDESTRIAN MALL DEDICATED

Mayor Kevin H. White, on August 17, dedicated the "Downtown Crossing" pedestrian system for major streets in Boston's commercial district.

Shoppers will not have to compete with cars on sections of Washington, Summer, and Winter Streets as of September 5, the Mayor said.

A federally funded, $3.3-million, reconstruction project will provide wider streets, pocket parks, lighting, security, and other improvements for the commercial district.

Cars will be off-limits as of September 5 on:

- Washington Street (from Bedford to Milk Streets)
- Summer Street (Hawley to Washington Streets)
- Winter Street (from Washington to Tremont Streets).

Taxis will be permitted in the area after 7 p.m. Trucks and other delivery vehicles may operate until 11 a.m., otherwise, pedestrians will have free roam of the area.

Special MBTA shuttles will carry shoppers about the shopping district.

Mayor White said the pedestrian system "will enhance the attraction of the city's downtown-commercial district to shoppers from Boston's neighborhoods, suburbanites, and tourists alike.

"In a sense," the Mayor said, "the pedestrian mall will make Washington Street area a lot like Quincy Market and the waterfront.

"Shopping there will be more pleasant, and a lot less frantic without automobile traffic."

Joining the Mayor at the ceremony dedicating the new system were Robert Kiley, chairman of the MBTA; Emily Lloyd, Boston's Commissioner of Traffic and Parking; Robert Farrell, chairman of the Board of the Boston Redevelopment Authority; John Larkin Thompson of the Boston Chamber of Commerce; Richard Chesley of the Retail Trade Board; and Al Schmertzler of the Winter Street Merchants Association.

MAYOR WELCOMES NATION'S GOVERNORS

Mayor Kevin H. White welcomed the National Association of Governors at the opening plenary session of their annual conference in Boston on August 28, by urging closer cooperation between the nation's cities and states.

Mayor White, the president of the National Conference of Democratic Mayors and Boston's mayor for the past ten years, added that despite increased attention to the cities "threats loom large in the immediate future and no one should underestimate the need for a progressive and comprehensive urban policy that involves cooperation among all levels of government."

Mayor White added, "What's more, none of us has yet recovered from the tremors of Proposition 13. But that recent uproar gives us a unique opportunity to work together. The depression served to redefine federal/city relations drastically, and in the same way, Proposition 13 provides us a unique opportunity to bring city and state relations into the twentieth century."

Mayor White said, "Cities in this country are not beyond hope, they are simply in need of some faith."

MAYOR LAUDS IBA, INC. TENTH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Mayor Kevin H. White, on August 21, called IBA, Inc., a Hispanic tenants council, a "smashing success" at festivities in the South End celebrating the organization's tenth anniversary.

Said Mayor White, "When I was first elected Mayor ten years ago, several residents of this neighborhood did something that was more or less unheard of at the time. They decided they wanted to take responsibility for the development of a low-income community in their own neighborhood. They feared most of all that if development were left to outsiders, it would not adequately suit the needs of the people who actually lived there."

The city designated the then newly formed Emergency Tenants Council, which became IBA, Inc., as the developer of Parcel 19, Villa Victoria. The Villa Victoria project was designed by the neighborhood as an affordable low-income development where day care is provided and cultural events are planned around the life of the development. IBA, Inc. is now undertaking a second development patterned along the line of Villa Victoria.

Mayor White added, "I also want to reaffirm today the city's commitment to fair housing for all citizens in every part of the city. When we see the happiness of the residents of this area, it should make us all more determined to see prosperity of this sort throughout Boston."

HUB WELCOMES NORTH MARKET MERCHANTS

Mayor White praises completion of North Market Building "as a dream come true" at dedication ceremonies.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on August 26, praised the completion of the North Market Building — the third and final phase of the Rouse Company's $30-million, Faneuil Hall Marketplace restoration — as "a dream come true."

Said Mayor White, "The trilogy today is complete. You know, each of us has a little of the sidewalk supervisor in him. I have to admit there are times when I would look out of my office window and wonder whether this project would ever be completed. But it has been, and we have been celebrating yearly, for the past three years the addition of another building to the project. This has the potential to be an annual event. It is certainly a cause for annual celebration."

Approximately 35,000 persons per day browse through the Rouse Company's Faneuil Hall Marketplace, a development which has come to mean Boston to a great many people.

April 26 is the anniversary of Quincy Market, the first of the three buildings which was restored to use on August 26, 1976. The South Building joined the successful Quincy Market on August 26, 1977.

Mayor White added, "When the idea of restoring these markets first came up a few years ago, no one thought it would work. The development professionals thought it would fail; the bankers thought it was impractical. But Jim Rouse had the vision and the expertise to make it work, and the city supported him. You see here today the result of that decision."

LABOR DAY

In honor of the wage earners of the nation, the United States and Canada have set aside the first Monday in September as Labor Day, a legal holiday. The observance of this day emanated from an annual parade in New York City by the Knights of Labor on September 5 in the 1880s. Oregon, in 1887, was the first state to recognize Labor Day as a legal holiday, and other states quickly followed. On June 28, 1894, Congress passed a bill making the day a national holiday. All the states in the Union now observe Labor Day as a national holiday.

Borrowing neighbors usually take everything but a hint.

For the purposes of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business at least 50 percent of which is owned and controlled by minority group members or, in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by minority group members who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a minority business and general contractor's letter of intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city, one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

A prebid conference will be held at 1:30 p.m., Friday, September 15, 1978, in Room 721, City Hall, One City Hall Square.

It is essential that the prospective bidders have a representative attend.

CITY RECORD

KEVIN H. WHITE

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

LAWRENCE S. DiCARA
PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 70

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1978

NO. 37

BOSTON: NUMBER ONE PEDESTRIAN CITY?

The title of "The Number One Pedestrian City in the Nation" is being conferred upon Boston as of September 9, by William H. Whyte of New York, a nationally known, urban expert whose mission is to make cities more fun.

Saturday, September 9, was the first day when only buses and pedestrians — no private cars — were allowed along Boston's principal shopping streets at the "Downtown Crossing" of Washington, Winter, and Summer Streets. The MBTA's Washington Street Station on the Red and Orange Lines is directly under Downtown Crossing.

Ten bus routes will be extended into the Downtown Crossing from north, south, and west of the city's central business and shopping district. The buses will come from Framingham, Newton, Waltham, Brighton, South Boston, Roxbury, South End, and Charlestown to get commuters and shoppers even closer to their destinations.

Mr. Whyte, the author of "The Organization Man" and of New York City's 1969 Master Plan, was in Boston two weeks ago to address merchants and planners involved in the Downtown Crossing program. He said: "Being from New York, which I've considered the number one pedestrian city in the nation, I hate to say this. But with the completion of this project, I think there's no question that now Boston is the number one pedestrian city in the nation."

He has visited scores of American cities, studying what makes places work for pedestrians, who are also known as shoppers, employees, tourists, talkers, sitters, restaurant-goers, and all other forms of human life that make cities interesting.

Mr. Whyte said Boston's use of buses in the car-free area was "far ahead of other cities. What Boston is doing is very important to other cities," he added.

The Downtown Crossing will be free of cars on Saturdays from 8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., and from 6:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. on weekdays. The project is a major effort by Mayor White, the City of Boston, the Boston Redevelopment Authority, the Retail Board of Trade, and the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority to enliven Boston's central business and shopping district. The project is funded by the Urban Mass Transportation Administration.

The Downtown Crossing is a ten-block area running along Washington Street from West and Bedford Streets to School Street and including Temple Place, Winter Street, and parts of Summer, Hawley, Franklin, Bromfield, and State Streets.

Local MBTA bus routes being extended are from City Point Route 7, Bayview Route 11, Egleston Station Route 43, Northampton Station Route 49, Sullivan Square Station Routes 92 and 93. City Point Route 7 will operate to Franklin and Arch Streets. All others will operate to Summer and Chauncy Streets.

"T" Extends Bus Routes to Serve Downtown Crossing

All express bus routes that operate via the Massachusetts Turnpike will be extended to Franklin and Federal Streets. These are Riverside Route 300, Brighton Center Route 301, Waltham Route 305, and Framingham-Newton Corners Route 531, all operating during commuter hours; and Watertown Route 304 which operates all day weekdays and Saturdays.

Downtown Crossing bus stops for the local buses will be at Boylston and Washington Streets, Essex and Washington Streets, Washington and Franklin Streets, Washington and Milk Streets, Devonshire and Milk Streets, Franklin and Otis Streets, and Chauncy and Summer Streets in front of the Charlestown Savings Bank. Bus stops for the express buses will be on South Street between Kneeland and Beach Streets and also between East and Essex Streets, at Federal and High Streets, Federal and Franklin Streets, Summer and Kingston Streets, and on the surface artery between Lincoln and High Streets and also near Beach Street.

In general, the extended routes will operate during the hours automobiles will be restricted from Downtown Crossing — from about 6:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. on weekdays, and from 8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. on Saturdays.

The exception is Egleston Station Route 43 which will make an entirely new route via Washington Street as a result of the creation of the auto-restricted zone. This route will operate seven days a week during and after the auto-restricted zone hours, following the regular route from Egleston Station to Park Square. Then it will begin a new route, going right on Boylston Street, left on Washington Street, past Jordan's and Filene's and other stores, right on Milk Street, right on Devonshire Street, right on Franklin, left on Arch Street to Chauncy. The return trip will leave Chauncy Street, go right on Bedford, left on Washington, right on West Oak Street, left on Tremont Street, Express bus routes do not operate before or after the restricted zone hours.

Service levels on all routes remain substantially as they are now. However, on two express routes, Riverside 300 and Waltham 305, the first inbound trip will leave at 6:45 a.m., effective September 9, instead of 7 a.m. as at present.

MAYOR LAUDS TWENTY, NEW, MOUNTED POLICE UNIT VOLUNTEERS

Mayor Kevin H. White, on August 25, praised the second graduating class from the Boston Police Department's Mounted Patrol Horseman-ship Training program for "participating in one of the most significant urban policing experiments in the nation."

At the same time, Mayor White announced that nine, new, mounted patrol beats will be inaugurated in Jamaica Plain, West Roxbury, and Brighton.

Said Mayor White, "We are trying to bring the police services closer to the neighborhood residents. Studies indicate that police on horseback are more effective at doing that than police in patrol cars. Cooperation between Boston residents and their police has reduced the crime rate 18 percent over the last eighteen months. Still closer cooperation through the mounted patrol can reduce that rate even more."

The graduating class, nineteen officers and one sergeant, have just completed an intensive, eight-week program of instruction designed to train both horse and officer as a single effective police unit. The instruction includes control of animal under street conditions, care of animal and horsemanship, and two weeks of field training where trainees respond to neighborhood calls.

When this latest class begins new beats, it will mean that the Mounted Patrol has tripled in size since Mayor White announced the expansion program in June. On July 29, eighteen, new, neighborhood beats were created in Dorchester.

Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan said, "The neighborhood response, so far, to the Mounted Patrol has been tremendous. Dorchester has taken well to the new beats there. These officers represent the cream of the crop, their training and personality characteristics make them the best possible police officers for this type of duty."

Mayor White also praised the training the Mounted Patrol officers receive as "very thorough." He singled out Sgt. Alfred McNeil and Sgt. Paul Simonetti. "These men have been responsible for the training and administration in the past. As the unit expands, they will be training new instructors, like Mike Connolly and Mark Sennett, to take over some of the teaching chores. These officers receive superb training, and it shows in the way they perform their duties."

The Mounted Patrol Unit, now totalling approximately fifty members, is composed of volunteers from the Police Department ranks, ranging from probationary recruits fresh from the Police Academy to twenty-five-year veterans of the force.

The Mounted Patrol graduates are Sgt. Ronald Stapleton, James M. Ahern, Carlos A. Avila, Howard F. Donahue, Paul W. Fahey, Thomas J. Gill, Edward F. Kelly, Randolph LaMattina, Susan F. McNamara, Michael Medina, Jr.

George F. Noonan, John M. O'Keefe, Donald P. Shea, Paul F. Soba, Roger Spring, Richard Stapleton, Jerome Sullivan, Francesco Varano, Joseph Wells, James A. Williams.

The new Mounted Patrol beats are: Jamaica Plain — Centre Street (days); Egleston Square (nights); Hyde Square (nights).

West Roxbury — Centre Street (day and night).

DEMOCRATIC MAYORS PLAN NATIONWIDE REGIONAL MEETINGS TO SEEK PROPERTY TAX REFORM

The National Conference of Democratic Mayors' Policy and Strategy Committee has announced plans to hold seven regional meetings throughout the country designed to focus on what they consider the "number one domestic issue — local tax reform."

The meetings will be held in Chicago, Los Angeles, Miami, Detroit, Seattle, and Baltimore. The first such meeting was held in Boston on August 25.

Boston Mayor Kevin H. White, president of the NCDM, had convened the Policy and Strategy Committee to chart the role for the Mayors' Conference in the coming year. The Planning Committee, chaired by Chicago Mayor Michael Bilandic, met most of the day to define and shape that role.

Said Mayor White, "The mayors of our major cities understand better than anyone the need for local tax reform. For too long we have been pursuing tax reform at the federal level, when the states hold the authority to change the structure of the most visible tax — the property tax."

Mayor White added, "We couldn't agree more with the sentiment expressed by Proposition 13 that taxes are too high. Taxes should be cut. But they should be cut through an orderly, constructive reform which will guarantee lasting relief, not through destructive, wholesale cuts which would ultimately victimize the poor and the disadvantaged of our cities."

In addition, Mayors Logue, Royer, and Alexander will comprise a nomination committee to select seven other NCDM members to join them in representing their colleagues at the mid-term Democratic National Convention scheduled for December in Memphis.

Mayors Hatcher and Bilandic were chosen by the Policy Committee to represent the NCDM on the Democratic National Committee.

The regional meetings will be in Detroit, late fall; Los Angeles, January, 1979; Miami, February; Chicago, March; Seattle, April; and Baltimore, May.

WATER AND SEWER- COMMISSION: IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

The Boston Water and Sewer Commission began mailing its second quarter, water and sewer bills last week and urges its customers to take note of two very important changes.

First, water and sewer bills may no longer be paid at Little City Halls. They can, however, still be paid by mail by using the self-addressed envelope enclosed with each bill or in person at the Commission's office on the seventh floor of 10 Post Office Square. Little City Halls will continue to accept applications for water bill discounts for eligible customers who are at least sixty-five years old or fully disabled.

Second, those customers who did not pay their last water and sewer bills within thirty days of the billing date will find that they have incurred a delinquency charge of 1½ percent per month (equivalent to a daily rate of 0.04932 percent) on the unpaid balance. This delinquency charge will be reflected on the second, water and sewer bill. In addition, each customer should be aware that a water and sewer bill that remains unpaid after thirty days represents a lien on the customer's property.

In anticipation of questions that some customers might have, the Commission has enclosed with each bill a pamphlet which explains how to read this second, water and sewer bill. Should customers have any questions that are not answered by the pamphlet, they are asked to call the Commission's special Billing Inquiry Line at 426-6046, Extension 286.

This bill is the second of four, combined water and sewer bills which are issued each year by the Boston Water and Sewer Commission.

ARTHUR SHEA HEADS OFFICE OF PROPERTY EQUALIZATION

Mayor Kevin H. White, on September 3, announced the appointment of Arthur E. Shea as director of the city's Office of Property Equalization.

Mr. Shea, who formerly served as legal counsel to the office, began his duties September 1. His salary is $30,000.

As director of the Office of Property Equalization, he will oversee the equalization of assessments throughout Boston as mandated by the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court in the Sudbury decision of 1974.

He succeeds Robert Ryan, who was named director of the Boston Redevelopment Authority by Mayor White last month.

Mayor White said Mr. Shea's appointment "will give a sense of continuity" to the city's ongoing efforts to equalize assessments because of his familiarity with the process.

Mr. Shea has been working as internal counsel for the city on the process and serves as liaison with the city's special counsel, former Superior Court Chief Justice Walter McLaughlin, Sr.

The new director joined the White Administration in 1971. He was deputy director and counsel for the city's Consumer Council from 1971 to 1976, and served as a member of the Board of Review of the Assessing Department from 1976 until his appointment as director.

He worked from 1969 to 1971 as a member of the state legislature's Master Tax Plan Commission.

Mr. Shea grew up in Dorchester and attended Mission High School. He was graduated from Boston College in 1966 with a degree in economics and was graduated from Suffolk University Law School in 1969.

He resides at 1 Emerson Place, Boston.

TUITION REIMBURSEMENT PROGRAM

To: All Department Heads.

The following agreement has been negotiated between the City of Boston and the American Federation of Federal, State, County, and Municipal Employees Union (AFSCME) on Tuition Reimbursement:

The city agrees to administer the tuition reimbursement program, presently in existence at Boston City Hospital and the Administrative Services Department, on a fair and equitable basis to include members of the AFSCME bargaining unit. It is understood that this access is subject to the extent of appropriations made by the city for these programs, department needs, and the existing, city training policy. Access to tuition reimbursement funds will not include specific programs negotiated by and for members of other employee organizations.

Any employee participating in a tuition reimbursement program will be required to (1) submit proof of acceptance to a course or program when applying for reimbursement; and (2) complete the course with a passing grade at the employee's own expense before reimbursement.

A standing Joint Education Committee is hereby established and should consist of city and union representatives. The purpose of this committee shall be twofold: (1) to continuously review the reimbursement program, and discuss possible new programs; and (2) to review rejected reimbursement applications.

The existing policies and procedures will remain in effect concerning the City of Boston's Tuition Reimbursement Program as follows:

Application

A. Each employee will apply to his/her Appointing Authority for tuition reimbursement thirty (30) days prior to commencement of classes.

B. Each employee will supply to his/her Appointing Authority a description of the specific course being pursued.

C. Each Appointing Authority will review the course description for work relatedness. If the Appointing Authority believes the course the employee has selected is work-related and will improve his/her performance, the employee's request will be forwarded to the Training Coordinator, Personnel Division, Administrative Services Department with the Appointing Authority's recommending approval. If the Appointing Authority does not believe the course is work-related, nor will improve the employee's performance, the Appointing Authority will disapprove the employee's request and so notify the employee.

D. All approved requests will be reviewed by the Training Coordinator and his approval will be forwarded to the individual employee no later than ten (10) days prior to the commencement of classes.

Reimbursement Procedures

A. After completion of the approved course the employee will provide to the Training Coordinator, Personnel Division, Administrative Services Department two (2) copies of his/her final grade and two (2) copies of a canceled check, or some other proof of payment of said course.

B. The Training Coordinator will initiate the reimbursement upon receipt of the "grades and check" as mentioned in paragraph A of this section.

C. Reimbursement costs will be assumed by the Personnel Division.

D. The employee should allow eight (8) to twelve (12) weeks for receipt of the reimbursement and all reimbursements will be sent to the employee's home address.

Reimbursement Policy

A. No more than two (2) courses will be reimbursed per academic semester.

B. If an employee is required to participate in a program in order to maintain a license or registration for a position which the employee holds in the City of Boston, the employee will be reimbursed one hundred percent (100%) of tuition cost upon satisfactory completion.

C. An employee who is designated "Management" by the Mayor's Executive Order of January 1, 1975, establishing the Management Development and Compensation Plan, will be reimbursed one hundred percent (100%) of tuition cost upon satisfactory completion.

D. An employee who receives a grade of "A" or "B" in a graduate-level course will receive fifty percent (50%) tuition reimbursement.

E. An employee who receives a grade of "A" in an undergraduate-level course will receive fifty percent (50%) tuition reimbursement.

F. An employee who receives a grade of "B" in an undergraduate-level course will receive thirty-five percent (35%) tuition reimbursement.

G. An employee who satisfactorily completes a course on a "pass-fail" basis or receives a "certificate" rather than a grade will receive thirty (30%) tuition reimbursement.

H. An employee who receives a grade of "C" in an undergraduate-level course will receive twenty-five percent (25%) tuition reimbursement.

Miscellaneous

A. The Personnel Division, Administrative Services Department, will have final approval of all tuition reimbursement requests.

B. All tuition reimbursement is subject to the extent of funds available.

C. It is realized that at times it is impossible to request tuition reimbursement thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of classes and special considerations may be given. However, in no event will tuition reimbursement be granted if a request is received by the Training Coordinator later than five (5) days before the commencement of classes.

Your recommendations concerning any new training needs in your department are cordially invited.

Supervisor of Personnel.

"LIVING IN BOSTON" A HANDY GUIDEBOOK

Thinking about buying a house? Confused about where to start? You might want to obtain a copy of the booklet, Living in Boston, a guide to Boston and its neighborhoods.

This informative publication was recently issued by Boston Mayor Kevin H. White who said, "Once again the city's many housing options are being recognized for the value and satisfaction they offer. I believe you will find Living in Boston a valuable introduction to our city of neighborhoods."

Buying a home is a big step and, in the current period of rapid inflation, one that most financial advisors suggest should be taken as soon as possible. The more information potential homebuyers can assemble, the more certain they have made the choice that is right for them.

Living in Boston presents both basic information about Boston and information on each of the sixteen major neighborhoods. It should help the potential homebuyer begin to understand what is available in the City of Boston.

Published with the financial support of the Suffolk-Franklin Savings Bank and the U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the booklet is available at Boston City Hall, the neighborhood Little City Halls, and many local real estate brokers.

ATKINS RESIGNS AS EEPA ADMINISTRATOR

Mayor Kevin H. White has "accepted with regrets" the resignation of Charles M. Atkins, administrator of the city's Employment and Economic Policy Administration, effective September 15.

Atkins has headed EEPA since its formation in August of 1977.

The Mayor said Atkins during his tenure "gave EEPA leadership and direction in fulfilling its mandate of developing jobs and training for Boston residents."

In his letter to the Mayor, Atkins said: "The past one and a half years working for you have been immensely satisfying, both personally and professionally."

"Many of the 20,000 to 25,000 Bostonians who will be trained or employed this year by EEPA, might not have been provided a job opportunity were it not for that fact that you created EEPA over one year ago."

Atkins said "the programs for which EEPA is responsible are, in general, extremely successful as measured by the Department of Labor and other evaluators." As evidence, he cited:

— Boston's unemployment rate has dropped below 10 percent for the first time in many years.

— The success of EEPA in securing more than $25 million in employment and training funds from the U.S. Department of Labor, including $23 million for Project YES youth job training. Boston was one of five cities selected from 150.

— The rating by the Labor Department of Boston's CETA program, administered by EEPA, is in the highest category for the first time in the program's history.

"In summary," Atkins said, "I leave behind in EEPA an organization which deservedly is extremely proud of the job it has accomplished."

"Again, I thank you and the staff at EEPA for an opportunity to have participated in the effort to offer jobs and training to Bostonians."

NINETEEN WOMEN APPOINTED TO MAYOR'S COMMISSION

Mayor Kevin H. White, on August 29, announced the names of nineteen commissioners appointed as Boston neighborhood representatives to the Mayor's Commission to Improve the Status of Women.

The Commission, established by Mayor White, in 1970, deals directly with the social and professional issues and problems facing women today. Some of the Commission's priority issues are battered women, rape, employment, housing, and public policy. The structure of the Commission and the appointment of these individuals reflect and respond to the diversity of neighborhoods in Boston.

Mayor White said, "To further the city's commitment to help women in difficult living and work circumstances, the ongoing efforts of the Commission will benefit greatly from the experienced backgrounds of these women. The task before them is not an easy one, but one they approach with great concern and dedication."

The newly appointed Commissioners are: Ann Johnston, Allston-Brighton; Margaret M. Durkee, Back Bay-Beacon Hill; Gloria Conway, Charleston; Caroline Chang, Chinatown; Regina Hughes, Dorchester; Virginia St. Cyr, East Boston; Barbara Goldstein, Hyde Park; Joy Silverstein, Jamaica Plain; Janet Maher, Mission Hill; Maria Anastasi, North End; Linda Hailer, Roslindale; Donna Marie Latson, Roxbury; Patricia Ross and Debra Long, City Hall Representatives; Mary Page, Senior Citizen; and Christine Reilly, teenager from Dorchester.

The Mayor's Commission to Improve the Status of women is located in Room 603, Boston City Hall, 02201, and is open Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. For further information contact Commission Director Joan Johnson, 725-4496

Immediately thereafter, in a designated room, the proposals will be opened and read publicly.

The contract is described as follows: REPAIRS TO PEABODY SQUARE TUNNEL ROOF AND FIELDS CORNER BUS RAMP, MBTA RED LINE, Boston, Mass., and consists of the replacement of a portion of the Red Line tunnel roof at Peabody Square and concrete and steel repairs to elevated portions of the bus ramps at Fields Corner Station.

The work also includes the furnishing and maintaining of all scaffolding, shoring and bracing of the structure during the period of each repair. Hoisting equipment and power supply required for the execution of this work shall be furnished by the contractor.

This contract is subject to a financial assistance contract between the MBTA and the U.M.T.A. of the United States Department of Transportation.

The work described in this contract involves the safety of life, person, and property, the protection of which requires unusual engineering skill and experience. The work will also involve the safe and continuous operation of an operating electric railway.

Prequalification of contractors in accordance with the Authority's "Procedures Governing Classification and Rating of Prospective Bidders" will not be applicable to this contract. However, in view of the fact that specialized workmanship is included in the contractor's scope of work, bidders must be technically prequalified before bid opening. Details of prequalifications are set forth in Division II, Special Provisions, Page SP-2, Paragraph 6, Competency of Bidders. Information required for technical prequalification for this project must be submitted to the Contract Administrator no later than the tenth (10th) day preceding the date set for opening of bids.

Bidding documents may be obtained from the Contract Administrator at the address above from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday, at a charge of $10. The Authority hereby notifies all bidders that it will affirmatively insure that in regard to any contract entered into pursuant to this advertisement (Notice to Contractors), minority and female construction contractors will be afforded full opportunity to submit bids in response to this invitation and will not be discriminated against on the grounds of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin in consideration for an award.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246).

1. The Offerer's or Bidder's attention is called to the "Equal Employment Opportunity Clause" and the "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth herein.

2. The goals and timetables for minority and female participation, expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered area, are as follows: (See Appendix 1 to Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Specifications).

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered area.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required by the specifications set forth in 41 CFR 60-4.3(a), and its efforts to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract, resulting from this solicitation, is to be performed. The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract, and in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects. The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total work hours performed.

3. The contractor shall provide written notification to the Director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs within ten (10) working days of any construction subcontract in excess of $10,000 at any tier for construction work under the contract resulting from this solicitation. The notification shall list the name, address, and telephone number of the subcontractor, employer identification number, estimated dollar amount of the subcontract; estimated starting and completion dates of the subcontract; and the geographical area in which the contract is to be performed.

4. As used in this notice, and in the contract resulting from this solicitation, the "covered area" is Boston, Massachusetts, Suffolk County.

Bidding documents will be mailed by parcel post upon request and receipt of an additional postage and handling charge of two dollars ($2), payable by separate check. If requested, documents will be forwarded by air freight, where such service is available, at the expense of the plan holder.

Complete information and authorization to view the structure may be obtained from the Project Manager—Construction, Mr. J. Brown, 500 Arborway, Boston, Mass. (Telephone No. 617-722-5005).

A prebid conference and inspection tour will be held on September 18, 1978, at 9 a.m., at Ashmont Station, outbound platform. It is essential that the prospective bidders have a representative attend. Any request for interpretation of the specifications should be submitted in writing at that time.

All bidders will be required to certify that they are not on the Comptroller General's list of ineligible contractors.

The provisions of Massachusetts Executive Order No. 130, Anti-Boycott Covenants, are incorporated by reference as part of this contract.

All bidders will be required to certify as part of their proposal that they are able to furnish labor that can work in harmony with all other elements of labor employed or to be employed on the work.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a bid deposit of twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500) in the form of a bid bond, or cash, certified check, treasurer's or cashier's check issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the order of the MBTA.

The successful bidder shall be required to furnish a performance bond and a labor and materials payment bond, each for the full amount of the contract price. The surety shall be a surety company or securities satisfactory to the Authority.

The Authority reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, to waive informalities, to advertise for new proposals or proceed to do the work otherwise, as may be deemed to be for the best interests of the Authority.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246).

1. The Offerer's or Bidder's attention is called to the "Equal Employment Opportunity Clause" and the "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth herein.

2. The goals and timetables for minority and female participation, expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered area, are as follows: (See Appendix 1 to Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Specifications).

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered area.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required by the specifications set forth in 41 CFR 60-4.3(a), and its efforts to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract, resulting from this solicitation, is to be performed. The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract, and in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects. The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total work hours performed.

3. The contractor shall provide written notification to the Director of the Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs within ten (10) working days of any construction subcontract in excess of $10,000 at any tier for construction work under the contract resulting from this solicitation. The notification shall list the name, address, and telephone number of the subcontractor, employer identification number, estimated dollar amount of the subcontract; estimated starting and completion dates of the subcontract; and the geographical area in which the contract is to be performed.

4. As used in this notice, and in the contract resulting from this solicitation, the "covered area" is Jamaica Plain, Boston, Suffolk County, Massachusetts.

Bidding documents will be mailed by parcel post upon request and receipt of an additional postage and handling charge of two dollars ($2), payable by separate check. If requested, documents will be forwarded by air freight, where such service is available, at the expense of the plan holder.

Authorization for bidders to view the site of work on the MBTA's property shall be obtained from the office of Mr. Joseph Brown, the Project Manager, Telephone No. 722-5005.

A prebid conference will be held on September 19, 1978, at 10 a.m., at the office of the Director of Construction, ninth floor, 50 High Street, Boston, Mass. 02110. It is imperative that prospective bidders have a representative attend. Any request for interpretation of plans and specifications should be submitted in writing at the same time.

All bidders will be required to certify that they are not on the Comptroller General's list of ineligible contractors.

The provisions of Massachusetts Executive Order No. 130, Anti-Boycott Covenants, are incorporated by reference as part of this contract.

All bidders will be required to certify as part of their proposal that they are able to furnish labor that can work in harmony with all other elements of labor employed or to be employed on the work.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a bid deposit of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), in the form of a bid bond, or cash, certified check, treasurer's or cashier's check issued to the MBTA by a responsible surety, bank, or trust company.

Due to the specialized nature of construction, an award will not be made to a contractor who is not equipped to undertake and complete the work. The low bidder and/or lowest responsible bidder may be required to submit within five (5) business days after opening of bids a postqualification statement on forms to be furnished by the Authority.

UNITED WAY'S GOAL: $20 MILLION

Bee's knees, flappers, the cat's meow, and twenty-three skiddoo!

The United Way of Massachusetts Bay is turning back the clock this year to the exuberant decade of the 1920s as it began its 1978 fund-raising campaign September 14 with a Roaring 20s kickoff at the Park Plaza Hotel in Boston.

Under the leadership of General Campaign Chairman Thomas A. Sampson of Needham, managing partner of Arthur Andersen & Co., the United Way is reaching for a goal of $20 million plus to help support its 162 member agencies.

The kickoff ceremonies started at 7 a.m. with a motorcade, from the Prudential Center to the Park Plaza, of antique cars provided by the Museum of Transportation in Brookline. The cars then proceeded to Boston's City Hall Plaza, where the Museum will have them on display for the public until 3 p.m.

The goal of $20 million is the result of much research by General Chairman Sampson and his voluntary campaign leadership. "I know we can meet the goal," he said, "because we have the potential to do so. And I believe we have the best team of campaign volunteers in history."

The 1978 campaign has already been given a big push by eleven "Pacesetter" companies which have conducted their campaigns in August, to set the pace for the general campaign. Sears, Liberty Mutual, First National Bank of Boston, Federal Reserve Bank of Boston, The Stop & Shop Companies, General Dynamics Quincy Shipbuilding Division, Blue Cross and Blue Shield, Boston Gas Company, Boston Gear, Hewlett-Packard Medical Products Group, and ITT Continental Baking Company are the companies taking the lead in the campaign as pacesetters. Results are not yet complete, but the total raised by executive/employee campaigns in those companies appears to exceed $1 million.

The United Way of Mass. Bay helps to support 162 agencies serving eight-six cities and towns in eastern Mass. Agencies include the Red Cross, Salvation Army, visiting nurses associations, agencies for the physically and mentally handicapped, neighborhood centers, and many more.

Cochairpersons for the City of Boston Employees Campaign are Katharine D. Kane, Deputy Mayor, and Francis W. Gens, Commissioner of the Building Department.

Loaned executives for the campaign include Robert Curran, Parks and Recreation; Andrew E. Milligan, Veterans' Services; Gene DiBenedetto, Police Department; Daniel McLaughlin, Health and Hospitals; Gerry McLean, BRA; Elinor Hulak, EEPA; and Matt Ryan, OPS.

Proceeds from the City of Boston Employees Campaign are divided between the United Way of Massachusetts Bay and the National Health Agencies. United Way supports 162 human care agencies; twelve health agencies are affiliated with the National Health Agencies.

The 1978 campaign will continue through November.

OWE FOR PARKING TICKETS? BETTER PAY UP!

Mayor announces added penalties for delinquent tickets.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on September 9, announced that Boston will soon begin to impose added penalties on overdue parking tickets.

Any parking ticket which has not been paid within twenty-one days of issuance automatically increases in cost by $5 in every court in Boston. Currently, the surcharge fine varies among Boston's eight courts. The maximum surcharge now in force is $2. The new $5 is the same, regardless of the fine, because the extra cost represents a penalty for nonpayment.

Said Mayor White, "We are trying to accomplish two things by initiating a higher fine schedule: we are hoping to encourage more timely collection of parking ticket revenues; and discourage the need to issue summonses for collection of parking fines.

The new, uniform-penalty, fine system joins a more aggressive towing enforcement and booting program in Boston's crackdown on parking violators.

The new regulations will put Boston in line with other northeastern cities which utilize penalties to effect more rapid parking ticket payment.

CHICKATAWBUT ENVIRONMENTAL CENTER: FALL AND WINTER PROGRAMS

MDC Director of Public Information, Michael A. Goldman, announced the new fall and winter programming for the Chickatawbut Hills Environmental Center in the Blue Hills Reservation.

The environmental center has been in operation for three years. This year's programming will offer many alternatives to the traditional, nature seminars of years past. "What is unique about this center is that it is now geared towards the varying intellectual capacities, age levels, and needs of schools and youth groups who utilize the center," said MDC spokesperson Michael Goldman. "Highlights of the upcoming year," he continued, "will include twenty-four-hour, night, discovery programs, weekend camping, and week-long, resident camping."

Chickatawbut Hills Environmental Center is divided into three divisions for the academic year. Fall, winter, and spring programs all offer insights into the hows and whys of seasonal changes and a study of the many habitats that are found in the Blue Hills. A typical, two-day adventure would include nature walks, discussions, and activities such as Pond Discovery, Forest Discovery, Energy Resources of the sun and wind, the tracking of animals, orienteering: maps and compasses, and cooperative group activities of cooking and working together.

The facilities at Chickatawbut have been designed to comfortably accommodate different visiting groups. The newly renovated dormitory can sleep forty and contains student and staff lounges. There is a cafeteria with a capacity for eighty and a modern, fully equipped kitchen. The cafeteria can also be used as a meeting or game room.

According to DeWolf Merriam, the director of the Chickatawbut Hills Environmental Center, "The programs offered at Chickatawbut attempt to foster a wholeness approach to the natural environment, whereby mankind is seen as a part of our environment and not a separate entity from it. In promoting this attitude, our objective is to keep alive the sense of wonder and excitement of new discovery. Finally, we want our visitors to develop positive values and attitudes towards the natural world. For those who wish to make use of our facilities, our center can be a vital source of environmental awareness."

The fall schedule is filling up fast, but there are many openings still available for all three seasons. For further information regarding fees and reservations at Chickatawbut Hills, call Director DeWolf Merriam at 696-0920.

The Chickatawbut Hills Environmental Center is operated by the Massachusetts Audubon Society for the Metropolitan District Commission.

UNITED WAY BUILDING PURCHASED BY SUFFOLK UNIVERSITY

Suffolk University has purchased the twelve-story United Way building at Somerset Street and Ashburton Place, Beacon Hill, President Thomas A. Fulham has announced.

Papers were passed August 31 in the Boston law offices of Ropes & Gray completing the purchase and sale agreement by the university and the United Way of Massachusetts Bay, Inc. Price for the property, which contains 129,500 square feet, is $605,000.

Present for the university were Fulham; Vincent A. Fulmer, chairman of the university board of trustees; Francis X. Flannery, vice-president and treasurer; John Griffin, clerk of the corporation; and Attorney James F. Sullivan of Boston. The United Way was represented by Attorney William O. Rizzo of Ropes & Gray.

Fulham said the building, officially known as the Mason Memorial Building and erected in 1915, will be renovated for educational use. The university hopes to occupy the premises by January, 1981.

The building will house classrooms and administrative and student offices.

"The building, located as it is in close proximity to our other buildings, will enable the university to continue its tradition of providing diverse educational programs to all students in a highly accessible urban location," Fulham said.

In purchasing the United Way property, Suffolk maintains its policy of not acquiring residential property on Beacon Hill. In addition, the university will make a minimum contribution of $30,000 to the city annually for services.

Suffolk University, founded as a law school in 1906 and incorporated as a university in 1937, has been located on Beacon Hill since 1914. Its present properties include the six-story Frank J. Donahue Building at 41 Temple Street, which houses Suffolk's Law School, the Archer Building at 20 Derne Street, and the John E. Fenton Building at 32 Derne Street, both of which are used for the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and department offices, and a four-story building at 47 Mt. Vernon Street, presently the home of the College of Business Administration and the Journalism Department.

The university plans to sell the Mt. Vernon Street property so it can be converted for residential use.

MAYOR URGES: UPGRADE THEATRE DISTRICT

Mayor Kevin H. White, on September 7, announced two, new developments in his continued drive to upgrade the theatre district. Benjamin Thompson, of Benjamin Thompson Associates, and Schyler Chapin, dean of Columbia University's School of Arts, have been named consultants for the area's renovation project and the Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs will assume the role of liaison for local theatre managers.

Emphasizing the action, Mayor White pointed out that "as theatre plays a significant role in Boston's cultural life, it is important to the future of the city that the area again become vibrant and capable of attracting major theatrical productions."

Thompson, architect of the highly acclaimed Quincy Market Project, will act as architectural consultant for the project and will prepare a master plan for the area taking into account its unique character, existing structures, and the space requirements of the various performing arts. He will receive a salary of $30,000.

Chapin, former general manager of the Metropolitan Opera and consultant for the Opera Company of Boston will act as the theatre district's representative in New York City and will attempt to attract national companies to Boston. He will receive $25,000.

The Mayor's Office of Cultural Affairs will coordinate the city's services and see that the district's police, lighting, and street clean-up needs are met. It will also act as an ombudsman for local theatres in their relations with New York firms.

The latest moves are part of the Mayor's long-range plan for revitalization of the entire theatre district.

In the past two years new street lights have been installed in the area, the mounted patrol has been introduced, streets have been repaved and resurfaced, and trees and flowers have been planted.

"Boston used to be the third theatre city in the country," Mayor White added, "but now it's fifth. It's going to take the combined efforts of all segments of the community to put the district back on the map. With effort, Boston will once again, claim its place among the great theatre cities in the country."

One reason experience is the best teacher is it's always on the job.

DEVELOPMENT AND CONSTRUCTION

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request your written authority to dispense with public bidding and to amend a contract with the Boston Redevelopment Authority, dated September 28, 1977, entitled "Continuation of Approved Urban Renewal Activity for the period July 1, 1977 to June 30, 1978." The amount of the amendment is not to exceed $364,845.02.

This amendment increases the contract amount from $5,798,600 to $6,163,445.02. Included in the amendment are an increase of $431,845.02 due to close out agreements in connection with the East Boston NDP and Washington Park, as well as a decrease of $67,000 for activities in the South End Project Area originally to be done by the Boston Redevelopment Authority, which are now being carried out by city agencies.

Funding for this amendment will come from increased entitlement funds due to surpluses resulting from close out agreements in conjunction with the above-mentioned, urban renewal projects.

Due to the legal status of the Boston Redevelopment Authority with regard to Urban Renewal, per M.G.L. chapter 121B, and in light of its past experience in carrying out this contract, and to insure continuity no useful purpose will be served by public advertising and bidding.

The period of performance for this amendment will be from July 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978.

Very truly yours,

Special Assistant.

EEPA

Management System

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising in the City Record, and to amend a contract with Accudata, Inc., 31 Memorial Drive, Avon, MA 02322. The purpose of the amendment is to keep the CETA Title I automated Management Information System (MIS) in place between April 1, 1978, and September 30, 1978. The contractor has agreed to provide these services at the same reasonable rate as under the original contract.

Under the terms of the amendment, Accudata, Inc. will continue to be responsible for maintaining the computer system for the automated MIS, and doing such programming and systems-testing as is necessary, and producing management reports on weekly, monthly, and quarterly basis from keypunched data.

Approval of the amendment for $18,000 will increase the total contract to an amount not to exceed $72,500. The effective dates of operation of the amended contract will then be from October 1, 1976, through September 30, 1978.

Due to the experience and success of this firm in the operation of the CETA Title I automated MIS, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

ELECTION COMMISSIONERS Printing Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your approval is respectfully requested to amend the contract between the City of Boston, acting through its Board of Election Commissioners, and Acme Printing Company, Inc., 4 Colby Street, Medford, Mass., dated January 13, 1978, for the printing of a continuous-type, card form for the annual listing of residents, by increasing the contract sum from $8,400 to $9,248.40.

The original contract called for 300,000 forms to be printed at $28 per thousand forms. Acme Printing Company, Inc., furnished the Boston Election Department with 330,300 forms, a 10 percent overrun.

Upon checking with other firms and the Boston Law Department, it was found that a 10 percent overrun was acceptable in this type of contracting.

May I further point out that the forms in question may be used for next year's annual listing of residents.

Based on the above factors, I believe the amendment to the contract would serve the best interests of the city.

Public advertising for such printing was under date of November 14, 1977. Attached hereto is a copy of said advertisement.

Very truly yours,
John M. Robinson,
Chairman.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT Data Processing Equipment

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I request your Honor's permission to amend the city's existing contract with International Business Machines Corporation, for the leasing of data processing equipment for use by the Management Information Services Division of the Department of Health and Hospitals, for the period July 1, 1976, through June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $165,948.

This amendment will increase the cost to the city by $34,367, for a total of $200,315, and was occasioned by the requirement to install additional equipment and computer software to support the: 1. Patient Registration System; 2. Patient Admission System; 3. OPD Scheduling and Appointment System; 4. Inpatient Accounting System; 5. Ambulatory Accounting System.

These systems are being developed and modified for the Department of Health and Hospitals with the department's full approval.

In view of the above and because the cost to the city is reasonable your Honor's permission is respectfully requested to amend this contract, without advertising, under the terms and conditions stated above.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

Alterations, Renovations, etc.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission, on February 28, 1978, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to enter into an agreement with Peirce, Pierce, and Kramer/Korslund, LeNormand and Quann Inc., a joint venture of 116 Newbury Street, Boston, Mass., amending a contract executed February 4, 1977, providing for Phase II design services in connection with the renovations and new construction of the South West High School II in the Jamaica Plain district, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure for supplementary services from $122,500 to $142,500.

This requested increase is due to unusual and unforeseen conditions encountered in the existing buildings, both main and annex, necessitating changes in design in order to proceed with the work. Also, in order to base the redesign on factual information, additional survey data, latest soil data, and analysis of the structural soundness of many existing elements must be obtained.

Due to the provisions of law to the effect that executed and existing contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by all parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Victor E. Hagan,
Acting Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on February 28, 1978, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to enter into an agreement with R. Wendell Phillips & Associates, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, amending a contract executed August 13, 1976, for the preparation of plans, specifications, construction cost estimates, and supervision of construction of alterations to the Brookside Family Life Center/N.I.C.E. Day Care Center in Jamaica Plain, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure for supplementary services from $1,500 to $4,000.

This amendment provides funds for the following additions: (a) smoke detectors required by the new building code; (b) enclosed stairway required by a change in program; (c) layouts and connections for dental lab equipment; (d) chain link fence.

Due to the provisions of the law to the effect that executed and existing city contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by all parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Victor E. Hagan,
Acting Director.

Construction Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a recent vote of the Public Facilities Commission, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record and to enter into an agreement with Shepley Bulfinch Richardson and Abbott/Bayside School Associates, a joint venture consisting of (a) Shepley Bulfinch Richardson and Abbott, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation, and (b) Desmond & Lord, Inc. Lottero & Mason Associates, Inc., and Scorziello Associates, Inc., Massachusetts corporations associates in a joint venture, d/b/a Bayside School Associates, with offices at 1 Court Street, Boston, Mass., amending a contract executed May 19, 1977, for Phase II design services in the preparation of architectural and engineering drawings, including working drawings, detailed specifications, and cost estimates, and to supervise the construction of an Occupational Resource/Arts Resource Center for public school purposes on land in the so called "Madison Park" district of the city, so as to increase the amount authorized for expenditure from $926,050 to $1,146,050.

This requested increase of $220,000 will cover the cost of the following additional design work: (a) relocation of the Stony Brook easement; (b) relocation of MBTA electrical services; (c) renovation of building 1 Campus High; (d) equipment planning and specifications; (e) fine arts; (f) security system addition requested by School Department; (g) specifications for movable furnishings. A more detailed explanation of the major cost items covered by this requested increase is given in the attached memorandum dated January 23, 1978.

Due to the provisions of the law to the effect that executed and existing city contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by all parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Victor E. Hagan,
Acting Director.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Bulldozer Repairs

Dear Mr. Mayor:

At the present time the City of Boston has a contract for "Undercarriage Repairs to Public Works Department Caterpillar D8H, Serial No. 46A28351" with the following contractor:

Babcock Equipment Co., Inc., 163 Highland Avenue, Needham Heights, Mass. 02194.

The contract amount is $5,542.

To insure a minimum amount of "downtime" on this unit, we have utilized the services of the above-named company to the financial limit of the contract.

Additional work not specified in the contract is now required; the cylinder heads on this unit need to be replaced.

Whereas this bulldozer is assigned to compact rubbish and spread cover material at our Gardner Street Street sanitary landfill, it is in the best interests of the public's health and safety that the unit be repaired with a minimum amount of delay.

For the above-stated reason, your approval is requested to amend this contract with an additional amount of $5,000.

Respectfully,
Joseph F. Casazza,
Commissioner of Public Works.

Engineering Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Reference is made to your approval of my letter dated August 12, 1976, copy enclosed, concerning an amendment to the contract for certain engineering services for the Chelsea Street Bridge over Chelsea Creek in East Boston, by Universal Engineering Corporation, 100 Boylston Street, Boston, Mass., to $91,100, and describing previous amendments to this contract.

Upon completing the work covered under the above amendment, Universal was directed by the Massachusetts D.P.W. to make a design change and revise the plans accordingly for work to be done on the end diagonal trusses (L13-U11) of the bridge trusses. This has been accomplished even though the work was beyond the scope of their contract.

The Massachusetts D.P.W. has now indicated that they wish Universal to become involved in additional work, which includes the following:

1. To provide supervision for the final balancing of the bridge;
2. To investigate and attempt to minimize a difference in bearing levels between the east and west trusses on the Chelsea side;
3. To investigate and take any engineering steps necessary to make the end locks on the Chelsea side operable.

The work as described above should be completed in two months from the date of the Mayor's approval.

In order to compensate the contractor for work already completed and work described above to be accomplished, I am requesting that the previous estimated limit of payment of $91,100 be amended to $100,000, which I consider to be a reasonable cost.

Very truly yours,
Joseph F. Casazza,
Commissioner of Public Works.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

Data Processing Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I am writing to request an amendment to the contract for the Harvard Computing Center between the City of Boston, through its School Committee, and the ESAA Bilingual Testing and Measurement Component. This is an amendment to the contract term only. There will be no change in the total payment.

Please amend this contract to read as follows:

Strike out the term in Article 4 (3) and insert in place thereof: March 22, 1977, to August 31, 1977.

The ESAA Bilingual Testing and Measurement Component of the Boston Public Schools experienced some delays in collecting and preparing the testing protocols for data processing. Therefore, the actual data processing activities assigned to the Harvard Computing Center will not be accomplished until on or before August 31, 1977. The tasks assigned to this contractor remain the same.

Funds for this payment and contract are included within the present ESAA Special Project, Federal Grant No. G00-76-054-63.

Sincerely,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Mechanical Equipment Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your approval to amend the original contract with the William M. Collins Co., 410 Dorchester Avenue, South Boston, Mass., for the preventive maintenance of mechanical equipment and installations as follows:

The original contract dates of July 1, 1976, to June 30, 1977, be amended to read July 1, 1976, to July 30, 1977.

This amendment was necessary to provide one month's additional service due to a delay of thirty days in the signing of a new contract with the Bay State Service, Inc., 76 Kent Street, Brookline, Mass. There is no duplication of services or payment thereof.

This amendment will provide for a payment of $5,750, a reduction of $3,875 from the regular monthly payment of $9,625 for the thirty-day service and amend the contract price from $115,500 to $121,250.

The service rendered during the month of July, 1977, was for furnishing all labor and materials necessary for providing full maintenance service as provided for in the original contract.

Respectfully submitted,
Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.

Projects Evaluation

Dear Mayor White:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement, and to award to Beacon Research Associates, Inc. the following amendment to change amount from $22,988 to $25,759.

On November 22, 1977, the School Committee of the City of Boston approved a contract with Beacon Research Associates, Inc. for $22,988 to evaluate chapter 636 projects. Subsequent to approval of the contract, five chapter 636 projects were approved by the State Board of Education. This amendment add $2,771 to the Beacon Research Associates, Inc. contract from the budgets of chapter 636 Projects 78-BC-0740 ($1,521), 78-SW-0607 ($500), and 78-SW-0604 ($750).

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the Board of Superintendents, and has been approved by the School Committee, that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Yours truly,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Legal Services

Dear Mayor White:

On July 1, 1977, the School Committee awarded a contract, approved by you, without public advertising, to Holtz and Drachman, attorneys-at-law, 185 Devonshire Street, Boston, to direct and supervise all labor relations matters dealing with the Boston Teachers Union and the Boston Association of School Administrators and Supervisors between July 1, 1977, and June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $65,000.

Inasmuch as the contractor was required to provide more legal services than anticipated your authorization is requested to amend this contract by increasing the amount to $90,000.

Because of the professional and confidential nature of the services to be performed it is the opinion of the School Committee that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Lighting Improvements

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I request your approval of my action to amend the contract with the Owens Electrical Contracting Co., Inc., 131 West Newton Street, Boston, Mass., for modernization of lighting at the Frank V. Thompson School, advertised July 11, 1977, from $96,000, to $102,923.94. You did approve of my action in awarding the contract on August 19, 1977.

After the contract was awarded, new partitions were installed to provide two new offices and it became necessary to install new electrical wiring, fixtures, heat detectors, clocks, and speakers. Also, it was necessary to change the conduits for the fire alarm system and call system to the public address system.

Respectfully submitted,
Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT Office Equipment Rental

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Permission is respectfully requested to amend my letter of December 7, 1977, approved on January 1, 1978, to award a contract to Univac Division, Sperry Rand Corporation, Wellesley Office Park, Wellesley, Mass., for the rental of office equipment at a cost not to exceed $42,012.

Inadvertently, a transportation and cartage charge was omitted from the original letter. Under the terms of this contract, a $400 service charge will be paid upon the termination of this contract unless the city shall continue to use the machines.

Therefore, the total liability of the city under this contract shall not exceed $42,412, which I have determined to be a reasonable contract cost.

James V. Young,
Collector-Treasurer.

NOTICE OF REQUIREMENT FOR AFFIRMATIVE ACTION TO ENSURE EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EXECUTIVE ORDER 11246).

The contractor's attention is called to the "Equal Opportunity Clause" and the "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority and female participation, expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate performance in each trade on all construction work in the covered areas are as follows: (See pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables.)

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally-assisted) performed in the covered areas.

As used in this notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Dedham, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Stoneham, Wakefield, Westwood, Winthrop, Winchester, Woburn, and the Islands of Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract is to be performed. The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects. The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total work hours performed.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Awarding Authority and the Housing and Urban Development Department, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful general bidder.

Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages as set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for the employment are not discriminated against because of their race, creed, color, or national origin.

The Building Commissioner is allowing a fifty-seven-day period to complete the demolition and site clearance of these buildings starting within seven (7) days after the signing of the Mayor's award.

The Awarding Authority reserves the right to waive any informalities and to reject any or all general bids if it be in the public interest to do so.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including, with limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246. A statement of workforce needs as requested by section 3 and a section 3 affirmative action plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. A section 3 affirmative action plan consists of tables AAP-1 to AAP-3 and forms AAP-1 and AAP-2 and can be found at pages ST1-ST7 of the contract documents. This requirement will be strictly adhered to. Proposals submitted without the required forms will be rejected. No bidder shall be eligible for award on this project unless he is able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Awarding Authority his ability to comply with these requirements. NO. 39

SENIOR AIDES: PEOPLE HELPING PEOPLE

The sixty-seven-year-old woman cooking Chinese food at Chinatown's nutrition site has a lot in common with the eighty-three-year-old director of the North End's Roma Band.

Both are senior citizens and still draw paychecks. Both have been recycled into the working population, and are utilizing their time and experience to the benefit of their communities. Both are Senior Aides.

The Senior Aides program offers part-time employment in social service jobs to Boston residents, fifty-five years of age and older, who meet certain income requirements.

Under the sponsorship of Mayor Kevin White's Commission on Affairs of the Elderly, and funded by the United States Department of Labor through the National Council of Senior Citizens, the aides work twenty hours a week in nonprofit agencies in the area. The work entailed varies according to the seniors' skills and the services needed.

In hospitals, aides serve as Medicare technicians, explaining benefit coverage to patients, and dealing with the red tape of Medicare forms and the rules involved. They also work in health and nutrition centers, libraries, day care and recreation sites, and in Little City Halls as information and referral specialists.

Paralegal aides help other senior citizens through court proceedings which do not require the services of a lawyer, and on matters which are more time-consuming than complicated. As persons get older, problems with local, state, and federal laws and regulations multiply. Senior Aides can help unsnarl questions involving Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, income taxes, and wills.

"Our older Bostonians have a special blend of experience, skill, and patience, which makes them invaluable in work that would not otherwise be performed in community service agencies," Mayor White said.

"The Senior Aides program gets the elderly back into the mainstream of the work force," added Commissioner Elaine Guiney. "The idea of seniors helping other seniors works very well."

A pilot program on fire prevention among the elderly is now being initiated in conjunction with the Boston Fire Department.

Senior Aides will see films on fires and how to spot potential hazards in the eighty hours of intensive training towards becoming community, fire-prevention educators.

Under this program, the first of its kind in the New England region, older Bostonians will be able to call the Fire Department to arrange a time for Senior Aides to visit their residences.

By appointment, the aides will visit elderly housing and apartments to give seniors the latest, fire-prevention information, and to conduct a survey of the premises. They will check for possible fire hazards, such as frayed electrical cords and overloaded sockets.

This will not only inform the elderly, but also will gather facts on hazardous conditions for the Fire Department's knowledge. Twelve positions are now open for active seniors interested in this vital, municipal service of door-to-door, fire prevention. Employment as Senior Aides gives older, unemployed workers new confidence in themselves and their ability to make their way in life.

Seniors interested in applying to be community, fire-prevention educators are encouraged to call 725-4362 for preliminary screening.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

ROSLINDALE GYM SCHEDULE

Mayor Kevin H. White announces the new, fall, Roslindale Recreation Center Gym Schedule with the start of an adults Slimnastics class which began Tuesday, September 19. Classes will be held on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 6:30 p.m., to 8 p.m., and Commissioner Alan M. Austin extends an invitation to all interested adults to participate in this class whether you really need to lose those few extra pounds or just want to get and stay in good physical shape. EDUCATION PROGRAM AT NORTH END UNION

Practical, Social, Enlightening, Healthy — These words describe the North End Union's Fall Adult Education Program, beginning the week of October 10th. The Union, one of Boston's oldest community centers serving the North End for over eighty-five years, is offering eighteen different ways to experience an enjoyable, educational, and healthy autumn.

Learn the practical skill of working in an office by taking a course entitled "Basic Office Procedures." Taught by Ellen Brawley, a community resident and administrative assistant for a large real estate firm in Boston, the course deals with setting priorities; handling clients or customers smoothly; proper telephone etiquette; setting up and maintaining an efficient filing system; working with a supervisor to develop department cohesiveness; drafting routing correspondence; and assuming responsibilities.

No skill is more practical than the skill of survival. In accordance with this idea the North End Union is offering courses in "Fire Safety and Prevention," "CPR" (Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation), and "Emergency First Aid." All three courses are invaluable and are free.

Obviously the best way to learn a language is to be in an environment where the language is spoken. Therefore, what better place to learn Italian than in Boston's North End? Both "Beginning Italian" and "Intermediate" are taught by Isabella, a native instructor from southern Italy.

"Enlightening" is one adjective that several graduates of "Assertiveness Training for Women" use to describe this course. The instructor, Susan Coco, states that assertiveness training helps women "develop skills to overcome feelings of helplessness, anger, and depression by allowing them to assert themselves while preserving their self-dignity and that of others." "Enlightening" can also be used to describe a course entitled "Women and the Church," dealing with the changing role of women in today's church.

Dance and exercise are the latest craze to hit the city, so get on the dance floor and move with style by taking a "Disco Dancing" course taught by dancer Anna Mancini, or if you prefer a general introduction to the basics of dance then Cid Pardue's "Modern Dance" class will teach you the fundamentals. While you dance you can also trim yourself up by taking "Women's Exercise for Figure and Fun," or by joining the North End Jogging Club. Both classes are taught by Janis Haydostian, a former physical education consultant to European Health Spas. Beginning Yoga is also being offered focusing on exercises, body movement, deep relaxation, mental concentration, and breath control.

Meet other people this Autumn while enjoying the fall foliage by joining the North End Camping and Hiking Club for adults over twenty-one years of age. The club will meet at the Union to discuss places and times. Also, interested individuals can discuss contemporary and traditional novels by various authors in an informal and low-keyed setting by joining a Book Discussion Group.

Learn other skills such as calligraphy, drawing, and weaving, or learn how to become a fantastic Italian cook by taking Marguerite DiMino's famed "Italian Regional Cooking" class.

Treat yourself to an educational, healthy, and enjoyable autumn by taking one or more courses at the North End Union. All courses are reasonable or free and offer competent, professional instruction. Call 227-2927 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., or write to the North End Union, 20 Parmenter Street, Boston, MA 02113 for a free Adult Education Brochure.

ADULT VOLUNTEERS NEEDED AT SCIENCE MUSEUM

Seriousness of purpose is the chief requirement asked of adult volunteers needed this fall at Boston's Museum of Science.

Volunteers who commit themselves to a project and invest themselves in its success have a more positive experience of personal growth, says Gwen Ferrini, director of the volunteer program.

Suggesting the Museum's several volunteer projects either as a contribution to the community or as a means of trying out possible career choices, Mrs. Ferrini emphasizes that most assignments involve learning. Ongoing, training sessions in science and educational techniques are combined with individual investigation of fields of interest. In office assignments, learning may take place in subjects ranging from fund-raising efforts to personnel.

In addition to some volunteers with specialized skills, the Museum also seeks a large number for several continuing activities.

These include visitor guides, who must have a background in science, either through formal education or as a long-term interest, and who can convey their knowledge and enthusiasm for the subject to visitors of all ages. Volunteers with a gift for administration are required for the Giant Garage Sale; work on the spring event begins this fall. Other volunteers guide small, inner-city children (four or five at a time) through exhibit halls to introduce them to the Museum. This "Project Eye-Opener" benefits from

MAYOR CREATES COMMITTEE TO HELP BOSTON BUSINESS

Mayor Kevin H. White, on September 12, announced the formation of a committee to design an overall business and development strategy for the City of Boston.

The group, the Financial and Business Development Committee, will be composed of four prominent administration figures: Vice-Mayor Edward T. Sullivan, Deputy Mayor James V. Young, Deputy Mayor Katharine Kane, and Hynes Auditorium Director Theodore Anzalone.

The new committee will deliberate on every aspect of city action which effects business from street patterns to tax agreements and development projects.

Said Mayor White, "Decisions made by every individual city department have an enormous cumulative impact on the business community. This committee has the experience and savvy to make sure we promote the healthiest business climate possible in Boston. The committee will put together under one roof the necessary expertise to assure stable and productive relations between the city and its businesses."

Mayor White added, "This committee's members have all developed a good rapport with the city's business community through past endeavors. They understand business. They know what business needs, and they know how to respond effectively to those needs."

Among the projects and developmental programs, on which the Financial and Business Development Committee will focus are:

— New development in the Copley Square area;

— A proposed addition to Hynes Auditorium;

— Proposed, residential housing development for Tremont Street.

HUB'S TAXI FARES INCREASED

Boston Police Commissioner Joseph M. Jordan has granted a 12.5 percent increase in taxi fares to Boston's taxi industry, effective September 15, 1978.

Commissioner Jordan said, "This rate adjustment is the culmination of an in-depth analysis of Boston's taxi service conducted by my office and relates to an increase in costs experienced by the taxi industry over the past two years. I feel we have fulfilled our mandate regarding the regulation of taxi service in Boston by tightening up the requirements placed on the industry for clean, safe, and efficient taxi service provided to the public, as well as recognizing the economic realities of spiraling costs faced by the industry."

Based on cost information compiled by the transportation consulting firm of Cambridge Systematics, Incorporated, it was determined that costs for the entire taxi industry had risen 10.28 percent since May, 1976 (when the last rate increase occurred). Costs for the independent owner-drivers have increased 12.06 percent over the two-year period.

The new rate, which is: 80 cents for the first 1/3 of a mile; 10 cents for each additional 1/9 mile; and $10 per hour waiting time, embodies reforms that should improve convenience and service to Boston residents, especially the elderly (who still are eligible for discount coupons through Little City Halls).

"The rate structure as developed will encourage drivers to look for the short ride (under two miles). This should increase the availability of cabs in outlying neighborhoods where short trips are made for shopping and local errands. I have ordered that the fifty-cent surcharge currently in effect be terminated effective September 15, 1978, the date the new rate will be effective. This feature has caused many complaints of overcharging and driver-passenger ill will. Visitors to the city will not be confused by a complicated rate structure with the advent of new rates."

In summary, Commissioner Jordan stated, "The rate increase was allowed after careful review of taxi-operating costs provided by Cambridge Systematics. The Boston Police Department's thorough inspections, improved taxi driver tests, and reorganization of the Police Hackney Bureau, as well as other measures, should improve the vehicles on the street and provide the best available people as operators."

CITY TO SPONSOR FORUM ON "SPECIAL NEEDS" VETERANS

The City of Boston, in cooperation with the National Alliance of Business and the Veterans Administration, is sponsoring a forum for Boston-area businessmen to develop employment and training opportunities for "special needs" veterans.

Said Mayor White, "This forum will provide the opportunity for community and local business leaders to find new ways to assist the unemployed Boston veteran who has special needs."

"Special needs" veterans include those who may have drug- or alcohol-related problems, who may lack necessary skills or education, or who may be ex-offenders. The forum will explore ways to meet the employment needs of this target group.

The forum will be held at the Federal Reserve Bank on Summer Street, on Wednesday, September 27. Joseph Reilly, vice-president of Cabot Corporation will be the featured speaker.

For further information, contact Jim Greene, the National Alliance of Business, at 482-6513.

REALTORS OFFER LICENSE COURSE

The Massachusetts Association of Realtors is offering a six-week Real Estate License Exam Preparatory Course, now, through October 26.

Classes for the thirty-hour course are held Monday and Thursday nights, from 7:30 to 10 p.m., at the Holiday Inn, Newton. According to Course Dean John R. McGrath, Esq., of Boston, the course covers material for both the real estate salesman and broker's examinations. It includes intensive review of laws, rules, and regulations on real estate in Massachusetts, as well as mathematics, terminology, transaction and instrument preparation.

Students will use the "Handbook for Real Estate Examinations and Practice," written by Association Executive Vice-President Milton H. Shaw of Boston. There is a fee for the course.

For advance registration or further information, contact the association office in Boston at (617) 261-3800.

EEPA RECEIVES GRANT FOR TRAINING PROGRAM

Mayor White announces a $924,496 grant for "STIP II" training program.

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that the City of Boston's Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA) has received almost $1 million from the Department of Labor to develop training programs for 104 CETA-eligible, Boston residents.

The Skills Training Improvement Program (STIP II) is designed to provide classroom training for post-entry-level jobs in the computer programming, energy conservation, and electronics industries.

Mayor White said, "This program will provide highly skilled manpower in growing industries, and at the same time, give meaningful employment to Boston residents. It is a prime example of the continued implementation of the Boston Plan to create unsubsidized jobs for Boston residents."

The training programs have been contracted to three, Boston-based, private firms, J. L. Rivers & Co., a minority-owned, computer consulting firm, will train thirty enrollees in "business applications" computer programming. ECON, Inc., an energy conservation consulting firm, will provide thirty training slots in the maintenance of heating, ventilating, and air-conditioning equipment, residential energy auditing skills, and some aspects of solar installation. OIC, a nonprofit organization, will train forty-four computer-test and electronics technicians, in response to Digital Equipment Corp.'s commitment to locate a major facility in the Crosstown Industrial Park.

CONTRACTS AMENDED

The Mayor has approved the amending of contracts, based on the following information:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT

Purchasing Division

Musical Equipment

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On June 27, 1977, your Honor approved a letter of award for contracts to several companies for furnishing musical equipment.

The original letter dated June 23, 1977, read for the Public Works Department which was incorrect. Permission is requested to amend the original letter to have the department read Public Facilities Department.

Respectfully yours,

Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Various Gases

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On April 21, 1978, your Honor approved a letter of award for contracts to two companies for furnishing industrial and medical gases to various city departments as a result of publicly opened bids of March 31, 1978.

The amount of the contract for Ohio Medical Products Division of Airco, Inc. incorrectly read $10,186.50. Permission is requested to amend the original letter dated April 10, 1978, to have the amount of the contract for this company read $2,561, less 2 percent discount, time of payment.

It is also requested that a contract be awarded to Puritan Bennett Corp. Approximate total amount of contract will be $10,186.50, net, 15th proximo, plus demurrage charges as indicated in proposal.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT Photographic Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On February 22, 1978, the Building Department entered into a contract which was approved by your Honor on February 13, 1978, and awarded without public advertising for bids to Martin R. Peeler, d/b/a M. R. Photo, 8 Burney Street, Roxbury, Mass., for photographic services. This contract is for the period October 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $18,000.

Because of the storm of January 20, 23, 1978, and the blizzard of February 6 to 8, 1978, the contractor was required to take more photographs than was anticipated in the terms of the original contract. The extra photographs consisted mainly of collapsed roofs and parapets, falling brick and walls in unsafe and dangerous conditions due to the heavy snow. Your authorization is requested to amend this contract by providing for extra services and by increasing the liability of the city under this contract by $6,000. The additional compensation to the contractor will be payable at the same rate specified in the terms of the original contract which I have determined to be reasonable. The cost of this contract as amended shall not exceed $24,000.

Funding for this amendment will be made from the Department of Housing and Urban Development, Community Development Block Grant.

Because of the need for continuous twenty-four-hour service throughout the contract period by the Building Department, it is my opinion that further advertising for bid would serve no useful public purpose.

Very truly yours,
Francis W. Gens,
Building Commissioner.

CITY COUNCIL Stenographic Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your written permission to amend contract No. SC-7196 issued to Mary E. Ford, 11 Harnden Road, Billerica, the stenographer for the Boston City Council.

This contract was originally authorized in the amount of $7,500, under service order No. 51006-78. The term of this contract is from July 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978.

Realizing the numerous public hearings held during this fiscal year — coupled with the added expense of transcripts required in the case of Inmates, et al., v. Eisenstadt, et al. — the entire allotment has been exhausted, with a large, unpaid balance remaining.

In order that the City Council may continue to provide transcripts for its public hearings, it is necessary that the Mary E. Ford contract be amended by increasing the total amount by $5,000.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,
James M. Coyle,
Staff Director.

DEVELOPMENT AND CONSTRUCTION Urban Renewal

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request your written authority to dispense with public bidding and to amend a contract with the Boston Redevelopment Authority, dated February 17, 1978, for continuation of approved Urban Renewal Activity in the South End, Downtown-Waterfront, South Cove, and Fenway renewal areas. The amount of the amendment is not to exceed $900,000.

This amendment increases the contract amount of $15,000,000, to $15,900,000. The reason for this amendment is that the final Urgent Needs Grant to the City of Boston from the Department of Housing and Urban Development was $15,900,000, and not the $15,000,000 previously anticipated.

Funding for this amendment will be made from the Department of Housing and Urban Development Urgent Needs Grant. The purpose of the Urgent Needs provisions of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974, section 103(b) is to provide supplementary block grant funds to localities in order that activities previously approved for urban renewal funding under the Housing and Development Act of 1949 may be continued and completed.

Due to the legal status of the Boston Redevelopment Authority with regard to Urban Renewal per M.G.L. chapter 121B, and in light of its past experience in these project areas, no useful purpose would be served by public advertisement and bidding. Under the terms of this amended contract the Boston Redevelopment Authority will be obligated to follow the public bidding process in carrying out its activities.

The period of performance under this amended contract will be from July 1, 1977, to December 1, 1978, except as otherwise noted in the contract.

Very truly yours,
Andrew M. Olins,
Special Assistant.

EEPA

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising for bids in the City Record, and to amend a contract with Michael J. Shea, 30 Kimball Road, Watertown, Mass., for the performance of consulting services to the Employment and Economic Policy Administration, during the period November 1, 1977, through December 31, 1977.

The contractor has assisted the Employment and Economic Policy Administration in its application for federal funds for disadvantaged youth under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Projects Act of 1977, P. L.

95-93. The effective dates of the amended contract are November 1, 1977, through May 18, 1978. The contractor will be paid at the rate of $12.50 per hour or $100 per diem. The cost of this amendment shall not exceed $1,800, thereby increasing the liability of the city under this contract to an amount not to exceed $5,800.

This request is retroactive because EEPA wishes to pay the contractor for services provided in good faith, at our request, after the expiration of his original contract. The contract could not be amended until final approval of the Boston Plan, Project Y.E.S. grant between the city and the federal government, in late March, 1978, and concomitant City Council approval for EEPA to expend the grant. In view of the excellent quality and the reasonable cost of the services provided, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Various Training Programs

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising in the City Record, and to amend a contract with the Boys' Clubs of Boston, a corporation with offices at 15 Green Street, Charlestown, MA 02129, for the operation of the World of Work Program, an employment training and placement program for disadvantaged Boston youth. The proposed amendment will increase the contract award by $7,200, to an amount not greater than $57,200.

The purpose of this amendment is to raise the allocation to the contractor to the level provided for by the EEPA, in a modification of the original award. This amendment does not alter the term of contract, which remains in effect from October 31, 1977, until September 30, 1978.

Funds for this amendment will be provided through a federal government grant to the city under Title III of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P. L. 93-203. Due to this agency's success to date in operating the World of Work Program, and the reasonable cost thereof, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend an award letter dated April 6, 1978, which you approved on April 25, 1978. The purpose of the amendment is to properly identify the contractor.

The award should be for a contract with Wu P'I, Inc., 1427 Cambridge, Mass., rather than with Ms. Jackie L. Kay. The error was made when the 78-1A service order form for the work listed Ms. Kay as the vendor. Ms. Kay, who is employed by Wu P'I, Inc., will provide consulting services to the Employment and Training Department of EEPA to enable the department to evaluate and develop programs based on training methodologies as they relate to program performance.

Whereas all other terms of the original award letter are correct, approval of this amendment will enable the contract to take effect without further delay.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising in the City Record, and to amend a contract with the Boston YMCA, 140 Clarendon Street, Boston, MA 02116, for continued operation of their Nontraditional Occupations Training Program for Women. The proposed amendment will increase the contract award by $7,700 to an amount not greater than $236,966. This increase is to be funded by reduction of the funds budgeted in the allowance category administered by the Division of Employment Security. The effective dates of operation of the revised contract will be from November 1, 1976, through August 25, 1978, thereby extending the term four months.

Under the terms of the proposed amendment, the YMCA will provide continued, job-development, placement-supportive assistance for graduates of the program; will disseminate the final report among employers, unions, schools, and training projects; and will develop adaptations of the nontraditional model for the use of particular institutions and population subgroups.

Given the need for continuity in the completion of these follow-up services to the Nontraditional Occupations Training Program, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Public Employment Program

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising in the City Record, and to amend a contract with the Salvation Army, 407 Shawmut Avenue, Boston, Mass., to increase the number of CETA Public Service Employment (PSE) participants in the Harbor Light Center Program by one to eight and to provide for a modest general salary increase in four of the work positions for the remainder of the contract.

This amendment for $5,760 will raise the total award to an amount not to exceed $62,000. The contract will be effective from August 15, 1977, through August 14, 1978. Funds for the operation of the contract will be provided through a grant from the federal government under Title VIB of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973, P.L. 93-203.

In order to maintain continuity in operating programs and to provide for reasonable, market-level wages, it is my opinion that no useful purpose be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

HEALTH AND HOSPITALS DEPARTMENT

Drug Level Testing

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I request your Honor's permission to amend the award letter dated August 2, 1977, and approved by your Honor on September 8, 1977, renewing without advertising the city's contract with Paul Friedman, M.D., Children's Hospital Medical Center, 300 Longwood Avenue, Boston, Mass. 02115, for the performance of theophylline level, aminophylline level, and slophylline level-testing, during the period July 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $16,000.

As Dr. Friedman is not authorized to sign a contract on behalf of Children's Hospital Medical Center, this amendment is necessary to insert the correct legal name of the contracting party. This shall be accomplished by striking the name and title "Paul Friedman, M.D." from line three of paragraph one, line one of paragraph two, and line two of paragraph three, and inserting in the latter two places the name "Children's Hospital Medical Center."

This amendment is also necessary to correct a clerical error which caused the cost of the slophylline-level test to be listed at $30 instead of at $16. In making this correction, the amendment shall further change the unit cost schedule to reflect the institution of a new price list by Children's Hospital for these tests which was not available at the time for the request for contract. This shall be done by striking lines three, four, and five of paragraph two of the letter, which read as follows:

"Theophylline Level, $16; Aminophylline Level, $16; Slophylline Level, $30; and by inserting in place thereof the following: "(a) for the period July 1, 1977, through September 30, 1977: Theophylline Level, $16; Aminophylline Level, $16; Slophylline Level, $16; and

(b) for the period October 1, 1977, through December 1, 1977: Theophylline Level, $17.50; Aminophylline Level, $17.50; Slophylline Level, $17.50."

As this increase in rates makes it more costly to have the tests done at Children's Hospital Medical Center, this amendment changes the original contract period by striking the following from line five of paragraph one:

"for the period July 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978."

and by inserting in place thereof the following: "for the period July 1, 1977, through December 1, 1977."

Accordingly, this statement shall also reduce the total amount of the contract from the original amount by striking the following from line six of paragraph one:

"sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000)."

and by inserting in place thereof the following: "eight thousand seven hundred fifty dollars ($8,750)."

Inasmuch as this amendment does not change the services provided, and as it substantially decreases the city's total liability thereunder, your Honor's permission is respectfully requested to amend the original letter of award under the terms and conditions stated above.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.

Plowing, etc.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend without advertising, the city's contract with Brennick Construction Co., Inc., 17 Harcourt Street, Boston, Mass. 02116, for providing plowing and removal of snow from Boston City Hospital Complex and Long Island Chronic Disease Division, for the period November 1, 1977, through March 31, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $10,000.

This amendment will increase the cost of the contract by $15,000 to a total amount not to exceed $25,000, and has been occasioned by the severe and unforeseen precipitation during the month of February, 1978, causing an unprecedented snow accumulation, which created a state of emergency in the area covered by the aforesaid contract.

Therefore, in view of the above, and because the price, measured by the work to be done, in my opinion is reasonable, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend this contract under the terms and conditions stated above.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.

Motor Vehicle Repairs

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend the city's contract, as amended, for the repair of ambulances and other motor vehicles with Columbus Auto Body, Inc.; Woodward's Spring Shop, Inc.; World Wide Motors; Bay State Auto Spring Mfg. Co., Inc.; Adams Automatic Transmissions; S. E. Churchill & Sons, Inc.; Salami Truck Center; Pier Transmission; and Miller & Seddon, Inc., for the period July 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $32,000.

This amendment shall increase the number of participating contractors from the aforementioned nine to eleven by adding the following companies:

General Motors Corp. Truck & Coach, 77 Guest Street, Boston, Mass. 02135; Elbery Motor Corporation, 360 River Street, Cambridge, Mass. 02139.

Adding these contractors will allow the department to choose from among eleven separate automotive repair facilities when sending ambulances and other vehicles for repairs. I believe that this greater range of choice will permit repairs to be completed more quickly and may result in substantial savings to the department by allowing us to select the contractor offering the lowest price.

This amendment shall also increase the city's liability thereunder by $42,000, extending the total cost of this contract to an amount not to exceed $74,000, and is occasioned by the necessity to provide funds to cover existing and anticipated contractual expenditures, caused in part by the substantial increase in the ambulance fleet. These expenditures averaged $6,500 a month during the first six months of this contract and are expected to average $7,000 a month for the remaining six months thereunder.

In view of the above and because the cost to the city, in my opinion, is reasonable, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend the contract under the terms and conditions stated above.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.

MAYOR'S OFFICE
Property Rehabilitation

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request your permission to amend a contract agreement currently budgeted at $138,400 and effective for the period May 14, 1976, through June 30, 1978, with Urban Edge Real Estate of Greater Boston, Incorporated, a nonprofit corporation located at 620 Centre Street, Jamaica Plain, Mass.

Under the terms of the amendment agreement, the original contract amount will be increased by $35,000 to a total contract amount not to exceed $173,400. This is a reasonable cost for the services. Also, under the terms of the amendment agreement, the original term of the contract will be extended to December 31, 1978. The additional funding allowance will be used to continue for six additional months the operations of the Jamaica Plain Vacant House Program, a Homesteading-sponsored activity which is providing for the rehabilitation of twenty abandoned properties in the Jamaica Plain neighborhood. This program is also funded by a matching grant, in addition to the amount above from the Urban Reinvestment Task Force, which is sponsored by the Federal Home Loan Bank Board. Urban Edge Real Estate of Greater Boston, Inc. is qualified to perform these services. Payment for this amendment will be made from the Community Development Block Grant.

Due to the professional nature of the services to be performed under the amendment agreement, and to the fact that Urban Edge has been performing these services in an acceptable manner to date, it is my determination that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Sincerely,
Andrew M. Olins,
Special Assistant to the Mayor.

Recreational Program

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby respectfully request permission to amend a contract with the Almont Park and Recreational Council, Inc., located at 10 Fairway Street, Mattapan, Mass.

The original amount of the contract was $40,000, and the amendment will increase the contract by $9,269.63. The total amended amount will not exceed $49,269.63. Payment for this contract will be made from the Community Development Block Grant. The period of performance of the original contract was November 1, 1976, through October 31, 1977, and will now be amended to extend through June 30, 1978.

Under the terms of the agreement, the Almont Park and Recreational Council, Inc. will continue to conduct a youth recreational program at a cost which the city feels is reasonable. The services provided shall include athletics for the boys and girls of the Mattapan community.

On the basis of Almont Park's expertise and experience to deliver services similar to those proposed for the Mattapan community, I recommend that the contract between the city and Almont Park and Recreational Council, Inc. be amended at this time. Moreover, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,
Katharine D. Kane,
Deputy Mayor.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT
Curbing Vandalism

Dear Mayor White:

On June 21, 1977, your Honor approved the award of an unadvertised contract to the Boston Foundation, Inc., One City Hall Square, Boston, Mass., for the utilization and dissemination of services to be performed under the Naiton Science Foundation grant-funded project to develop better strategies for curbing vandalism in public recreation facilities, for the sum of $10,000.

I propose to amend this contract to change the time for completion from June 30, 1978, to July 30, 1978. This amendment is necessary to allow sufficient time for completion of the agreed level of effort.

Therefore, I respectfully request your authorization to amend the contract as outlined above.

Very truly yours,
Alan M. Austin,
Commissioner.

Protection Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On October 27, 1977, your Honor approved the award of a publicly advertised contract for guard and protection services at Parks and Recreation facilities at various locations in the City of Boston, to the lowest, eligible, responsible bidder, Bonded Security, 8 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass., for the approximate sum of $21,475.

I propose to amend this contract to change the time for completion from June 30, 1978, to January 6, 1978, and to change the contract sum from approximately $21,475, to the sum of $7,759.70. The contract as advertised for bids required a performance bond in the sum of $5,000. As all work to be performed under this contract has been completed, I intend to include in the amendment the deletion of the requirement of a performance bond and to substitute in place thereof a certified check in the sum of $1.

This amendment is necessary as there are insufficient funds in our budget to encumber the original contract sum. The amendment will allow us to execute the contract and to make payment to the contractor for work performed.

Therefore, I respectfully request your authorization to amend the contract for guard and protection services at Parks and Recreation facilities at various locations in the City of Boston as outlined above.

Very truly yours,
Alan M. Austin,
Commissioner.

POLICE DEPARTMENT
Electronic Repairs

Dear Mayor White:

Enclosed is a copy of your original approval of an award of a contract to B&D Auto Electric Company, Inc., 46 Arsenal Street, Watertown, Mass., for performing electronic repairs to Police Department motor vehicles.

During the fiscal year the Police Department has found it necessary to expend more funds than originally estimated for the performance of the work under this contract. This has been necessary because of the severe winter weather and because we have retained motor vehicles beyond the time when they would normally have been replaced by new equipment because of a delay in purchasing new motor vehicles.

Therefore, in order to complete electronic repairs to department motor vehicles for the remainder of this fiscal year, I respectfully request that the total amount of the contract awarded to B&D Auto Electric Company, Inc., be increased from $8,000, to an amount not to exceed the $12,000.

Very truly yours,
Joseph M. Jordan,
Police Commissioner.

PROGRAM DEVELOPMENT
Bibliographical Computer

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to amend the letter of award to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), Cambridge, Mass., dated December 13, 1977, and approved by you January 4, 1978. That letter awarded to MIT a contract for professional services in relation to and to be paid from HUD Grant H-2830-RG. This grant has been awarded to the city's Office of Program Development to study the neighborhood resource allocation practices employed in major United States jurisdictions. Under the terms of the contract, MIT will conduct a survey, review, and analysis of published literature and other material relevant to the study of neighborhood resource allocation practices. Compensation to MIT was not to exceed $7,726.

However, the use of a computer bibliographical service was inadvertently omitted from the original budget. This service is a critical element of the work to be performed by MIT and costs $100. I respectfully request therefore that you approve an amendment to this contract in the amount of $100, thereby increasing the total cost of the contract from $7,726 to an amount not to exceed $7,826.

Very truly yours,
Wayne McNamara,
Acting Director.

Engineering Services, etc.

Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a recent vote of the Public Facilities Commission, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to enter into an agreement with CDI Corporation, formerly Comprehensive Designers, Inc., a Pennsylvania corporation registered to do business in Massachusetts, with local offices at 197 First Avenue, Needham, Mass., amending a contract executed November 14, 1977, to provide general engineering services and technical assistance to the Public Facilities Department in preparing multiple plans and specifications for use in carrying out a part of the alteration and repair program and emergency work performed during the period July 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978, so as to increase the amount authorized from $15,000 to $20,000.

This requested increase of $5,000 is necessary to cover additional work not planned or contemplated when the contract was originally proposed.

Due to the provisions of the law to the effect that executed and existing city contracts may be altered only by a writing signed by all parties thereto, including the Mayor and bonding company, public advertising in this instance would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Victor E. Hagan,
Acting Director.

SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

Typewriters

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On February 21, 1978, this department awarded a contract to Facit-Addo, Inc., Norfolk Office Equipment Co., for furnishing typewriters to various schools, for equipment to be delivered no later than January 5, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $156,090.40.

Your authorization is requested to amend this contract by exchanging the fifty manual typewriters for South Boston High School ordered in error, for fifty electric typewriters. The additional price difference will be $9,110. This will change the total amount of the contract from $156,090.40, to $165,200.40. All other terms and conditions of the contract remain in full force and effect.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Theater Program

Dear Mayor White:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I request your written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement and to award to Little Flags Theatre Company, the following amendments to a contract for participation in the development of educational programs at Ellis and O'Donnell Schools:

Change termination date from February 28, to May 31, 1978.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the Board of Superintendents, and has been approved by the School Committee, that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

Yours truly,
Edward Winter,
Secretary.

Office Supplies

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On April 21, 1978, this department sent you a letter for your authorization on a contract for New England School Supply, for furnishing of office supplies, etc., which opened on Thursday, December 29, 1977.

The amount of the contract was $4,499.50. Bid prices were guaranteed for sixty days, and more than sixty days were required to execute the contract, therefore, the amount of the contract will be increased by 4 percent. The total of the contract will now be $4,679.48. All other terms and conditions of the contract will remain in full force and effect.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Bus Service

Dear Mayor White:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I request your authorization to amend the contract, without public advertising, with Carroll Bus Company, to provide additional service.

After having completed the three years of our contract with William S. Carroll, Inc., we find that transportation has been performed which was not included in the contract. This transportation which has been verified, was necessary for the chapter 636 and other programs. I have determined that the cost of the service is reasonable. Because of the special nature of transportation service to the School Committee, it is requested that terms of this amendment be approved.

Total cost of the amendment is not to exceed $13,900.

Very truly yours,
Edward Winter,
Secretary.

Stairway Repairs

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On September 9, 1977, you approved of my action in awarding a contract for rebuilding and repairing the exterior stairway, etc. at the Mary E. Curley School in Jamaica Plain, to the F. DiCenzo & Sons, Inc. of Medford, Mass., in the amount of $5,500.

When the granite steps were removed from the middle entrance to the Assembly Hall on Pershing Road it was found that the piers and parts of the walls were disintegrated and in a dangerous condition.

The rebuilding of the top parts of the wall was part of the original contract. However, from an engineering standpoint, it was my considered judgment that the replacement of the granite steps should be with reinforced concrete steps supported on the side buttress walls as well as the intermediate walls. There is an open space under this area of about 30 feet in depth. This change will provide for a permanent staircase free from maintenance and also provide the safety changes required.

The cost of the new concrete steps is $5,500, less an allowance of $1,000 for not reinstalling and pointing the granite steps in this area. The net difference is $4,500, which I have determined to be a reasonable cost.

I, therefore, request your approval of my action to amend the original contract from $5,500, to $10,000.

Respectfully submitted,
Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.

Skills Development Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I am writing this letter on behalf of the School Committee, and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, to request your authorization for a first amendment of the contract between the committee and Mr. Mark Dorfman, project director for the Occupational Skill Development Centers at Hyde Park and Dorchester High Schools. These programs serve secondary education students in prototype 502.4 programs which have moderate to severe retardation.

Mr. Dorfman's monthly salary is to continue at the same rate of pay ($2,181.82), as per his contract with a figure $500 to cover in-state, travel expenses as they pertain to the Occupational Skill Development Program.

1. Total salary payment to Mr. Dorfman for the period March 1, 1978, through June 30, 1978, will total $8,727.28; 2. Total travel not to exceed $500.

It is the determination of the School Committee that in the interest of continuity and completion of this special education project, the amendment be granted.

Very truly yours,
Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Office Personnel

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On November 28, 1977, this department awarded a contract to Diversified Business Services, Inc., d/b/a Office Specialists for General Office Help, during the period August 15, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $40,000.

Your authorization is requested to amend this contract by including rate schedules for skills that have been provided by the contractor but were not included in the terms of the original contract. The rate schedule will include such items as secretaries, super typists, senior typists, and CRT operators. I have determined that the rate schedule is reasonable for the services to be provided. Under the terms of this amendment, the cost of the contract shall remain $40,000.

Very truly yours,
Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Building Repairs and Alterations

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I request your approval of my action to amend the contract with the M. J. Flaherty Co., 430 Centre Street, Newton, Mass., for modernization of plumbing facilities and heating plant in the East Boston High School, 86 White Street, East Boston, Mass., from $591,533, to $596,058.

This amendment becomes necessary because on March 30, 1978, subbids were received for modernization of plumbing facilities and heating plant in the East Boston High School. All subbids were rejected for masonry and an allowance of $14,000, was carried by all of the general contractors except the M. J. Flaherty Co., which carried an allowance of $12,000 for masonry work. Invited subbids were sent out to five contractors and the prices received were as follows:

New England Boiler Setting Co., Inc., $16,525, may be used by any general bidder except Bick-Com Construction Co.; Folan Waterproofing & Construction Co., $17,975; Winthrop Construction Co., Inc., $17,990, may only be used by Bick-Com Corp.; John Palumbo Co., $23,800; J. T. Scully Construction Corp., $28,000.

The lowest acceptable bidder was submitted by New England Boiler Setting Co., Inc., 26 Garden Street, Arlington, Mass., in the amount of $16,525. The price of the general contractor was amended from $591,533, to $596,058, which reflects a difference of $4,525.

Respectfully submitted,
Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I request your approval of my action to amend the contract with the Major Construction & Management Corp., 12 Day Street, Lynn, Mass., for alterations at various high schools, advertised June 27, 1977, from $92,650, to $99,455.23. You did approve of my action in awarding the contract on July 26, 1977.

In order to comply with the Department of Public Safety and the Boston Department of Health and Hospitals, Environmental Health Services, it was necessary to install additional plumbing, gas valves, and do necessary electrical work with same and to do other miscellaneous plumbing and electrical work which was not called for in the original contract.

The increase of $6,805.23 for the above work is reasonable.

Respectfully submitted,
Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On November 10, 1977, this department awarded a contract approved by your Honor, without public advertising, to Daniel McKillop, during the period October 17, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $5,000, for the provision of administrative services at the Delinquent Tax Unit. More work, however, is necessary to perform these services than anticipated originally.

Your authorization is requested to amend this contract by $400. The cost of the contract, as amended, shall not exceed $5,400, which is, in my opinion, a reasonable cost.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed and Mr. Killop's experience in providing said services, the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bid.

Very truly yours,
James V. Young,
Collector-Treasurer.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Hatchett, during the period October 17, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $5,000, for the provision of administrative services at the Delinquent Tax Unit. More work, however, is necessary to perform these services than anticipated originally.

Your authorization is requested to amend this contract by $400. The cost of the contract, as amended, shall not exceed $5,400, which is, in my opinion, a reasonable cost.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed and Mr. Hatchett's experience in providing said services, the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bid.

Very truly yours,
James V. Young,
Collector-Treasurer.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On November 10, 1977, this department awarded a contract approved by your Honor, without public advertising, to Donald Madden, during the period October 17, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $5,000, for the provision of administrative services at the Delinquent Tax Unit. More work, however, is necessary to perform these services than anticipated originally.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed and Mr. Madden's experience in providing said services, the public interest would not be served by public advertising for bid.

Very truly yours,
James V. Young,
Collector-Treasurer.

Financial Printing

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your approval to amend the contract awarded to Pandick Press, New England, 230 Congress Street, Boston, Mass. 02129, for services as the financial printer of the city's official statement and related material necessary to the issuance of General Obligation Bonds and Revenue Anticipation Notes for the 1978 fiscal year. Said contract was approved in amount not to exceed $52,000 on August 10, 1977.

At the time of contract approval it was impossible to anticipate future borrowing for the City of Boston exactly and the requested amount was based on previous year's activity. Additional charges that were required to be made in the official statement that were not anticipated resulted in an additional expense of $5,555.85.

It is, therefore, respectfully requested that you approve this amount of $5,555.85, as an amendment to the original contract in effect from July 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978.

Very truly yours,
James V. Young,
Collector-Treasurer.

SUFFOLK COUNTY
District Attorney's Office

Riverview Drive, Totowa, New Jersey, during the period of January 1, 1977, through December 31, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $4,800, to provide this office with a maintenance contract for the automated system.

Please find attached a copy of memo stating the needs of the automated management system from our computer consultant as well as bills for some of the equipment we purchased to correct this problem per the memo's recommendation.

Your authorization is requested to amend this contract by increasing the limit of the contract from $4,800, to $5,600, because additional parts became necessary as part of the repairs.

Very truly yours,
Garrett H. Byrne,
District Attorney.

VI. REVISED FORM 19

In order to improve the preventative maintenance program for fire apparatus in the Boston Fire Department, a revised Form 19 is being issued with this order. The objective of this revised form is:

1. Better and increased maintenance at the company level; 2. a more detailed reporting of deficiencies noted at the company level; 3. a more responsible reporting system.

Most items appearing on the revised Form 19 are self-explanatory and the answer to each item should therefore reflect the condition of said item, i.e., good, poor, loose, worn, noisy, etc. (When an item is reported to be defective an explanation must be noted under "Remarks.") An answer of O.K. will not be used for any item.

Item — Radiator — this is a major problem and must be carefully checked to see that no debris or foreign matter is lodged in the air fins which surround the cooling cores of the radiator. A visual inspection of the radiator is necessary, both front and rear, to ascertain that the radiator is free of debris, etc.

Item — Greased — attention of company commanders is called to S. O. 15 dated February 23, 1971.

All oils and hydraulic fluids used in any apparatus will be those oils and hydraulic fluids recommended by the Maintenance Division only.

Chapter 16 of the current Rules and Regulations is to be used as a guide for apparatus chauffeurs and company officers in ascertaining that the apparatus assigned to the company is in proper operating condition.

VII. COMPANY DRILLS

Officers conducting company drills during the period September 1 to September 15, 1978, shall use S.O.P. 10 "Operating XL98 Multiple-Purpose Saws" and also review pages 53 to 65 in the Emergency Medical Services Handbook.

VIII. CONGRATULATIONS

Adding some punch to the lineup was Fire Fighter Peter Moran of Ladder Company 6.

As recipients of first prize for raising the most money, $992, the team was awarded a dinner at Victoria Station. Top Individual prize was awarded to Arlene Salter of the Payroll Office. However, the biggest winners are the many handicapped children in the area who will be helped because of the involvement of these members.

The team wants to thank Local 718, members of the department, and their friends for their help in making this possible.

My congratulations to the team and to all sponsors for their involvement in a most worthy cause.

IX. HAZARDOUS BUILDINGS

The building at 9 Pembroke Street, District 4 is in hazardous condition due to previous fires and other unrelated causes.

In case of another fire in this building, members shall use extreme caution. This building has been posted.

X. HIGH COMMENDATION

On August 17, 1978, at approximately 1105 hours, Fire Lieut. James J. Solletti of Engine Company 1, while off duty, was stopped at a traffic light opposite 1826 Dorchester Avenue. Lieut. Solletti observed the roof of the Ashmont Creamery, 1826 Dorchester Avenue, suddenly collapse due to demolition work in the adjacent building.

Lieut. Solletti had observed three small boys enter the store just prior to the collapse and, without regard for his own personal safety, hastened to enter the collapsed structure to assist any victims present. He found the three small boys and the owners of the store, Albert and Estelle Winn, and assisted them to safety.

This act was performed by Lieut. Solletti with half of the roof timbers collapsed on the grocery shelves, a heavy pall of plaster dust in the air, and the remaining half of the roof in imminent danger of collapsing.

The Fire Commissioner is pleased to highly commend Fire Lieut. Solletti for his actions at great personal risk, and his case is referred to the Board of Merit for further consideration.

Each copy of the proposal shall be properly filled out, signed, and enclosed in a sealed envelope, plainly marked with the name of the bidder and the description of the work bid upon. One copy shall be filed at the office of the Commissioner, designated above, and the other copy shall be filed at the office of the City Auditor, City Hall, Boston, Mass. The bid deposit shall be in a separate envelope, plainly marked. Bid bonds will not be accepted.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including, without limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subbidders) and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity, anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974 and Executive Order 11246. The contractor's attention is called to the "Equal Opportunity Clause" and "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority and female participation, expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered areas (see pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables).

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered areas.

As used in this notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Dedham, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Stoneham, Wakefield, Westwood, Winthrop, Winchester, Woburn, and the Islands of Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in the 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required to meet the goals established for the geographical area whether the contract is to be performed.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects.

The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order, and the regulations in 41 CFR part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total workhours performed.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization.

Pursuant to the minority participation section of the City of Boston contract, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. At the request of the city, one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

No bidder may withdraw his bid within thirty days after the actual date of the opening thereof. MAYOR ANNOUNCES BOSTON'S TAX RATE

Mayor Kevin H. White appeared on Boston's television stations Monday evening, September 25. His text follows:

Good evening. I want to thank all the television and radio stations in Boston for allowing me to speak to you tonight and to tell you that this year the Boston tax rate will NOT go up. Next year the Boston tax rate will NOT go up — and last year the tax rate DID NOT GO UP.

So, for three straight years the tax rate has NOT, is NOT, and will NOT go up in this city.

This is the first time in the history of this city that a mayor announces a two-year tax rate for this year and next year.

What does it mean to announce a two-year tax rate?

First — It means you can plan ahead — a trip, a vacation, your child's education — or save money.

Second — It means if you're a homeowner and the value of your house goes up, that value will not be eaten up by taxes.

Third — It means if you're a rent-payer, the landlord should not increase your rent this year or next year because of a tax increase — there'll be none.

Most of all it means the Boston tax rate is more stable than most of the towns around Boston and we are in better fiscal shape than most big cities in the country.

How was this done? I have no magic wand and I don't tolerate a phony tax rate.

We stopped the tax rate from going up in this city because of three factors:

— One, we cut the city payroll without cutting important city services

— Two, I fought for more federal money.

— Three, we received more state aid this year.

I can say tonight with certainty that this city has entered a new era — you can see it, you can feel it, and you can sense it.

All the facts (not speeches) all the FACTS favor optimism about our future.

For twenty years we lost population. Now we're gaining.

For twenty years we lost jobs. Now we're producing them.

For over twenty years our retail businesses were sagging, now they're way up — Quincy Market alone pulls in 30,000 customers a day.

We'll see new hotels in Copley Square and South Station. The theater district will be rebuilt and our neighborhoods are reaping the benefits of sixty million new federal dollars from the Boston Plan.

I do not say all of this to pretend that Boston has no problems, the residents no gripes, or the mayor no faults — I have many faults, I hear your gripes, and we have many problems.

But what I am saying is that there is a new genuine rebirth of confidence in the people of this city.

The rebirth of confidence stands in stark contrast to the bleak outlook of a few years ago when every disagreement was a crisis, every squabble a confrontation, and every hurdle an insurmountable barrier.

But the rebirth I have described to you tonight is a fundamental change of attitude in and about this city.

So, while problems remain, we view them not with fatalism, but with hope.

Boston now has the potential for a stable and prosperous future. In that future there will be battles to wage and questions to be answered, like:

Yes, we can stop 100 percent valuation. We MUST stop 100 percent valuation this November or risk losing our homes.

No, we could not lower the tax rate without risk of its going up next year, and I won't cut services people need.

Yes, we will get the federal court to give us control of our schools again and improve education.

But, for tonight, it is enough to know that Boston has entered a new era in her history, an era in which a two-year tax rate will eliminate uncertainty, stimulate investment, and give us greater stability than we have known for a long time in this city.

We are now standing on solid ground.

But, we should heed Charles Lamb's warning of over a century ago: "The city is the flower of civilization. It gives to men the means to make their lives expressive. It offers a field of battle, and it could be made a livable place, if its sons would stand and fight for it instead of running away."

We must continue our fight to improve this city. Never have our chances to succeed been better.

Thank you and good night.

BOSTON: STRENGTH, HISTORY, CITY OF PROGRESS

Text of Mayor Kevin H. White's address to business and community leaders given at the Charlestown Navy Yard, Monday, September 25.

First of all, I want to thank you for coming today. This production has a purpose — born of my belief that this city has made more progress in the last two years than any of us here today realize. Only two years ago many of us were gathered together — also at high noon — but not at a sit-down luncheon, we were marching up Beacon Street, 25,000 strong, to protest the violence and racial tension that were tearing this city apart.

Then, and for the whole first half of the 1970s, pessimism about the future of the American cities was in vogue. By 1974, Boston had realized the very worst of our fears.

We had to absorb busing, a recession, dramatic cutbacks in federal funds, rising prices — and beyond all else, our financial structure, like that of most other major cities, was jeopardized by the impending collapse of New York.

To listen to Jim Young or Mrs. Kane today is to know that in an incredibly short period, we have come an incredibly long way.

We have every right to be proud.

But it may be characteristic of Bostonians that we are the last to realize when things are going well. Other cities have to sell themselves to the rest of the country. While the rest of the country recognizes the dramatic turnaround we have made, what we have to do is sell Boston to ourselves.

It is about time — for we can say today that we have enormous new strength and vitality in this city, and each of you has contributed — and to each of you I am grateful.

We are in a new era. You can see it! You can feel it! You can sense it!

It is in the market (Quincy Market), the waterfront, the retail district — but also in the new developments — in the neighborhoods as well.

Downtown, there are three dramatic changes of which we can be absolutely certain:

— The Copley Square Air Rights Complex

— The South Station Center Complex

— And this Navy Yard, where we are sitting today, which will in my opinion be the most exciting urban development anywhere in the country by the end of this decade.

They are all in the advanced stages of negotiation today.

In addition to those, there are realistic prospects for three new hotels — one in Dewey Square, one in Post Office Square, and the addition to the Ritz.

In two and a half years, I promise you the theater district will be as handsome as Quincy Market and will be second only to New York in legitimate theater. That is not a boast — but a certainty supported by past performance of this administration.

As for the neighborhoods, no, they are not Camelot. But they are alive, many attractive, and all active. (In an old campaign speech I used to say that this administration has built more schools, has built more parks, and has lit more ballfields, paved more streets, planted more trees in five years than in any similar period of history of this city.) But that's in the past. The past is only prologue. In the last few years alone, we have built, with little fanfare, 3,000 new elderly units, and have brought $60 million of new federal funds to the City of Boston under the Boston Plan, and we have fixed thousands of homes through the HIP program.

Now, I do not say all of this to pretend that Boston has no problems, the residents have no gripes or the Mayor has no faults. I have many faults, I hear a lot of gripes, and we have many problems. What I am saying is that there is a new, genuine rebirth of confidence in the people of this city. This rebirth of confidence, I remind you, stands in stark contrast to the bleak outlook of the days of 1975, when every disagreement was a crisis, every squabble a confrontation, and every hurdle a seemingly insurmountable barrier.

The two most important building blocks to this progress have been a commitment which we made and kept, as business leaders know, to the business community to provide better management in city government. We reduced the municipal payroll by $20 million in the last four years — and have kept our promise to the neighborhoods not only to maintain, but in many cases, improve city services.

But one of the most convincing indicators to Boston's commitment to stability in the neighborhoods, as well as downtown, has been the burden of the tax rate. Because memory is short, and I have pride, do I ever want to forget from 1972 to 1976 Boston was virtually alone among major cities in not raising the tax rate a single penny? With inflation what it was, this was tantamount to a yearly tax reduction. With the added burdens cities were shouldering during those years, I say without embarrassment, the accomplishment was a minor miracle.

Admittedly, our low point was in 1976. We were forced to raise the rate, and substantially, because of the cost of busing, which showed a tremendous increase in the school budget and police overtime.

But in 1977, we began again to stabilize the tax rate. Now this year, due to people like Ed Sullivan and Jim Young, and an expanded fiscal staff at City Hall, we will for the first time in the history of this city announce at one time, at this moment, a tax rate for two years.

This year the Boston tax rate will not go up, next year the Boston tax rate will not go up, and last year, it did not go up.

For three straight years the tax rate has not, is not, and will not go up in this city. With this announcement, it is my hope that a two-year tax rate will eliminate uncertainty in the neighborhoods and stimulate investment in downtown.

All I ask of you today, hopefully, is to join me in a spirit of advancement that will lead Boston through the decade ahead. It is impossible even to guess at what Boston will look like in 1988. But if you don't believe me, just put yourself back to 1968. We were as landlocked as Switzerland. If you stood in Faneuil Hall in 1968, you wouldn't have been bitten by the spending bug — more likely you'd have been bitten by a rodent instead.

No one could have come close to predicting the changes that would take place before 1978 in this city. While we don't know how Boston will change in the next ten years, we do know that we will have problems to face. Our view of those problems will have changed.

We view our problems now, not with the fatalism of the past, but with great hope for the future. We are more confident now, regardless of how any particular problem is solved in the future, that Boston as a big city today is stable and has great potential.

Finally we know one last thing. That Boston will enter a new era in her history. In the era to come, we will be able to plan for our future without fear — without having our attention diverted to daily persistent crises. We will free ourselves from the pessimism of an earlier age and look forward to the future with hope.

Most important, we will be able to reaffirm a promise found in the oath of the young of ancient Athens: That "We will transmit this city not only not less, but greater and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us." It is my pleasure to report to you today that if recent progress is any indication, the Boston we give to our children will be the happiest, most beautiful, most prosperous Boston in three and a half centuries. I think you will agree with me, that there can be no sweeter legacy.

Thank you.

MORE SUPPORT FOR CLASSIFICATION AMENDMENT

Mayor Kevin H. White said recently that taxi operators and major taxi companies in Boston have agreed to support passage of the proposed classification amendment, Question 1 on the November ballot.

The Mayor addressed taxi operators at a mid-day "Taxi Rally," Sept. 20, on City Hall Plaza in support of Question 1.

Approval of the ballot question would preclude major property tax increases in Boston and across Massachusetts from implementation of 100 percent valuation by allowing residential property to be assessed lower than business and industrial properties.

The Mayor asked operators to "talk up" support for Question 1 with their fares and to work in their neighborhoods for passage of the amendment.

He asked taxi company owners to encourage employees to vote for Question 1 and to allow bumper stickers on their fleets of vehicles until the November election.

"If there's anyone with a good sense of what people are talking about in the city," Mayor White said, "it's cab drivers. So I appreciate your cooperation.

"It's very important that you and your families and your employers work with me on Question 1 to stop 100 percent valuation in the city and across the state.

"It's a tough fight—one that big business will fight us tooth and nail on—but we have to win.

"Question 1 must be approved on the November ballot. The alternative is unacceptable."

Companies represented by taxis at the rally included Checker Taxi Co.; Boston Cab Co.; Red and White Cab Co.; Town Taxi Co.; ITOA (Independent Taxi Operators Assn.); and Yellow Cab Corporation.

MAYOR ANNOUNCES SUPPORT OF SMALL MERCHANTS FOR QUESTION ONE

Mayor Kevin H. White, on September 21, announced that representatives of small merchants in Boston's neighborhoods have joined in the fight against 100 percent valuation.

Mayor White called the support of the small businessmen to the Citywide Neighborhood Committee for Classification "one of the most significant events yet in the fight against 100 percent valuation

"Now I know that small businessmen don't have the resources or the power of the larger corporations," Mayor White said.

"But to me, having them join with our neighborhood committee is the best news yet, because it means there is a spirit in the business community on this issue.

"It means that the people in this city's neighborhoods stand in unified support of the need to stop 100 percent.

"It means, also that small merchants realize that 100 percent would take a devastating toll on the strength of neighborhoods in which they are living."

About Twenty-five merchants from Boston's neighborhoods pledged their support to the Mayor, and announced plans to raise money for Question 1.

Stuart Rosenberg, chairman of the Citywide Neighborhood Committee and chairman of the Matapan Board of Trade, said the kickoff fund-raiser started September 26 at the Faneuil Hall Rotunda.

Rosenberg said, "We are here today in support of the Mayor in his effort to lead the fight against 100 percent valuation. If Question 1 is not passed, Boston's homeowners, renters, and small businessmen will suffer greatly.

Added Rosenberg, "Corporate businesses have raised money to oppose the Classification Amendment. We may not match that amount, but we are going to fight. Every penny we raise will be use for public information materials which will let the public know what the passage of Question 1 will mean to every citizen in the City of Boston.

BUSINESS OWNERS: BE CAUTIOUS

Albert J. Prendergast, district director of the Small Business Administration's Boston Office, strongly cautions Massachusetts's business owners and managers to be aware of sophisticated con artists.

Among the common types of schemes designed to bilk companies of cash or other assets are:

1. Mass mailing of phony invoices in which companies are billed for services never performed;
2. operators posing as loan specialists claiming to have inside pull at the Small Business Administration;
3. fraudulent telephone solicitors offering alleged government surplus property at distress prices.

Director Prendergast said that his office has received complaints recently from victims of these flim flam telephone callers. The caller usually says that he is associated with the SBA. He purports to be in possession of surplus property such as pens, pencils, and magic markers. He then states that the small business being called has been "chosen" as a firm eligible to buy these supplies at sharply reduced prices.

These "bargains" are not bargains. Prices are usually higher than average market prices. Business people should be aware that the federal government never sells surplus property through telephone sales.

MEMORIAL PLANNED FOR "JAMES MICHAEL"

The Boston City Council recently voted unanimously to approve the funding of a $65,000 memorial honoring the memory of former Massachusetts Governor and four-time Mayor of Boston, James Michael Curley.

Expenses for the memorial will be excerpted from the Robert Ingersoll Browne Fund ($1.4 million) given to the City of Boston to be used for various projects on Boston's streets.

LABOR DEPARTMENT RATES HUB'S EEPA A1

Mayor Kevin H. White recently announced that, for the second year in a row, the United States Department of Labor has given the city's job-training program the highest rating possible.

In its annual assessment letter to the Mayor concerning the city's CETA programs, the Labor Department praised the city's Employment and Economic Policy Administration (EEPA), which took over management of all of Boston's CETA programs one year ago.

Mayor White said, "In the last year, we have made very substantial progress in expanding our ability to meet the needs of the city's unemployed. We expect to make even greater progress in the future."

"You have a fine staff and a very capable administrator who deserves congratulations and recognition," the Labor Department told Mayor White.

The Labor Department cited EEPA's "notable success" in channelling additional federal employment and training funds to Boston unemployed and economically disadvantaged residents. EEPA received special attention for obtaining funds to start Project YES and successfully competing for other special grants, allowing it to expand its programs for the city's jobless veterans and others seeking job training.

In its assessment, the Labor Department did note that EEPA's public service jobs program had not reached certain target groups as planned, and also identified problems in EEPA's procedures for monitoring compliance with equal opportunity goals.

However, the department noted that, "We believe that the EEPA staff, together with the resources of this office, as appropriate, can resolve any outstanding issues to our satisfaction in no more than a few weeks or months."

The Department of Labor is required by law to perform an annual assessment of each city's CETA activities before taking action on applications for new funding.

MAYOR URGES: ESTABLISH PARKING VIOLATIONS BUREAU

Mayor Kevin H. White, on September 16, urged the City Council to pass a home rule petition, currently before it, calling for the establishment of a Parking Violations Bureau in Boston.

The new bureau would eliminate the current bureaucratic nightmare by streamlining Boston's system of collection of fines.

Currently some six agencies, eight courts, and three levels of municipal government are involved in the process.

The petition, if passed, would delegate all responsibility for the processing and collection of fines to the new bureau.

It is estimated that the streamlined system will generate an additional $5 million in revenue for the city.

The city is currently owed more than $40 million for outstanding traffic violations.

"The new system, together with the imposition of a $5 surcharge for all overdue parking violations and a more aggressive booting program, will greatly increase the amount of revenue owed to the city and at the same time discourage illegal parking," said Mayor White. "In the long run the city can look forward to fewer violations and safer streets."

Boston's system is modeled after New York City's system. Boston, Washington D.C., and Philadelphia are also currently implementing similar systems.

CONTRACTS AWARDED WITHOUT ADVERTISING

The Mayor has approved the awarding of contracts without public advertising, based on the following communications:

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES DEPARTMENT Computer System

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your approval to renew, without advertising, an existing contract to Johnson Systems, Incorporated, 8400 Westpark Drive, McLean, Virginia 22101, for the rental of a proprietary computer program for the period beginning July 1, 1978, and ending June 30, 1979.

The total cost of this product will not exceed $18,750.

Johnson Systems, Incorporated is the exclusive supplier of the product called the OS Job Accounting Report System. This product is necessary for the accurate accounting to user departments of all work done on the city's computer system. As Johnson Systems Inc. is the sole supplier of this program product and because of the specialized nature of the equipment to be leased, and the ability of the contractor to provide such equipment, it is my opinion that advertising would serve no useful purpose.

I have determined that the contract cost is reasonable for the services to be provided.

Respectfully yours,
Edward T. Sullivan,
Director.

Computer Terminals

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your approval to renew, without advertising, an existing contract to Computer Optics, Incorporated, Berkshire Industrial Park, Bethel, Connecticut 06801, for the leasing of computer terminals for the period beginning July 1, 1978, and ending June 30, 1979.

The total amount of the contract will not exceed $57,412.

The leasing of this equipment is required in order to efficiently perform the operations of the Data Processing Unit of this department. Since this is for the renewal of an existing contract for installed equipment, and because of the specialized nature of the equipment to be leased, and the ability of the contractor to provide such equipment, it is my opinion that advertising would serve no useful purpose.

I have determined that the contract cost is reasonable for the services to be provided.

Respectfully yours,
Edward T. Sullivan,
Director.

Consulting Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Keane Associates, Incorporated, a Massachusetts Corporation, data processing system designers, of 177 Milk Street, Boston, Mass.

Under the terms of this contract, Keane Associates, Incorporated will develop programs at the direction of the project leaders of three systems:

1. Parking Ticket System; 2. Retirement System; 3. Housing Inspection Department, and any other programming efforts determined by the director of Data Processing. The period of performance shall be from January 1, 1977, to June 30, 1977, at a cost not to exceed $34,550, which is, in my opinion, a reasonable price for such services. The rates for programmers will be $21 per hour and one programmer at $24 per hour.

Specifically, the work will accomplish the following tasks:

1. The Parking Ticket System will be improved to produce reports indicating the total of outstanding tickets from all jurisdictions by vehicle registration numbers and owners name. This will allow identification of major violators which will be the subject of increased enforcement efforts.

2. The Retirement System will be improved to allow on-time, updating of the information in the system. This will improve the usefulness and accuracy of the information in the system, to the benefit of the city and county employees.

3. The Housing Inspection Department System will be improved to allow on-time, updating of the information. This will improve the system's usefulness to both employees of the Housing Inspection Department and residents of the city.

In view of the involvement of Keane Associates, Incorporated in designing the original H.I.D. system and the need to develop programs for the Parking Ticket System to improve the collections of revenue for the city, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

This letter of award should have been prepared in December, 1976, prior to the work being performed, but I, with approval from the Deputy Mayor of Fiscal Affairs, started the project in January, 1977. I have no logical reason for not following the routine procedures to have the letter of award approved and the contract processed. At this late date the work was completed in the time specified and one major result was, through the reprogramming of the Parking Ticket System, to assist in the increase of over $1,000,000 in parking revenue in 1977.

The improvements to the other systems, while they did not generate increased revenues to the city, did result in substantial improvements to each system, as intended.

I respectfully ask for your approval to award this contract so that payment made be processed for Keane Associates, Incorporated.

Respectfully yours,
Edward T. Sullivan,
Director.

Personnel Division Training System

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with public bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $15,000, to Organizational Dynamics, Inc., 1085 Washington Road, Rye, New Hampshire 03870. Payment shall be made from the Community Development Block Grant Program (III).

Under the terms of the agreement, Organizational Dynamics, Inc., will provide an in-house, film-based, management and organizational development training system. The Managing for Productivity training program concentrates upon the dynamics of improving effectiveness and productivity, while at the same time, is a unique and custom-designed program for mid-level management personnel of the City of Boston. The period of performance shall be ongoing from May 3, 1978, through June 15, 1978.

The Organizational Dynamics, Inc. training program is authored and presented by George H. Labovitz, Ph.D., professor of organizational behavior at Boston University School of Management and an acclaimed speaker, author, and consultant in this field. In the interest of improving the management and productivity of the city's management personnel, I recommend that we enter into a contract with Organizational Dynamics, Inc., which is uniquely qualified to provide this type of educational management service.

Therefore, for the reason cited above, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose, and that the cost of this program is reasonable.

Sincerely,
John E. Murphy, Jr.,
Supervisor of Personnel.

Purchasing Division Sprinklers and Parts

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On August 8, 1977, bids for furnishing sprinklers and sprinkler parts to the Parks and Recreation Department were publicly opened and read in this office. Two bids were received. Samples were requested for evaluation by the Parks and Recreation Department. After testing, it was determined that the alternate equipment offered by the lower bidder, Larchmont Engineering, Inc., was not equal to that specified. To take advantage of the prices submitted on the publicly opened bid of August 8, 1977, the city would have had to accept the bid within forty-five days. It has now been eight months. During the long, testing period, the funds that would have been available for the items were exhausted and no award was made.

Funds have now been made available, but during the interim period prices have increased by approximately 9 percent at the manufacturing level. The lowest bidder meeting specifications, Miles Plumbing & Heating Co., Inc., has agreed to furnish the items at the original bid price, plus the manufacturer's level increase. Because of the long delay, the equipment is urgently needed and there is insufficient time to advertise again.

Permission is requested to award a contract, without advertising, to Miles Plumbing and Heating Co., Inc., 15 Montello Street, P. O. Box 1508, Brockton, Mass. 02403, for sprinklers and sprinkler parts in an amount not to exceed $6,658.26, net thirty days.

This company is a responsible, well-qualified company that has had many contracts with the city. It is my opinion that the prices are reasonable and that no useful purpose would be served by re-advertising.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

Image Intensifier

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your authorization is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and award a contract to Siemens Corporation, 186 Wood Avenue, South, Iselin, New Jersey 08830, for one mobile image intensifier Serial 1073; 01003 Siremobil U with housing, power supply, 7 inch Image intensifier, X-ray control, X-ray tube, Vidicon TV system with monitor and cart, at a total cost of $3,500, for use at the Boston City Hospital Division of Health and Hospitals Department. This equipment was previously leased from Siemens Corporation under a five-year lease.

In anticipation of the expiration of the lease, the Department of Health and Hospitals entered into negotiations with Siemens Corporation and agreed on a purchase price of $3,500, net.

The image intensifier is an essential piece of equipment in the operation of the Coronary Care Unit. The Siemens Corporation is a proven responsible contractor and the price is reasonable. New equipment would cost several times the $3,500 agreed on.

Respectfully yours,
Frank F. Chin,
Purchasing Agent.

AFFAIRS OF THE ELDERLY Transportation Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to an advertisement in the City Record, July 11, 1977, your Honor's written approval was requested on July 26, 1977, and granted on August 1, 1977, to award a contract to Hub Bus Lines, Inc., 755 Boylston Street, Boston, the lowest eligible and responsible bidder, for bus transportation services at various locations for the elderly, in the amount of $7,780 for the period July 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978.

Stipulated in the bid advertisement was a provision that a performance bond in the amount of $10,000 would be required of the successful bidder. Since your approval to award this contract was obtained Hub Bus Lines, Inc. has been unsuccessful in its attempts to secure bonding. They have submitted to the Commission alternatives to bonding, which include a cash deposit, withholding of payment up to the bond amount, and withholding of 10 percent of the monthly billing up to the bond amount.

Between August 1, 1977 and the present, Hub Bus Lines has delivered bus service to the Commission in the amount of approximately $10,000. In the meantime, it has become apparent that the original, proposed contract amount of $10,000 ($7,780 plus a 25 percent variance) will not be sufficient to provide bus transportation services for the elderly for the remainder of the fiscal year. Since this service has been satisfactory and the contractor has demonstrated his willingness to provide alternative methods of guaranteeing continued satisfactory service your Honor's approval is hereby requested to award a contract, without advertising, to Hub Bus Lines, Inc., 755 Boylston Street, Boston, in the amount of $16,000 for the period July 1, 1977, to June 30, 1978.

Sincerely,
Elaine F. Guiney,
Commissioner.

AUDITING DEPARTMENT Consulting Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract for consulting services to Kenneth F. Sheehan, 12 Lowell Street, North Billerica, Mass. 01862, during the period July 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979, at a cost not to exceed $35,000.

Mr. Sheehan has served as a consultant to the city since November 1, 1976, and has designed and installed new systems and procedures for general and revenue accounting that bring the city's accounting system into substantial conformance with the recommendations of the National Committee on Governmental Accounting and generally accepted accounting practices, and has completed an accounting manual describing the accounting system and the methods and procedures for accounting for financial transactions. During the next year, Mr. Sheehan will be engaged in the conversion of the new accounting systems from bookkeeping machine operations to an on-line integrated, computer-based system. Mr. Sheehan will also be engaged in developing improvements in accounts payable and appropriation accounting which are essential to improved accounting and financial reporting.

In view of Mr. Sheehan's special qualifications, I believe that no public interest would be served by public advertisement for bids.

Very truly yours,
Walter W. Merrill,
City Auditor.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract for consulting services to John W. Good, 19 Poe Road, Billerica, Mass. 01821, whose business address is 19 Poe Road, Billerica, Mass. 01821.

Mr. Good will prepare computer software to simplify the operation of the on-line computer based accounting system for General, Revenue, and Appropriation accounting. This work will involve the preparation and installation of computer programs to modify existing software and instruct Accounting and Data Processing personnel in its operation.

Work will begin on June 1, 1978, and will be completed by June 30, 1978 at a cost not to exceed $6,000. The contract price is extremely reasonable for the amount and complexity of the work.

Mr. Good is a recognized expert in On-Line Software and is particularly skilled in the computer program related to the accounting system. In view of Mr. Good's special qualifications, I believe that no public interest would be served by public advertising for bids.

Very truly yours,
Walter W. Merrill,
City Auditor.

AUDITORIUM Guard Service

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your Honor's authority is hereby requested for permission to award a contract to Excelon Security Services, Inc., 80 Boylston Street, Boston, for furnishing guard and patrol service in the city's John B. Hynes Veterans Auditorium at 900 Boylston Street, Boston, for the period July 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979. The cost to the city for this service will not exceed $40,185.60.

The Commission publicly advertised for bids for this service and received three proposals:

1. Excelon Security Services, Inc., $2.30 per man hour; 2. Liberty Security, Inc., $5.50 per man hour; 3. Ogden Security, Inc., $5.24 per man hour.

Accordingly, your permission is requested to award the contract to the low bidder, Excelon Security Services, Inc.

Respectfully,
AUDITORIUM COMMISSION,
By R.C. Linnell,
Chairman.

BUILDING DEPARTMENT

Boarding and Securing, CDBG

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings or structures are a menace to the neighborhood. The location follows:

4 Laurel Street, Ward 11; 44 Bird Street, Ward 15; 28 Mora Street, Ward 17 (reboard); 32 Mora Street, Ward 17 (reboard); 18 Monponset Street, Ward 18.

Emergency bid submitted in bid box May 1, 1978—one copy to Auditing Department. Box opened by Office of Development and Construction. These buildings were becoming deteriorated because they were vacant and open, presenting a hazardous and dangerous condition.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972 as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to board up and secure them.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the boarding and securing of this building or structure.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

James Grant Company, $2,685; Napoli Wrecking Company, $2,850; Donald Clancy & Sons, $2,295; Kenney Construction, $3,815.

Donald Clancy & Sons, 339 Dorchester Street, South Boston, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work. It carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $2,295, to Donald Clancy & Sons, 339 Dorchester Street, South Boston, Mass.

Very truly yours,
Francis W. Gens,
Building Commissioner.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings or structures are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations follow:

4 Ludlow Street, Ward 2; 2159-2163 Washington Street, Ward 9; 45 Clifford Street, Ward 12; 738 Washington Street, Ward 17.

Emergency bid submitted in bid box May 15, 1978—one copy to Auditing Department. Box opened by Office of Development and Construction. These buildings are in an unsafe and dangerous condition, a hazard to the general public.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these premises and to board and secure them.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for boarding and securing of these buildings or structures.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

D. Clancy & Sons Co., $3,840; Kenney Construction, $3,750.

Kenney Construction, 175 Savin Hill Avenue, Dorchester, Mass. 02125, has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval for the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $3,750, to Kenney Construction, 175 Savin Hill Avenue, Dorchester, Mass. 02125.

Very truly yours,

Francis W. Gens,
Building Commissioner.

Razing Structures

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations follow:

740-744 South Street, Ward 20.

On Community Development Block Grant bid, this part of the building was not considered in the bid price, therefore, the other part of the building is being done under city funds because the contractor was doing the other half of the building.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and have received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Mystic Building Wrecking Co., Inc., $3,000.

Mystic Building Wrecking Co., Inc., 265 Carter Street, Chelsea, Mass. 02150, has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. Under such conditions, there would be much mutual interference and each contractor would be exposed to severe hazards not under his control, by the operations of adjacent contractors. I also believe that the aggregate cost of individual bids would be much higher than the cost of one bid for the total buildings or structures to be demolished, and that handling the buildings or structures as one unit results in one administrative cost to the city rather than what would result from handling the individual buildings or structures as separate bids and contracts. Unit handling results, however, in this case in a contract price of over $2,000, or over the statutory limitations upon awards that can be made without advertising, unless your Honor approves the transaction.

Accordingly, the general public safety so requiring, I ask your Honor's approval to the awarding, without advertising, as required in the City Charter, of a contract in the sum of $3,000, to Mystic Building Wrecking Co., Inc., 265 Carter Street, Chelsea, Mass. 02150.

Very truly yours,

Francis W. Gens,
Building Commissioner.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

The following buildings or structures have been condemned by me as being in an unsafe and dangerous condition. Notices have been sent to the owners, but they have taken no steps to abate the dangerous condition. These buildings are a menace to the neighborhood. The locations follow:

Norwell Street, Nos. 22, 24, 26, 28, and 30, Ward 14.

Emergency bid submitted in bid box May 1, 1978—one copy to Auditing Department. Bid box opened by Office of Development and Construction. These buildings were vandalized—collapsed walls resulted, leaving them in an unsafe and dangerous condition—a hazard to the general public.

Accordingly, in conformity with the provisions of chapter 802, Acts of 1972, as amended, particularly section 124 thereof, I have asked and received your Honor's permission to enter these various premises and to raze the buildings or structures.

Bidders were requested to submit an aggregate bid for the entire lot of buildings or structures, but to break down their bids to show the charge against each separate address. This breakdown is necessary for later departmental use in billing demolition costs incurred against the individual property owner of each house.

We have solicited invitation bids, award to be made to the lowest qualified bidder, and have received the following:

Napoli Wrecking Company, $6,200; James G. Grant Company, $7,450; Mystic Wrecking Company, $4,855.

Mystic Bldg. Wrecking Co., Inc., 265 Chelsea, Mass., has submitted the lowest aggregate bid. This company is thoroughly familiar with this work, it carries all necessary insurance, and it has done satisfactory work for this department in the past.

Bids for the individual buildings or structures were not requested because it would be a practical, physical impossibility for several different contractors to conduct efficient contracting operations simultaneously in individual buildings or structures. DEVELOPMENT AND CONSTRUCTION Renovations

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $20,000, for a rehabilitation grant to the Young Men's Christian Association of Greater Boston, Inc., a nonprofit corporation located at 1137 River Street, Hyde Park, Mass. Payment for this contract will be made from the Community Development Block Grant on a reimbursable basis.

Under the terms of the agreement, the city will provide reimbursement to the Young Men's Christian Association of Greater Boston, Inc., for renovations of the existing facility. The period of performance shall be for a period of one year from the date on which the Mayor affixes his signature to the contract, but shall not, in any event, extend beyond September 30, 1978, without prior approval from the city.

On the basis of Young Men's Christian Association of Greater Boston, Inc.'s qualifications and expertise in serving the residents of Hyde Park, I recommend that a contractual relationship between the city and Young Men's Christian Association of Greater Boston, Inc., be established at this time to provide renovation funds. Moreover, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Very truly yours,
Peter Scarpignato,
Acting Director.

EEPA

Youth Programs Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with formal advertising and to award a contract to Action for Boston Community Development, Inc. (ABCD), 150 Tremont Street, Boston, MA 02111, for the operation of the Fiscal Year 1978 Summer Program for Economically Disadvantaged Youth (S.P.E.D.Y.). As you know, ABCD, as the city's anti-poverty agency has conducted this summer jobs program at various worksites throughout the city for the past several years. During FY 78, the program's emphasis will be to engage youth in meaningful work tasks and training programs which will develop their skill levels and enhance their future employability. In addition, job rotation, vocational counseling, and occupational information resources will be employed to provide a comprehensive vocational exploration experience which will help participating youth set goals and guide them in career planning.

Funds for the operation of this contract are being provided to the city by a grant from the U.S. Department of Labor under Title III of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203, et seq. The contract will be effective for the period June 1, 1978, through September 30, 1978, at a total cost not to exceed $3,200,000.

Because of the services to be provided, the reasonable cost thereof, and the experience of the contractor, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to the Greater Boston Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), 316 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Mass. The Greater Boston YMCA will employ five City of Boston Public Service Employment (PSE) CETA participants to help implement a project entitled the "City Kids Resource Collaborative." The project will place a resource coordinator and four program assistants with the Metropolitan Cultural Alliance, Boston Community Schools, and YMCA to assist various nonprofit, cultural, and human service agencies in their efforts at collaboration and resource sharing. This program represents a most effective use of CETA manpower funds in that each position benefits many citizens through the enhancement of the delivery of services provided by these agencies.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided through a federal government grant to the City of Boston under Title VI-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period April 28, 1978, through March 2, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $51,000.

The contractor was selected based on the following criteria:

1. The need to focus funding on agencies who have proven they can provide services and employment opportunities to CETA-designated, significant segments of the population.

2. The project's value in addressing the unmet needs of the residents of Boston.

3. The ability of the agency to supervise the project.

Because of the nature of the services to be performed, the reasonable cost thereof, the anticipated benefits and the proven capability of the agency, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to the Archbishop of Boston, a corporation sole, 2121 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, MA 02135, to implement a program of bilingual education and support services for Hispanic youth to operate in conjunction with the Boston Plan, Project Y.E.S.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided through a grant to the city from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Department of Manpower Development. The contract will be effective for the period April 24, 1978, through June 30, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $73,000.

The contractor will provide a comprehensive counseling and referral service to provide Hispanic participants in Boston Plan, Project Y.E.S. with English language skills sufficient to enable them to survive in unsubsidized jobs. Services the contractor will provide include publicizing the program in the community, outreach and intake, educational placement in either regular Boston Public School or alternative educational programs, in-school counseling, and job development and placement.

Without the thorough attention to the special needs of Hispanic youth that the contractor will provide, this segment of the population will not be effectively reached by the Boston Plan, Project Y.E.S. In view of the established reputation of the contractor, the nature of the services to be provided, and the reasonable cost thereof, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Transitional Employment Enterprises (TEE), 286 Congress Street, Boston, Mass. 02210, to employ sixty CETA Public Service Employment participants as supervisors for youth work crews assembled from the Boston Plan Project Y.E.S. applicants to coordinate operations for Project Hub Scrub.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided from a federal grant to the city under Title VI-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period June 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $450,000.

Project Hub Scrub represents a coordinated effort among several city departments to augment the Public Works Department's capacity to clear trash from city streets, sidewalks, alleys, and vacant lots. In addition, this project will create a highly structured, work program for the Boston Plan Project Y.E.S. school dropouts who require close supervision to develop work habits that will enhance their future employability. The contract will provide one supervisor for each ten-man crew of project participants. The importance of supervision to the effectiveness of such a project as this is self-evident.

The contractor for this program is a nonprofit agency with extensive experience at providing "supported work" opportunities for hard-to-employ individuals, in association with CETA prime sponsors and correctional agencies across the state. In view of the contractor's record, the synergistic nature of the program, and the reasonable cost of the services to be provided, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Various Training Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to Modern Alarm Company, 386 La Grange Street, West Roxbury, MA 02132, for the purpose of conducting an on-the-job training program for one City of Boston CETA participant as an alarm installer in homes and buildings.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be made available to the City of Boston through a federal government grant under Title I of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The dates of operation of the contract will be from June 3, 1977, through December 30, 1977, at a total cost not to exceed $2,730.

This award is retroactive because the Employment and Economic Policy Administration wishes to pay the contractor for services faithfully rendered in the city's on-the-job training effort. The performance of these services was originally provided for under our FY 77 OJT contract with Manpower Development Associates, Inc. Whereas MDAI did not pay the invoice for said services and the city has ceased to obligate the funds in question from the MDAI contract, it is my conclusion, the Employment and Economic Policy Administration should pay this reasonable cost now and therefore that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to the Boys' Clubs of Boston, 15 Green Street, Boston, Mass., to provide training services to the Employment and Economic Policy Administration for 200 counselors under the Boston Plan, Project Y.E.S.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided by a grant from the federal government under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Projects Act of 1977, P.L. 95-93. The contract will be effective for the period January 15, 1978, through September 30, 1978, at a total cost not to exceed $75,000.

This request is being made retroactively because the need to secure training services predated our receipt of the grant even though notice of the award had been made. Whereas the contractor is being engaged for professional services of an educational nature at a reasonable rate, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to Education Collaborative for Greater Boston, Inc. (Ed-Co), 20 Kent Street, Brookline, MA 02146, to conduct a model work-study program for 100, recalcitrant, out-of-school youths for a part of the Boston Plan, Project Y.E.S.

Funds for the operation of this contract are being provided by a grant from the Department of Manpower Development under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203 as in-kind contribution from the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to the Boston Plan, Project Y.E.S. The contract will be effective for the period April 15, 1978, through September 30, 1978, at a total cost not to exceed $50,200.

Whereas the contract is for educational services, at a reasonable cost, with an agency of established repute, and subject to the coordinated efforts of several government agencies, including the local educational agency, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to Combined Jewish Philanthropies (CJP), 72 Franklin Street, Boston MA 02110, CJP, in conjunction with Jewish Vocational Services (JVS), will employ twelve City of Boston CETA Public Service Employment (PSE) participants to provide an intensive vocational adjustment program for 150 City of Boston Russian immigrants. This program is based on successful, similar, CETA programs operated by JVS agencies in several other major American cities.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided through a federal government grant to the City of Boston under Title VI-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, (P.L. 93-203). The contract will be effective for the period May 1, 1978, through April 30, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $170,000.

The contractor was selected based on the evaluation of proposals submitted by united, community-based organizations. The criteria used were:

(1) The ability of the project to employ the CETA target population; (2) the ability of the CETA target population; (2) the ability of the project to provide training to CETA enrollees; (3) the ability of the project to provide services to a CETA-designated, significant segment; (4) the project's value in addressing unmet needs of residents of the City of Boston.

Because of the nature of the services to be provided, the reasonable cost thereof, and the singular qualifications of the contractor; it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Pleasantville Educational Supply Company, 21 Paulding Street, Pleasantville, New York, for vocational guidance and client-evaluation materials and equipment to be provided to the Employment and Economic Policy Administration.

Funds for this contract will be provided from a federal grant to the City of Boston under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P.L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period between April 3, 1978, through April 3, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $34,106.

Among the evaluation and educational materials to be provided are the Jewish Educational Vocational Service (JEVS) tests, "Project Discovery," and the "Hoffman Career Exploration." These are materials widely used in CETA programs and are designed specifically for the method of client evaluation and vocational guidance that the EEPA wishes to use. Whereas Pleasantville is the sole distributor for these materials, and the cost for both materials and equipment is reasonable, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to Casa del Sol Educational Program, Inc., 405 Shawmut Avenue, Boston, MA 02118, for the purpose of employing thirty-four City of Boston Public Service Employment CETA participants to develop a bilingual (Spanish-English) business education curriculum to serve members of low-income, linguistic minorities who require training in the business field.

Funds for this contract will be provided through a federal government grant to the City of Boston under Title VI-B of the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-203). The dates of operation will be from March 8, 1978, through September 8, 1978, at a total cost not to exceed $99,000.

The contractor was selected based on the following criteria:

1. The need to focus funding on agencies who have proven they can provide services and employment opportunities to CETA-designated, significant segments of the population; 2. the ability of the agency to serve unmet needs of the Hispanic-Haitian linguistic minority in the City of Boston; 3. the ability of the agency to supervise the project.

Because of the nature of the services to be performed, the reasonable cost thereof, the anticipated benefits and the proven capability of the agency, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by public advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Snow Shovels

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to award a contract to Sears Roebuck & Company, 201 Brookline Avenue, Boston, MA 02115, for snow shovels supplied to the city for CETA, emergency-work crews during the February blizzard of 1978.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided to the city through a grant from the federal government under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, P. L. 93-203. The contract will be effective for the period February 1, 1978, through March 31, 1978, at a total cost not to exceed $2,000.

This contract is retroactive because the contractor was willing to respond to an emergency situation and supply needed goods on the good faith that a contract would be executed in due course. Furthermore, the goods were supplied at cost, plus 10 percent for handling, which are favorable terms for the city. For the foregoing reasons, it is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Consultant Services

Dear Mayor White:

This is to request your Honor's permission to dispense with formal bidding procedures and to award a contract to David J. Cirillo, 1806 Village Road West, Norwood, Mass. 02062, for consulting services to the Employment and Economic Policy Administration. The contractor will audit current EEPA personnel policies, present a resultant "Personnel Action Plan," and evaluate the current EEPA personnel policy manual.

The contractor will be paid $3,500 upon submission of the Personnel Action Plan and $1,125 upon submission of the critical evaluation. Payment on this contract shall not exceed $4,625. The contractor will be in operation from May 1, 1978, until September 30, 1978.

The contractor comes highly recommended from the Civil Service Commission and has performed similar tasks for other prime sponsors in Region 1. The excellent qualifications of the contractor and the reasonable cost of the services to be provided indicate that no useful purpose would be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

Personnel Services

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising and to award a contract to Transitional Employment Enterprises (TEE), 286 Congress Street, Boston, Mass. 02201, to employ management and supportive service personnel as part of Project Hub Scrub. Included among supportive services personnel are counselors for each twenty participants. The counselors will assist participants in working out problems, mediating in disputes with supervisors and monitoring their progress.

The EEPA projects that Project Hub Scrub can make a significant contribution to the quality of life in Boston and to the ranks of employable citizens. Careful maintenance of streets and sidewalks by the public sector encourages homeowners, landlords, businesses, and institutions to maintain and improve their own property. Project Hub Scrub will provide a clearly structured, closely supervised work atmosphere to hundreds of largely unemployable school dropouts. TEE has extensive experience in developing models for the "supported work" concept and applying them in numerous working situations across the state in the past three years. The EEPA is confident that TEE's expertise will measurably enhance the transition of hard-to-employ youth through Project Hub Scrub to employable young adults with marketable skills, solid work habits, and an employment history which leads to permanent jobs in the regular economy.

Funds for the operation of this contract will be provided through federal grants to The Boston Plan Project YES, under the Youth Employment and Demonstration Projects Act of 1977, P. L. 95-93. The contract will be effective for the period March 13, 1978, through June 30, 1979, at a total cost not to exceed $400,000.

In view of the potential advantage of Project Hub Scrub to the city, the demonstrated abilities of TEE, and the reasonable cost, under Y.E.S. guidelines of the services to be provided, it is my opinion that no useful purpose will be served by publicly advertising for bids.

Sincerely,
Charles M. Atkins,
Administrator.

HEALTH AND HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT Ambulance Repairs

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, I hereby respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, a contract to Modular Ambulance Corporation, 2000 So. Great SW Parkway, Grande Prairie, Texas 75051, for the period April 5, 1978, through May 25, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $25,800.

Under this contract, Modular Ambulance Corporation will repair and refurbish the patient compartment modules of two, 1976

Modulvan, city ambulances and remount these patient compartment modules on 1978 model, truck chassis of the same type and design.

The Department of Health and Hospitals currently owns two, 1976 modulvan ambulances, both of which are need of extensive repairs, including major, front-end work and installation of a new engine. As these vehicles each have almost 60,000 miles of use, it would not be economically sound to invest in such repairs.

The above stated proposal, therefore, gives proper regard to the city's best interests.

Inasmuch as Modular Ambulance Corporation, the original manufacturer of these vehicles, has the capacity to refurbish and remount the modules, is completely familiar with the construction and design of the ambulance, and has on hand the component parts necessary to complete the remounting of the compartments, it is uniquely equipped to provide the work under this contract.

Therefore, in view of the above and because the price, in my opinion, is reasonable, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to award this contract to Modular Ambulance Corporation under the terms and conditions stated above.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.

Personnel Services

Dear Sir:

An invitation for bids for furnishing temporary personnel at Boston City Hospital, for the period July 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978, was advertised in the City Record on June 13, 1977, and bids were publicly opened and read aloud on June 29, 1977. The sole bid submitted was by:

Personnel Pool of Boston, Inc. d/b/a Medical Personnel Pool, 73 Tremont Street, Suite 720, Boston, Mass. 02108 — Registered nurses $9.40 an hour, $75.20 per eight-hour shift; Licensed practical nurses, $7.53 an hour, $60.24 per eight-hour shift; nursing assistant, skilled $4.50 an hour, $36.00 per eight-hour shift.

Under this contract the successful bidders were to provide skilled nurses for Boston City Hospital whenever an emergency situation created by a shortage of nursing personnel would necessitate such supplementation of the Boston City Hospital's regular nursing staff.

Experience has shown that the hospital's demand could not be satisfied by one company alone. Therefore, the department, at the request of the Nursing Office, entertained the award of a multivendor contract. Because of the insufficient response to the original advertisement, the bid by Personnel Pool of Boston, Inc., was rejected and a second invitation for bids for the aforementioned services for the period August 1, 1977, through June 30, 1978, was advertised in the City Record on July 18, 1977, and bids were publicly opened and read aloud on August 1, 1977. A contract for this period has been approved by your Honor by separate letter on September 28, 1977.

However, in order to provide coverage for these vital services during the month of July, the department had to continue with the following companies, all of which had furnished nursing personnel services to the Department of Health and Hospitals under a previous contract:

Personnel Pool of Boston, Inc., d/b/a Medical Personnel Pool, 73 Tremont Street, Suite 720, Boston, Mass. 02108 — Monday through Friday, 7 to 3, $75.20; 3 to 11, $75.20; 11 to 7, $75.20; Saturday and Sunday, 7 to 3, $77.52; 3 to 11, $77.52; 11 to 7, $77.52; Holidays, 7 to 3, $112.80; 3 to 11, $112.80; 11 to 7, $112.80.

Intensive Care — Monday through Friday, 7 to 3, $82.80; 3 to 11, $82.80; 11 to 7, $82.80; Saturday and Sunday, 7 to 3, $85.12; 3 to 11, $85.12; 11 to 7, $85.12; Holidays, 7 to 3, $124.20; 3 to 11, $124.20; 11 to 7, $124.20.

Staff Builders Medical Services, 18 Tremont Street, Boston, Mass. 02108 — Monday through Thursday, 7 to 3, $66; 3 to 11, $66; 11 to 7, $72; Monday through Friday, 7 to 3, $66; 3 to 11, —, 11 to 7, $72; Friday, Saturday, Sunday, 7 to 3, —, 3 to 11, $72; 11 to 7, $72; Saturday, Sunday, 7 to 3, $72; 3 to 11, $72; 11 to 7, $72; Holidays, 7 to 3, $72; 3 to 11, $72; 11 to 3, $72.

Medox, Inc., 636 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. 02215 — Monday through Friday, 7 to 3, $72; 3 to 11, $78.40; 11 to 7, $78.40; Saturday, Sunday, 7 to 3, $85.20; 3 to 11, $88.40; 11 to 7, $88.40; Holidays, 7 to 3, $85.20; 3 to 11, $88.40; 11 to 7, $88.40.

Therefore, in view of the above, and as all of the aforementioned companies have provided these services to the hospital in the past and as their fee schedules are substantially comparable, and the cost to the city is reasonable, I hereby, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Board of Health and Hospitals, respectfully request your Honor's permission to award, without advertising, this contract to the aforementioned companies for the period July 1, 1977, Through July 31, 1977, at a combined cost to the city for all three companies of an amount not to exceed $33,387.16.

Very truly yours,
David L. Rosenbloom,
Commissioner.

MAYOR'S OFFICE

Feasibility Study

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request permission to dispense with bidding and award a contract in an amount not to exceed $25,000, to the Chinese Economic Development Council (CEDC) Housing and Land Development Committee, a non-profit corporation, located at 20 Hudson Street, Boston, Mass. 02111. Payment for this contract will be made with Year III (FY'78) Community Development Block Grant funds. The contract cost is reasonable.

Under the terms of the agreement, the CEDC Housing and Land Development Committee will conduct a feasibility study for the potential rehabilitation of properties in the Edinboro' Street area for reuse as low- to moderate-income housing.

The study will investigate the availability of mortgage funds; the type of ownership; the size of units; the mix of tenants (family size, elderly, handicapped); and the potential environmental clearance problems.

It is my view that public advertising would serve no useful purpose because of the expertise and reputation of the Chinese Economic Development Council and the professional nature of services to be performed.

Performance period for the disbursement of these funds will be from December 1, 1977, through June 30, 1979.

Sincerely,
Andrew M. Olins,
Special Assistant.

Recreation Program

Dear Mayor White:

I hereby request your permission to dispense with bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $28,000 to Program for Youth, Inc., d/b/a Kent Community School Recreation Program, located at 316 Huntington Avenue, Boston, Mass. Payment for this contract shall be made from the Community Development Block Grant.

Under the terms of the agreement, Program for Youth, d/b/a Kent Community School Recreation Program, will conduct a comprehensive program of recreation to be directed by professional recreational personnel. Activities offered will include swimming, basketball, volleyball, karate, and dance classes, league competitions, and physical fitness regimens. The program will be available to all residents of all ages in the Charlestown community and the period of performance shall be from April 5, 1978, through June 30, 1978.

Program for Youth, Inc., d/b/a Kent Community School Recreation Program, has had past experience and expertise in delivering the same and similar services in the community. The Kent Community School Recreation Program has always provided excellent service at a reasonable cost. In the interest of continuity of service delivery, I recommend that a contractual relationship be established between the city and Program for Youth, Inc., d/b/a Kent Community School Recreation Program at this time.

Therefore, for the reasons cited above, it is my view that public advertising would not serve any useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,
Katharine D. Kane,
Deputy Mayor.

I hereby request your permission to dispense with bidding and to award a contract in an amount not to exceed $5,000, to the South Cove Golden Age Center, located at the Quincy Tower Elderly Housing Project, 5 Oak Street, Boston, Mass. Under the terms of the agreement the South Cove Golden Age Center will conduct a multi-service social center for the elderly Chinese in the Boston area. Such services shall include transportation, counseling, legal assistance, social and financial advice, educational classes, outings, movies, and other forms of recreation. The period of performance shall be from September 1, 1977, through August 31, 1978.

The South Cove Golden Age Center has had past experience and demonstrated expertise in delivering the same and similar services in the community. In the interest of continuity of service delivery, I recommend that a contractual relationship be established between the city and the South Cove Golden Age Center.

OFFICE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE Drug Test Kits

Dear Mr. Mayor:

As director of your Mayor's Office of Criminal Justice, I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising in the award of a contract to the Anaclin Corporation, 20755 Marilla Street, Chatsworth, California, in an amount not to exceed $3,100, for the period May 1, 1978, to December 31, 1978.

Award of the contract is made pursuant to a grant received by the City of Boston from the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration through the Governor's Committee on Criminal Justice under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act of 1968 (P.L. 90-351), as amended by the Omnibus Crime Control Act of 1970 (P.L. 91-644), and as further amended by the Crime Control Act of 1973 (P.L. 93-83).

The contract costs will be $3,100, which I have determined to be a reasonable price for the services to be rendered.

The purpose of the contract is to allow the Anaclin Corporation to supply drug test kits to the TASC program operating to combat drug abuse in our city. The kits are needed to fulfill the terms of the federal grant which TASC works under, to insure that clients of the program are no longer drug dependent.

Because of both the unique services required to perform the function of the contract and the proven ability of the Anaclin Corporation in the reliability of their test results, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful or practical purpose.

Sincerely,

Brian M. Leahy,
Acting Executive Director.

PARKS AND RECREATION DEPARTMENT Recreational Supervision

Dear Mayor White:

I respectfully request your permission to dispense with inviting proposals by public advertising in the City Record, and to award a contract to Mr. Anthony McGee, 160 E. Main Street, Norton, Mass., for the organization and the supervision of special recreational facilities under the jurisdiction of the Parks and Recreation Department.

Under the terms of the proposed contract, Mr. McGee will organize and supervise special recreational programs designed to encourage citizen and community interest in the city's parks and in the opportunities they offer for recreational activities. A special effort in this program will be made to provide youth activities in the parks and to involve youth in planning the program. The program's emphasis will be on the large city parks and indoor recreational facilities. Mr. McGee will be paid a sum not to exceed $9,500. The contract will be for the period February 15, 1978, to June 30, 1978, inclusive, and it will be charged to the Parks and Recreation Department budget, 1-11-41

(29) Miscellaneous Contractual Services. I consider the contract cost of Mr. McGee's services to be reasonable and comparable to charges by other professional athletes for similar services.

It is my opinion that no useful purpose would be served by advertising publicly for bids because of the nature of the services to be rendered and Mr. McGee's unique position as a professional athlete.

Very truly yours,

Alan M. Austin,
Commissioner.

PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT

Legal Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your Honor's permission is respectfully requested to dispense with public bidding, and to award a contract to the Crime and Justice Foundation, Inc., a Massachusetts, nonprofit corporation, located at 31 St. James Street, Boston, Mass., to provide legal services to the inmates of the Suffolk County House of Correction at Dear Island.

Under the terms of the contract, the contractor shall employ the services of a full-time, legal advisor and support staff to assist and advise the inmates at the Suffolk County House of Correction in regard to legal matters.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $53,000. The term of this contract shall be from July 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979.

Because of its status as a nonprofit corporation, its impressive experience in the criminal justice field, and its high esteem within the criminal justice community, the Crime and Justice Foundation, Inc. is eminently and uniquely qualified to perform this essential service. In light of the nature and extent of the services to be performed, the contract cost is reasonable.

Because of the special nature of the services to be performed, and the reasonableness of the contract cost, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,

William R. Celester,

The period of this agreement is May 5, 1978, through August 31, 1978. The total cost of this contract is not to exceed $4,000 and is of reasonable cost.

Consultant Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I respectfully request your Honor's permission to dispense with public advertising and to renew a contract with Dr. Phillip L. Clay, a professor in the Department of Urban Studies and Planning, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, Mass., for consultant services in relation to and to be paid from HUD Grant H-2830-RG, which was accepted by the City Council on December 7, 1977. This grant has been awarded to the city's Office of Program Development to study the neighborhood resource allocation practices employed in major United States jurisdictions.

Under the terms of the contract, Dr. Clay will continue to serve as consultant to the project staff with respect to development of project policy guidelines, preparation for site visits, and in the preparation and revision of all written documents produced during the remainder of the project. Dr. Clay will participate in the site visits and be responsible for a post-site visit analysis report documenting and assessing neighborhood resource allocation practices and related analytical techniques. Dr. Clay will also continue to serve in an advisory capacity at the remaining project Policy Committee meetings and a final conference.

Dr. Clay is especially qualified to perform these services. He is a nationally recognized expert on urban affairs and has been conducting extremely relevant neighborhood research in the same thirty jurisdictions which will be the focus of this project. He has made a significant contribution to the project under his existing contract and it is extremely important that the city retain his services.

Compensation under this contract shall not exceed $9,900, which I have determined to be a reasonable cost for the services to be performed. The term of this contract shall be from July 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be performed, it is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Very truly yours,

Wayne A. McNamara,
Acting Director.

Under the terms of the contract, Geotechnical Consultants will provide specialized engineering services in conducting necessary unique studies and investigations to identify and recommend corrective work to repair the damage caused by the storm of February 6-8, 1978, to city-owned underground utilities, waterfront structures, and foundations, including the effects on the reduction of design life of subsurface facilities and utilities, and declared eligible for relief

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids or proposals for Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (MBTA) Contract 091-202 (Project Value 460) will be received by the Director of Construction, Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority at the Contract Administration Office, fifth floor, Construction Directorate, 50 High Street, Boston, Mass. 02110, until two o'clock (2 p.m.) on November 9, 1978. Immediately thereafter in a designated room, the proposals will be opened and read publicly.

The above-numbered contract is more fully described as follows: (CLASS 1 — GENERAL TRANSIT CONSTRUCTION OR CLASS 7 — BUILDINGS) HARVARD SQUARE PERMANENT STATION AND HOLYOKE/HARVARD TEMPORARY STATION, CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

The Harvard Square Permanent Station and the Holyoke/Harvard Temporary Station are to be located in the Harvard Square vicinity of Cambridge, Massachusetts. This work consists of the following:

- A. Holyoke/Harvard Temporary Station: Wherever the name Holyoke appears on the drawings or in the specifications, it shall be deemed to mean Harvard/Holyoke. The Holyoke Temporary Station is to be located below Massachusetts Avenue and will extend from Holyoke Street west to Dunster Street. The Holyoke Temporary Station will consist of two new entrances at grade, two passenger platforms, and two existing trackbeds, which are to be maintained in operation during construction. While the Holyoke Temporary Station is under construction, passengers will continue to use the existing entrance and the existing platforms located on the north side of the trackbed.
- B. Harvard Square Permanent Train Loading Platforms and Bus Tunnels: Two new, train-loading platforms will be located below Massachusetts Avenue and will extend from the existing newsstand area north to Flagstaff Park. The upper platform will serve outbound trains and the lower platform will serve inbound trains. A secondary mezzanine will be located approximately where Church Street intersects Massachusetts Avenue. Two, new, surface entrances will allow direct access to the Church Street mezzanine. Stairs and an escalator will connect the Church Street mezzanine directly to the two, new, train-loading platforms. New bus tunnels extending north from the Coop to Flagstaff Park will be new construction and are located directly adjacent to the new train platforms. For the period of time after the Holyoke Temporary Station is closed but before the main entrance and bus platforms are completed, the Church St. Mezzanine will serve as the only entrance to the new Harvard Square Station train loading platforms. North of the new train platforms there will be underground mechanical and electrical facilities serving the permanent station.

- C. Renovated and New Bus Loading Platforms: The existing bus-loading platforms will be renovated after the existing tracks are abandoned. These existing bus-loading platforms are located under Brattle Street and extend from the Coop west to Brattle Square. They consist of two platforms on two separate levels and they will continue to operate in a similar manner after renovations. A new surface entrance will be constructed at Brattle Square connecting directly to the renovated, upper bus platform.
- D. New Central Mezzanine: Both the renovated, bus-loading platforms and the new, train-loading platforms will be reached from a new, central mezzanine. The new, central mezzanine is located beneath Harvard Square and will be entered from new stairs and escalators located in front of the Cambridge Savings Bank. An elevator will be provided to connect street level with the mezzanine level.
- E. Reconstruction of the Holyoke Temporary Station: Once the Red Line Extension is completed and tracks diverted toward Porter Square, the new Harvard Square Permanent, train-loading platforms will come into use and the Holyoke Temporary Station will be abandoned. The Holyoke Temporary Station is to be dismantled and converted to mechanical space serving the Permanent Harvard Square Station at the south end. This south end, mechanical space supplements similar mechanical space at the north end of the station. Within these mechanical spaces will be emergency ventilation fans, electrical rooms, blast-relief shafts, and other ancillary facilities.
- F. Surface Restoration: The limit of work at surface level is shown in the contract drawings. Elements of surface restoration include, but are not limited to, the following:
- 1) Temporary curbs and sidewalks in front of Holyoke Center and surrounding the temporary entrances to Holyoke Temporary Station.
 - 2) Permanent street paving, curbs, sidewalks, landscaping and street furnishings in front of Holyoke Center after the Holyoke Temporary Station entrances have been demolished and mechanical spaces have been installed.

MAYOR OF BOSTON

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE, MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

LAWRENCE S. DiCARA
PRESIDENT, CITY COUNCIL

VOL. 70

MONDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1978

NO. 41

NEW UTILITIES FOR SOUTH END

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced that the Boston Redevelopment Authority would soon begin a $5-million, sewer reconstruction project as part of the South End urban renewal project.

The three contracts awarded by the BRA will entail installation of new storm drains and sewer lines on nine streets in the South End.

The work will be funded by grants from the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

Mayor White said, "This project is of great importance because it will allow us to replace utilities which are obsolete. Of equal importance, EPA has given us funds for this project, the city will not have to spend money it was obligated to provide under the original urban renewal plan. I am particularly pleased that projects of this type bring us closer to completing the renewal work we are committed to do in the South End."

The three contracts awarded by the BRA and the areas affected are as follows:

Site Preparation Contract SD-2: A $2-million contract to Modern Continental Construction Company, Inc. (low bidder) to install 100 linear feet of new storm drains, approximately 2,000 linear feet of new sanitary sewer, approximately 1,850 linear feet of new, combined sewers and storm and sanitary services in a portion of Harrison Avenue between East Dedham Street and East Berkeley Street.

Site Preparation Contract H2-E: A $1.7-million contract to The Coughlan Construction Company (low bidder) to install approximately 2,900 linear feet of new, storm drains and approximately 4,800 linear feet of new, sanitary sewer and sanitary services in portions of Columbus Avenue, West Springfield Street, Worcester Street, Rutland Square, West Newton Street, and the rear alley of Greenwich Park.

Site Preparation Contract U-1: A $1.2-million contract to The Piatelli Construction Corporation (low bidder) to install approximately 760 feet of a new, combined sewer in Massachusetts Avenue between Harrison Avenue and Albany Street.

It is anticipated that work on all three projects will begin within the next month and that it will be completed within 1979.

Flanked by representatives of Digital, Mayor White said, "This groundbreaking represents the first, major, industrial redevelopment in the city since World War II, and is just one more sign of the vitality which has returned to Boston."

Mayor White who characterized the Crosstown Industrial Park as the "anchor" for the Blue Hill Avenue phase of the Boston Plan, added, "Yesterday, I announced a stable tax rate for Boston for the next two years. Today, I am able to announce significant industrial redevelopment through the cooperation of private enterprise and city government. This is just the beginning. Truly, the American city is alive and well and living in Boston."

Mayor White also praised Digital President Kenneth Olsen for his "commitment to the economic rebirth of the core city area."

Site clearance funds for the industrial park were made available through a grant from the federal Economic Development Administration (EDA) which worked with the city's Economic Development and Industrial Corporation (EDIC) and the Community Development Corporation (CDC) of Boston, the codevelopers of the industrial park.

IMPRESSIVE GROUNDBREAKING CEREMONIES

Mayor Kevin H. White, on September 26, officiated at the ground-

As Project YES enrollees in the Nontraditional Occupations for Women (NTO) program at Boston's YWCA Clarendon Branch, these women are earning $50 a week to learn basic construction skills and go to school. The paid, training program is jointly funded by the Boston Plan Project YES and the Women's Bureau.

Said Mayor Kevin H. White about the program, "The roles for women in the work force are changing rapidly, and the expansion of career options offered by Boston's employment programs must keep pace. Boston women have more employment opportunities than ever before, in fields previously dominated by men."

There are twenty-two Boston women enrolled in the program this year. All are eighteen to nineteen, and high school dropouts. To be eligible for Project YES, they must be willing to attend an accredited educational program, live in YES entitlement areas, and be economically disadvantaged.

Instruction for the General Educational Development (G.E.D.) certificate, an equivalency exam for a high school diploma, is part of the NTO program. G.E.D. classes are taught two days a week by instructors from Boston State College.

The use of hand tools and small power tools, splicing and rewiring electrical outlets, and hanging wallpaper are some of the skills taught in individual and small group instruction three days a week.

During the seventeen-week training program, the women will be making field trips to construction sites, as well as exercising in physical conditioning classes to develop strength for construction work.

Project YES Counselor Elizabeth Housel said, "The women are very independent. They're choosing this program. They have definite goals in mind, and this helps the training and the program. It's a very cohesive group."

"There are very few programs like this," said Mary Reed, NTO program director. "The track record is terrific — nearly 80 percent of the participants were placed last year." Graduates of last year's program are now working in apprenticeship programs for Bethlehem Steel, G.T.E. Labs, and Boston & Maine.

Renovation at three sites, in addition to the YWCA, will be completed by the women in NTO. Boston Center for the Arts; First, Inc., a drug rehabilitation program; Shared Living Project; a senior citizens housing project; will provide building materials. NTO will contribute the much-needed labor.

The current program for twenty-five Project YES enrollees will run until December. A second seventeen-week course begins in January. Eligible women interested in learning construction skills, studying for a G.E.D., and earning $50 a week during the training program, should contact Mary Reed, NTO program director, at the YWCA, 140 Clarendon Street, 536-2169, or call the Boston Plan Project YES Hotline at 725-3550.

COLUMBUS DAY

Christopher Columbus, Genoese (1451-1506), as a schoolboy in Genoa, Italy, studied mathematics and astronomy and became an expert at map making and charts. As he advanced in age, he became an experienced sailor and decided that the east could best be reached by sailing west, for he, with other learned geographers, knew that the earth was a globe. He determined to sail west to prove his point. Financed by his friends, King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain, he set sail on August 3, 1492, to discover the new world. The three vessels he used on his venture were the Santa Maria, Pinta, and Nina.

At 2 a.m. on the morning of October 12, 1492, he discovered land and named it San Salvador (Bahamas). Cruising in the West Indies, he also discovered the islands of Hispaniola (Haiti) and Cuba. He returned to Spain triumphantly, and the following year returned to the West Indies and discovered many more islands. He made another visit again in 1498, and coasted along the shores of North America.

From this expedition he was returned in chains, accused of cruelty and misgovernment. Cleared of these charges later, he made a fourth voyage to the new world in 1502, skirting the shores of Honduras, in Central America.

Ed. Note: Columbus Day is October 12. This year it is observed on October 9.

HUB AWARDED MULTIMILLION GRANTS

Mayor White announces award of Federal Housing Rehabilitation Grants totaling $26 million under the Boston Plan.

Mayor Kevin H. White, on September 28, announced that Boston has been awarded two grants under the Boston Plan totaling $26 million from the Department of Housing and Urban Development for the rehabilitation of private and public housing in the city.

One grant, awarded under HUD's Neighborhood Strategy Areas (NSA) Program, enables the rehabilitation of 510 low- and moderate-income units in Roxbury, Franklin Field, Dorchester, and Chinatown. That grant will lever approximately $16 million in construction through Massachusetts Housing Finance Agency funding.

The second grant, a $10.45-million, Urban Initiatives Grant awarded to the Boston Housing Authority on an application jointly developed by the city and the BHA, allows for high-quality rehabilitation of approximately 470 occupied, public housing units at Columbia Point. That grant provides for the complete landscaping of the grounds surrounding those modernized buildings.

Said Mayor White, "The Neighborhood Strategy Areas Program provides the incentive for housing rehabilitation, and the Columbia Point grant gives us the tools to undertake high-quality rehabilitation. In the cases of both awards the community groups which helped these grants become a reality are to be commended."

Mayor White added, "Both these grants represent a genuine success in targeting federal money to the needs of the city. This marks $86 million brought to the city through the Boston Plan since its inception a little over a year ago."

Welcoming the $10-million, HUD award, BHA Administrator Bradley Biggs said, "The important point about the urban initiatives action is that it is a demonstration of confidence in the Boston Housing Authority and its tenants to take a direction until steps are taken toward the creation of a mixed-income community at Columbia Point."

Administrator Biggs added, "The work to be done by the BHA will be a model for the quality and design which private developers must match in their competitive efforts for the eventual revitalization of the entire Columbia Point Peninsula."

The NSA program will be administered through the Office of Housing Development and Construction, under the direction of Andrew M. Olins. Renovations are scheduled to begin in spring.

The Columbia Point program, which should also begin next spring with the selection of a private developer, is the first step in the eventual transformation of the project into a model, mixed-income and mixed-race community of 2,000 households by the year 1983.

PUBLIC FACILITIES DEPARTMENT

Design Contracts

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on March 30, 1978, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to award a contract to Boston Survey Consultants, Inc., engineers, a Massachusetts corporation, with offices at 263 Summer Street, Boston, Mass.

Under the terms of the contract, Boston Survey Consultants will provide plans, specifications, construction cost estimates, and supervision of construction of a new, neighborhood municipal parking lot at Egleston Square in Jamaica Plain, at a cost for such services of 9.9 percent (1967 ASCE B rate/curve) of the estimated cost of construction of $38,000, the cost of the proposed services not to exceed $8,762 (including $5,000 for Supplementary Services).

Due to the technical and professional nature of the services to be performed, it is my judgment that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Victor E. Hagan,
Acting Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a recent vote of the Public Facilities Commission, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with inviting proposals by advertisement in the City Record, and to award a contract to Stull Associates, Inc./Hellmuth, Obata & Kassabaum, Inc., a joint venture with offices at 431 Marlborough Street, Boston, Mass.

Management Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Pursuant to a vote of the Public Facilities Commission on March 30, 1978, I hereby request your Honor's written authority to dispense with public advertising, and to award a contract to James E. Langin, architect, of 21 Daniels Terrace, Peabody, Mass.

Under the terms of the contract, James E. Langin will continue to provide project management service in connection with the design and construction of new public facilities required by the federal court-ordered, desegregation plan, during the period July 1, 1978, to June 30, 1979, at a cost for such services (payable at the rate of $15 per hour) not to exceed $28,000, which, in my opinion, is a reasonable contract cost.

In view of the professional and technical nature of the services to be performed, as well as James E. Langin's considerable prior experience in the construction management and supervision field on City of Boston projects, it is believed that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully,
Victor E. Hagan,

Various Emergency Repairs

Dear Mayor White:

At the Suffolk County Court House, the electrical service to floors 10, 11, 12, and 12M has had to be reduced because of electric circuit overloading, resulting in burnt insulation and the possibility of fire or explosion if not corrected promptly.

Because of the extreme danger to persons and property arising therefrom and the frequent interruption of the public judicial functions performed in these areas, I requested and received written permission from the Massachusetts Department of Labor and Industries to dispense with meeting the requirements of section 44A, chapter 149 G.L., as it pertains to public advertising, provided we obtained prices from at least three reputable electrical contractors normally engaged in this type of work. The bid results are summarized below:

Edward G. Sawyer Co., Inc., $14,600; J. J. Finn Electrical Service, $17,700; J. J. Reddington Electric, $21,400; Joseph L. McKeen, Inc., $24,250.

Your Honor's approval, therefore, is respectfully requested in recognition of the fact that an emergency situation exists, to authorize dispensing with public advertising for bids and to award a contract for this work to Edward G. Sawyer Co., Inc., 20 Mill Lane, Braintree, Mass., for $14,600.

Victor E. Hagan,
Acting Director.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

At the Long Island Hospital the high winds during the blizzard of February 6-8, 1978, caused a knockdown of many high-voltage and secondary wires and light poles were also blown over on the bridge and throughout the hospital area causing hazardous conditions.

Because of the prevailing emergency condition, the resulting hazard to life and property, and because the scope of work could not be defined, the following action was taken:

We engaged J. J. Reddington Electric Service Co., based on hourly rates for labor and equipment and cost of materials, to make temporary repairs.

Because of the exigency of the situation, I requested and received written approval from the Massachusetts Department of Labor and Industries to dispense with the requirements of section 44A, chapter 149, G. L., as it pertains to public advertising, also deleting the requirement to obtain prices from at least three contractors normally engaged in this type of work.

Whereas, these emergency repairs were necessary and the exigency to take corrective action did exist, I hereby request permission to dispense with the provision of section 44A, chapter 149, G. L. and to award a contract for the above work to J. J. Reddington Electric Service Co., 20 Rex Drive, Braintree, Mass., to provide the labor, materials, and equipment necessary to complete the emergency, temporary repairs to this facility for a total amount not to exceed $6,000.

Victor E. Hagan,
Acting Director.

This is a ten-story, office building fully occupied by Employment and Economic Policy Administration and serving the public as the central location of the Youth Employment Service for the City of Boston.

At approximately 1:30 a.m. on Monday, May 8, 1978, while being operated by a security agent, one of the two elevators had the hoist ropes break, allowing the elevator car to fall into the elevator pit thereby causing other damages to the equipment and particularly the counterweights. On this same date, the Elevator Division of the City of Boston Building Department determined the position of the broken counterweights and remaining ropes constituted an extreme hazard and directed the Public Facilities Department to correct and remove the danger immediately.

Because of the exigency of the situation, I requested and received written approval from the Massachusetts Department of Labor and Industries to dispense with the requirements of section 44A, chapter 149, G. L., as it pertains to public advertising, providing we obtain prices from at least three contractors normally engaged in this type of work. Having invited four, reputable contractors to submit bids for this emergency repair work, I received contract proposals as follows:

Beckwith Elevator Company, $6,376; F. S. Payne Company, $6,730; Montgomery Elevator Company, $6,922.

Your Honor's written approval, therefore, is respectfully requested in recognition of the fact that an emergency exists, and to authorize the dispensing with public advertising for bids and to award a contract to Beckwith Elevator Company, 8 St. Mary's Street, Boston, Mass., for $6,376.

Victor E. Hagan,
Acting Director.

Copies of the contract documents may be obtained by depositing $25 in cash or a certified check, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority, with the Boston Redevelopment Authority, for each set of documents so obtained. Each such deposit will be refunded if the drawings and contract documents are returned in good condition within ten (10) days after bid opening.

Bids shall be accompanied by a bid deposit in the form of a bid bond, or cash, or a certified check on, or a treasurer's or cashier's check issued by a responsible bank or trust company, payable to the Boston Redevelopment Authority. A bid bond shall be (a) in a form satisfactory to the Awarding Authority; (b) with a surety company qualified to do business in the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Attention is called to the fact that not less than the minimum salaries and wages set forth in the contract documents must be paid on this project and that the contractor must ensure that employees and applicants for employment are not discriminated against because of their race, color, religion, sex, or national origin. Attention is also called to the requirements relating to Workmen's Compensation and conditions of employment and to the Boston Redevelopment Authority's Equal Opportunity Compliance Policy, adopted February 20, 1969, revised June 12, 1975, and to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Supplemental Equal Employment Opportunity, Anti-discrimination and Affirmative Action Program.

Attention is also directed to the Instructions to Bidders — Award of Contract: Rejection of Bids and the prohibition of abnormally high and abnormally low prices for any class or item of work.

The Boston Redevelopment Authority reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any informalities in bidding, if it be in the public interest to do so.

Bids may be held by the Boston Redevelopment Authority for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days from the date of the opening of bids for the purpose of reviewing the bids and investigating the qualifications of the bidders, prior to awarding of the contract.

Bidders on this work will be required to comply with the President's Executive Order No. 11246 and amendments or supplements to that Executive Order. The requirements for bidders and contractors under this order are explained in the instructions to bidders.

The procurement is subject to the Dates of Requirement for Affirmative Action to Ensure Equal Employment Opportunity (Executive Order 11246), as referenced in Federal Register on April 7, 1978, on page 14895, section 60-4.2d, starting in column 1 and ending in column 2. The goals and timetable for women are as follows:

Timetable

From April 1, 1978, until March 31, 1979, Goal 3.1 percent.

From April 1, 1979, until March 31, 1980, Goal 5.0 percent.

From April 1, 1980, until March 31, 1981, Goal 6.9 percent.

The minority goals are not applicable to the table listed in Part 2 of the Notice of Requirement since this project is outside geographic limits listed in the Federal Register, May 5, 1978, page 19473. Copies of pages 14895, 14896, and 14897, Federal Register, April 7, 1978 and page 19473 of Federal Register, May 5, 1978, are included in Appendix A Goals and Timetable for Female and Minority Participation in the Construction Industry.

Any contract or contracts awarded under this invitation for bids are expected to be funded in part by a grant from the United States Environmental Protection Agency. This procurement will be subject to regulations contained in 40 CFR 35.936, 35.938, and 35.939. Neither the United States nor any of its departments, agencies, or employees is or will be a party to the invitation for bids or any resulting contract.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including, without limitation, the notice to all bidders, (including subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and the requirements set forth in the specifications on supplemental equal employment opportunity anti-discrimination and affirmative action program contract provisions, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246. A statement of workforce needs as required by section 3 and a section 3 affirmative action plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. These are forms AAP1-AAP6 and AAP8 and can be found at pages ST1-ST10 of the contract documents. This requirement will be strictly adhered to. Proposals submitted without the required forms will be rejected. No bidder shall be eligible for award on this project unless he/she is able to demonstrate to satisfaction of the Awarding Authority his/her ability to comply with these requirements.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for minority business enterprise utilization.

Pursuant to the minority participation section of the City of Boston contract for U.N.-Funded Construction Contracts the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent of his/her bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business at least 50 percent of which is owned and controlled by minority group members or, in the case of a publicly owned business, at least 51 percent of the stock is owned by minority group members who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise, to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

All prospective bidders will be required to attend a prebid conference to discuss the federal, state, and local compliance requirements cited above with the Contract Compliance Officer.

Prebid conference will be held at 11:30 a.m., October 20, 1978, at Mr. Reggie Johnson's Office, Room 917.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT

Proposals for Community Development Block Grant Project for Sidewalk Reconstruction in Allston Street, Dunboy Street, Kilsyth Road, Kilsyth Terrace, and Riverdale Street, in Brighton; Wolcott Square, in Hyde Park.

The Commissioner of Public Works of the City of Boston, Room 714 (Contract Office) City Hall, invites proposals for Community Development Block Grant project for sidewalk reconstruction in Allston Street, Dunboy Street, Kilsyth Road, Kilsyth Terrace, and Riverdale Street, in Brighton; Wolcott Square, in Hyde Park.

A performance bond and also a labor and materials or payment bond, each of a surety company qualified to do business under the laws of the Commonwealth and satisfactory to the Commissioner, and each in the sum of 100 percent of the contract price, will be required of the successful contractor. Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 714 (Contract Office), sealed, marked "Proposal for Community Development Block Grant project for sidewalk reconstruction in Allston Street, Dunboy Street, Kilsyth Road, Kilsyth Terrace, and Riverdale Street, in Brighton; Wolcott Square, in Hyde Park," and left at Room 714 (Contract Office), seventh floor, City Hall, before 2 p.m. of Thursday, October 19, 1978.

Proposal guaranty shall consist of a bid deposit of 5 percent of total bid, in the form of a bid bond, cash, certified check, treasurer's or cashier's check issued to the City of Boston. The proposals will then be publicly opened and read in the Hearing Room, 801 City Hall, One City Hall Square.

Proposals must be made in duplicate, the sealed duplicate to be deposited by the bidder with the City Auditor previous to the time named for opening the bids. All proposals must be from bidders of record on file at Room 714, City Hall. There will be a charge of twenty-five dollars ($25), NOT REFUNDABLE, for each set of contract documents taken out. If the bidder neglects to bid on each and every item, it may lead to the rejection of the proposal. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs, and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate of wages in the schedule determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth and subject to the prevailing wage rates established by the U. S. Department of Labor and the Equal Employment Opportunity Requirements, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract, referred to herein. Copies of said schedule may be obtained, without cost, upon application therefor at the office of the Commissioner of Public Works. Before commencing performance of this contract, the contractor shall provide by insurance for the payment of compensation and the furnishing of other benefits under chapter 152 of the General Laws (the Workmen's Compensation Law, so called) to all persons to be employed under this contract and shall continue such insurance in full force and effect during the term of this contract.

No bid for the award of this project will be considered acceptable unless the contractor complies fully with the following requirements for Minority Business Enterprise Utilization.

Pursuant to the supplemental minority participation section of the City of Boston contract, the contractor must give satisfactory assurance that at least 10 percent of his bid price shall be expended for minority business enterprise. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term minority business enterprise means a business organization in which 51 percent of the beneficial ownership is held by one or more minority persons who are Black, Hispanic, Oriental, or American Indians.

Included with the contract documents are copies of the "Minority Business Utilization Form," "Minority Business Identification Statement," "Minority Business Utilization Progress Report," and the "Minority Business and the General Contractor's Letter of Intent."

Each contractor must complete, sign, and file with his bid the Minority Business Utilization Form. Failure to do so will result in the rejection of the bid proposal. The three lowest responsive bidders are required to submit a Minority Business and General Contractor's Letter of Intent. The letter of intent shall be completed and signed by the minority business enterprise and the general contractor within five days after the time set for receiving bids. At the request of the city one or more of the three lowest bidders may also be required to submit a Minority Business Identification Statement.

Contractors shall also avail themselves of the list of minority businesses to be provided by the city through the Office of Minority Business Enterprise to facilitate compliance with these requirements.

The attention of all bidders is specifically directed to the provisions of the contract documents, including, without limitation, the notice to all bidders (including subbidders), and the provisions with respect to bonds, insurance, equal employment opportunity, minimum wages, time of performance, liquidated damages, and to the requirements of mandatory compliance with section 3 of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 and Executive Order 11246. A statement of workforce needs as required by section 3 and a section 3 affirmative action plan shall be submitted with the contractor's proposal. These are forms AAP1-AAP6 and AAP8 and can be found at pages ST1-ST10 of the contract documents. This requirement will be strictly adhered to. Proposals submitted without the required forms will be rejected. No bidder shall be eligible for award on this project unless he is able to demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Awarding Authority his ability to comply with these requirements.

The contractor's attention is called to the "Equal Opportunity Clause" and "Standard Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Construction Contract Specifications" set forth in this part.

The goals and timetables for minority and female participation, expressed in percentage terms for the contractor's aggregate workforce in each trade on all construction work in the covered areas (See pages EEO-1 and EEO-2 of the bid specifications for goals and timetables).

These goals are applicable to all the contractor's construction work (whether or not it is federal or federally assisted) performed in the covered areas.

As used in this notice, and in the contract, the covered area is Arlington, Boston, Belmont, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Canton, Chelsea, Dedham, Everett, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Milton, Norwood, Reading, Revere, Somerville, Stoneham, Wakefield, Westwood, Winthrop, Winchester, Woburn, and the Islands of Boston Harbor, Massachusetts.

The contractor's compliance with the Executive Order and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4 shall be based on its implementation of the Equal Opportunity Clause, specific affirmative action obligations required to meet the goals established for the geographical area where the contract is to be performed.

The hours of minority and female employment and training must be substantially uniform throughout the length of the contract in each trade, and the contractor shall make a good-faith effort to employ minorities and women evenly on each of its projects.

The transfer of minority or female employees or trainees from contractor to contractor or from project to project for the sole purpose of meeting the contractor's goals shall be a violation of the contract, the Executive Order, and the regulations in 41 CFR Part 60-4. Compliance with the goals will be measured against the total workhours performed.

A prebid conference will be held at 2 p.m., Monday, October 16, 1978, at the Hearing Room, 801 City Hall, One City Hall Square.

ATTENTION IS CALLED TO CHAPTER 370 OF THE ACTS OF 1963, WHICH MUST BE STRICTLY COMPLIED WITH. The Commissioner reserves the right to reject any and all proposals or any item or items of the proposal should he deem it to be for the best interest of the city so to do.

JOSEPH F. CASAZZA,
Commissioner of Public Works.

LIVING IN BOSTON

A guide to Boston and its neighborhoods for people interested in city living.

Welcome to Boston, one of America's oldest and most exciting cities. Our universities, hospitals, and cultural institutions are second to none. Our history and architecture — Old North Church, Boston Common, Beacon Hill, the bustling Faneuil Hall Marketplace, and the dramatic new Waterfront — attract people from all over the world.

Another Boston waits to welcome you, too: neighborhood Boston, a place to live in as well as to visit, as once again the city's many housing options are being recognized for the value and satisfaction they offer.

No where else in the metropolitan area is there such variety, such affordability, such convenience to the "Hub" of New England. Intown living may appeal to you, with harbor views and a short walk to work. Or you may prefer the trees and gardens of our nineteenth-century "streetcar suburbs." Whether you seek a high-rise condominium or a Victorian mansion, a house with rental apartments or a tidy cape, a brick townhouse or a split-level, Boston has something to tempt you.

I believe you will find "Living in Boston" a valuable introduction to our city of neighborhoods, and many people in city government and in our real estate industry will be happy to provide you with further information. City living is part of America's new lifestyle, and there is no more livable city than today's Boston.

Kevin H. White, Mayor,
City of Boston.

The real strength of any city, as we in the mutual savings banking industry know, is to be found in its neighborhoods. Boston's neighborhoods, which are the key to its future, offer many different opportunities to many different kinds of people.

This is an exciting time to live in Boston. Not only are values increasing in many established areas, but more and more, previously neglected sections of the city from Dorchester to Charlestown, Roxbury to the Waterfront, are being reinvigorated by dynamic individuals and groups.

Suffolk Franklin Savings Bank, through our branch banking system and home lending, has played a role in Boston's growth since 1833 — "Living in Boston" is our story as well as the city's. We currently make home ownership in the city a reality for more than 2,500 families or individuals. We are proud of the part we have played in making Boston a better place to live and are committed to a continuing role as a financial resource for the stability and growth of its neighborhoods.

We believe that a home in Boston is a good investment. "Living in Boston" reflects our view that the city is unique and more livable than ever before.

Herbert W. Gray, President, Suffolk Franklin Savings Bank.

It's a nice place to visit, to work, to play, and to shop. It's also a great place to live!

Whatever your lifestyle, your tastes or your income, Boston has something to offer as a place to make your home. One of the reasons is its variety of neighborhoods.

Ask a Boston resident where he lives, and chances are he will say "West Roxbury" or "J.P." or "Eastie" — not simply "Boston." No city in the United States is more characterized by neighborhoods than Boston. However, the city's neighborhoods are not as well-known as they ought to be. Even those born and bred here are often not familiar with all the sections of the city.

"Living in Boston," therefore, is an introduction to the many options that this city of neighborhoods holds for home-seekers — both those who have grown up in the city and those who may be settling here for the first time.

Many factors influence the decision about where to live. One person may be fascinated by Victorian architecture. Another may want a townhouse within walking distance of work. Still another may be looking for a modern single-family home with a lawn and a garden. One might want to live near public transportation to the downtown, while another might seek easy commuting to an outlying office park. Everyone wants good value for his money. As the search for a home narrows down, people generally focus on particular houses, the immediate environment, economics, location, and convenience, schools (if there are children), and an intangible "feel" about the community.

In a city as diverse as Boston, no written guide can do more than present possibilities. "Living in Boston" does just that, touching on the various factors mentioned above and providing brief descriptions of the city's sixteen major districts.

City neighborhoods may not be for everyone, but they may be just right for you. Let "Living in Boston" help you decide.

Editor's note: Interesting articles concerning "Living in Boston" will appear in ensuing editions of the City Record.

UNITED WAY: CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

Contributions to Date $5,138,912

Volunteers attending the first public report meeting of Campaign '78 at the Park Plaza Hotel recently heard progress reports totaling $5,138,912. While early campaign returns are not usually too definitive with respect to the emergence of significant "trends" in giving, today's report was most encouraging on many fronts!

Corporate giving is up almost across the board, over last year's level, and '78 may well be the best year in several with respect to increased corporate support for the United Way.

Campaigning to Potential is the hallmark of Campaign '78. Increasing "achievement" in giving-potential in executive/employee groups by Campaigning to Potential — that is, asking everyone — yes, everyone to pledge his or her Fair Share, will provide dramatic results! Chief executive officers must lead the way as they did in our eleven Pacesetter companies where Campaigning to Potential produced $220,000 in new dollars — and a 33.6 percent increase over 1977 giving-levels by executives and employees! Who says it can't be done?

People want to be generous and they will be if a payroll-deduction, giving-plan is offered. The City of Lynn has done just that for its municipal employees, and to date, the contributions have tripled. Salem and Newton are also making payroll deduction available. If every city and town would do the same — WOW!

Hospital campaigns are difficult to organize and difficult to conduct because of round-the-clock work schedules. New England Deaconess Hospital has found a way to do it well: hold group solicitation meetings, show the United Way film, and Campaign to Potential. Outstanding results are achieved! Those organizations now complete and achieving significant gains in executive/employee giving have done at least three things:

— Had chief executive officer endorsement and involvement

— Campaigned to Potential
— asked each employee to contribute his/her fair share

— Constructed and conducted an educational program, with films, tours, speakers, and group or personal solicitation.

Extraordinary success is yours for the asking — and your success is this community's success.

BARGAIN DAYS AT THE CIRCUS

"The Greatest Show on Earth" joins forces with "The Greatest Buy in Travel" in presenting one of the greatest money-saving attractions of all time.

Current MBTA passholders and those signed for November, as well as purchasers of monthly commuter rail tickets are all eligible for special reduced admission tickets to the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus at the Boston Garden.

With the October MBTA pass, each passholder will receive a special coupon entitling him or her to a $2 discount on every circus ticket purchased. Those who buy monthly commuter rail tickets will receive their coupons when they purchase their tickets. Since there is no limit on the number of tickets, a family of six would save $12.

In making the announcement, Ernest Deeb, MBTA pass program manager, said: "It seemed appropriate that in our efforts to build the benefits of the pass program, we join forces with the circus in making this special offer available. This substantial discount to a proven, family attraction should markedly enhance the marketing effort of the MBTA pass program."

The performance dates for the special discount tickets are Thursday, October 19, at 4 p.m.; Wednesday, October 25; Thursday, October 26; and Monday, October 30, the latter three all at 8 p.m.

Regular circus tickets are priced at $7.50, $6.50 and $5. With the special coupon, MBTA passholders and commuter rail monthly ticket purchasers may buy them for $5.50, $4.50 and $3, either by mail or in person at the Boston Garden box office.

"THE HAPPY HAUNTING GROUNDS!"

It's that time again!

That time of year when the thrills, the chills, the fears, and the cheers all come together for eleven hair-raising, fun raising, fund-raising days at the Children's Museum's Haunted House.

Yes, it's almost time to return to the "happy haunting grounds," that magnificent but macabre mansion on the Jamaica way in Jamaica Plain where all good spirits and bad spirits, too, get together once a year.

The spirits are scheduled to return to their old haunts from October 19th to October 29th. Admission for thrill seekers, young and old, is one dollar, however the presentation is not recommended for children under six.

This year's trip to the spooky structure will be an eerie experience for all, as old favorites mesh with some new phantoms that are designed to scare the delights out of you.

Proceeds from the show benefit the Children's Museum Resource Center which provides educational services to community groups and schools in Greater Boston.

The Children's Museum is on the Jamaica way, between Eliot and Burroughs Streets.

BFD OBSERVES THREE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY

Mayor White opens Fire Prevention Week in Boston at observance of Boston Fire Department's Three Hundredth Anniversary at Waterfront Park.

Mayor Kevin H. White opened Fire Prevention Week in Boston on October 8, at a Waterfront Park observance commemorating the three hundredth anniversary of the Boston Fire Department.

Throughout the week, Boston fire fighters staged a number of demonstrations of modern fire fighting. A variety of fire fighting and prevention devices, and rescue techniques were displayed under the Fire Department tent in the Waterfront Park throughout the week.

Said Mayor White, "In the earlier days of this city, we suffered through some particularly dreadful fires: the Great Fire of 1872 and the Memorial Day Fire of 1873 come immediately to mind. This Waterfront area was a particularly volatile area because of all the textile storage houses which lined the wharves. But as modern technology improved the methods for fighting fires, and the professionalism of our department grew, we became more secure against catastrophic blazes."

Mayor White added, "Today we have one of the best, if not the best, fire department of any city in the United States. Believe me, you can never really appreciate a highly competent fire department until your home has been struck by fire. Mine has been, and I can tell you these men have an extremely dangerous job for which they are highly trained and well-equipped. There are in a word, professional."

Said Fire Commissioner George H. Paul, "The long fire service tradition in Boston actually extends back to 1630 when neighborhood bucket brigades responded to fires. But the date we observe as the birth of the Boston Fire Department is 1687 when the first manual fire engine was delivered to Boston from England and the first fire officer in America — Thomas Atkins — was designated to man that engine. It is a long history of which we are very proud."

ANNUAL ART EXHIBIT

Mayor Kevin H. White has announced the opening of the Annual Art Exhibit sponsored by the Boston Parks and Recreation Department at the West Roxbury Little City Hall on Thursday evening, October 19, 1978, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Commissioner Alan M. Austin cordially invites everyone to attend the exhibit which will continue on display from October 19, 1978, to December 14, 1978. There will be a variety of art forms exhibited, ranging from traditional seascapes and landscapes to modern abstract, done in acrylics and mixed media. Also included will be some collages and decoupages.

The artists vary as widely as their art work. There are some young mothers with their children in school along with many newly retired senior citizens taking classes who now have extra time on their hands. The art supervisor for the Boston Parks and Recreation, Mary Ross, teaches throughout the city at various recreation centers. There are morning classes for adults and afternoon classes for children. For more information call Dorothy M. Curran, director of recreation at 725-4006.

TAX RATE CERTIFIED, BILLS DUE NOVEMBER 3

Mayor Kevin H. White announced on October 3, that Boston's tax rate was certified by the State Department of Corporations and Taxation, enabling the city to distribute $200 million in property tax bills to Boston property owners.

Those bills reflect a tax rate of $252.90 per thousand of assessed valuation.

Said Deputy Mayor for Fiscal Affairs James Young, "After a review, the state found that our figures conformed with prudent fiscal practice. They were proper and in good order, and upheld our tax rate request."

The bills, which reflect the same rate as last year, were originally scheduled to arrive in the Monday morning mail, but Judge Samuel Adams enjoined the city from sending out those bills on Friday. He ruled that the bills would not go out because the city Department of Property Equalization had not been fully funded by the City Council.

On October 2, the City Council acted to fund that office to the level requested, and Judge Adams lifted his order.

City fiscal officials estimate that the city could stand to lose $80,000 if enough taxpayers take advantage of the delay in mailing the bills.

General Order No. 52

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

1. Fire Prevention Week will be observed in the City of Boston from October 8, to October 14, 1978, inclusive. Mayor Kevin H. White has issued the following statement in connection with the observance of this week.

"The success of a fire prevention program is predicated on the activities of an experienced fire department and the cooperative assistance received from members of the community. We are fortunate in Boston that these necessary elements exist, and thus fire safety has steadily progressed. The nature of fire and fire causes is such that negligence can lead to disaster. Hence, everlasting vigilance must be maintained. The Fire Department must provide initiative to the public at all times, for their greater safety from fire.

"I have noted the progress made by the Boston Fire Department in the field of research. The efforts expended in this area have been extensive and rewarding. As Mayor of this city, I am pleased to congratulate the Fire Department for their accomplishments in this respect. The results indicate that research such as this is a most important factor in future fire safety. This added to the continuous fire prevention work, and the efficient operations of an excellent fire fighting force contribute to make Boston a safer city."

2. The Boston Fire Department will again emphasize Fire Prevention Week with a series of activities as follows:

(a) Fire station shall be open to the public between the hours of 1200 and 2000, for inspection of the premises and for the conveyance of information concerning the Fire Department functions and fire prevention matters. When citizens come to a station during Fire Prevention Week, the man on house patrol shall summon the commanding officer who should be available and ready to either show the visitors around the station and to answer the questions regarding the department or to have a suitable person assigned to this duty.

(b) Canvas signs giving notice that Fire Prevention Week is in progress should be displayed from all fire stations. Most stations have these signs in their possession from exhibitions of previous years, and it is the responsibility of company officers to see to it that these signs are kept in good condition from year to year. Signs should be displayed from Sunday to Saturday. Signs shall be checked daily by the officer in charge of quarters to assure they are firmly affixed to the building in a proper manner.

3. District fire chiefs are directed to take an active interest in fire prevention programs in the following manner:

(a) By making arrangement with the various plants and industrial enterprises within the district to hold fire drills during the week, by grading these drills as "Good," "Fair," or "Poor," and making a report of same to the Fire Prevention Division, indicating the name of the enterprise, the date of the drill, and the grade. Same should be forwarded promptly. Each concern should be requested to acknowledge participation in Fire Prevention Week activities via written correspondence. These drills should be conducted by company officer after arrangements are made. At plants where there are special or company fire brigades, particular attention should be given to assignments and/or response procedures. It is requested that the name of the company officer conducting the drill be furnished. It is anticipated that not less than three drills be conducted in each district.

(b) Company officers will contact school officials in the schools in their subdistrict and make arrangements to hold the required fire exit drills during Fire Prevention week, if feasible. The fire exit drill shall be so arranged that it will be held ten minutes prior to the end of the school day.

4. The district fire chief should compile a list of fraternal, social, civic, and professional organizations within the district and advertise to them the willingness of the Fire Department to provide company officers for the purpose of lecturing on fire prevention at any time. District fire chiefs should make a concerted effort to bring the activities of the department before these organizations and arrange for lectures to be given. The name of any organization so participating should be reported to Fire Prevention Division. Specifically if the organization can be urged to forward, on their own stationery, a notation of the event, it would be to the greater advantage of the Fire Department.

5. Fire fighters are to pay special attention to the observance of fire hazards and to the duty of observing and locating fire hazards along the route followed by them in their coming to and going from daily work. Dilapidated buildings, rubbish accumulation, and other hazards should be reported to the Fire Prevention Division. The public expects uniformed members of the Fire Department to know something about fire prevention work and to have an interest in this subject since they are public employees engaged in this field. Fire fighters therefore, during Fire Prevention Week, should have this subject uppermost in their minds, and they should not pass a fire hazard at any time without making a note of it for reference to the Fire Prevention Division. In short, every uniformed man in the Fire Department is a fire prevention inspector at all times.

6. Company commanders, on receipt of the fire prevention posters, will post these items in a suitable location at the front of each fire station where they will be visible to the public. They will remain posted until October 15, 1978.

7. A List of all fire prevention activities and their locations will be forthcoming.

These features include the "Multiple Use Percentage Key" which calculates proration, and the ability of Sharp Electronics calculators to compute percentage of change which is used in the calculation of taxes and discounts. Sharp Electronics calculators are also durable, reliable, and reasonable in cost.

Because of the immediate need for these calculators, and the determination of Mr. Wallace's office that Sharp Electronics Corporation offers the best product at a reasonable cost, it is requested that the requirement for advertising be dispensed with at this time.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Burke,

Dear Mayor White:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston, I respectfully request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to International Business Machines Corporation, for the purchase of ten IBM Selectric typewriters. The cost of this purchase is not to exceed $5,350.

Because of the need to provide these typewriters for the Prevocational Program at the McKinley School, the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made with funds from P.L. 94-482, Vocational Education Act, Project 78-035-695-978-1, Code S817-421-2510-74.

Your attention to this request will be most appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Your authorization is requested for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Datapoint Corporation, 9725 Datapoint

Drive, San Antonio, Texas 78284, for furnishing machine rental and maintenance service during the period July 7, 1977, through June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $45,000.

This equipment was selected in 1977 after competitive bids were sought and evaluated by our consultant, Ernst & Ernst. This equipment was recommended by Ernst & Ernst as that equipment best suited to perform the tasks as outlined with Ernst & Ernst. This request is a continuation of the use of the equipment in the second year.

The cost of the contract is reasonable.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

Alarms Systems Supervision

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I request your approval of my action in awarding a contract, without public advertising, to the following firm for the supervision and maintenance of intrusion alarm systems presently in operation in seventeen school buildings:

Special Agent Systems, 67 Pleasant Street, Watertown, Mass. 02172.

The total amount of the contract will not exceed $21,780, and the contract will be in effect from July 1, 1978, through June 30, 1979. It is my considered opinion that this cost is reasonable and fair.

This company has been providing this service to the Department of Planning and Engineering for many years and is uniquely qualified to perform this work in these school buildings. Inasmuch as this equipment has, over a period of years, been leased from this firm, and along with the fact that the equipment is tied in with their central station and is monitored on a full-time basis by them, the Special Agent Systems Company is the only firm that can supply this service to the seventeen school buildings covered by this proposed contract. In addition, this program operates in conjunction with the City of Boston, Public Facilities Department, Electronic Security Patrol.

It is my opinion that public advertising would serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully yours,

Anthony L. Galeota,
Chief Structural Engineer.

Enrichment Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On behalf of the School Committee of the City of Boston and upon the recommendation of its Board of Superintendents, I request your authorization for the award of a contract, without public advertising, to Youth Enrichment Services, Inc., 180 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Mass. 02115, for the period from March 15, 1978, to June 30, 1978, at a cost not to exceed $6,420.

The contractor shall provide ninety South Boston High School students with one-day to three-day "environmental enrichment" trips at Swann Lodge Environmental Studies Center in Monterey, Mass., and other New England cultural and educational sites. Students will study and experience the natural environment through first-hand investigations and discovery. Trips will be preceded and followed by related classroom activities. Staff, transportation, equipment supplies, and educational materials shall be provided for all trips.

Youth Enrichment Services, Inc. (YES) is a mature, humanistic, Massachusetts, non-profit agency which provides special outdoor recreation/education to more than 6,000 Massachusetts youth annually. YES's superb staff is committed to broadening the environmental experiences of youth, particularly urban youth. It is the only agency of its kind in New England and has the largest ski program for urban youth in the nation.

Because of the professional nature of the services to be provided under this contract and the expertise of the contractor in providing such services, it is the determination of the School Committee that the public interest would not be served by public advertisement for bids.

This agreement is to be executed, without an appropriation, under the provisions of G.L. c. 44, s. 53A, and is to be made subject to the receipt of funds under grant from the Emergency School Assistance Act (ESAA) Special Projects No. G00-77-030-67.

Very truly yours,

Edward J. Winter,
Secretary.

Printing Services

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Information required to update the textbook file on the computer in this office was completely entered on Wednesday, May 24, 1978. Bids were solicited from those bidders who had submitted bids in response to an advertised solicitation in 1977 for printing the same documents. One of those bidders failed to respond this year. The following bids were secured for printing by offset from our computer run for 1978:

Elementary Textbook Catalog — Faverman Press, Canton, $5,250; Spaulding Co., Inc., Boston, $5,300; Xerox Corp., Boston, $7,500.

Secondary Textbook Catalog — Spaulding Co., Inc., Boston, $3,500; Faverman Press, Canton, $4,129.22; Xerox Corp., Boston, $4,475.

Since the textbook orders which are generated from the printed catalog must be submitted by both public and private schools prior to the end of June, 1978, and since the time required for delivery of the finished job was seven days, there was not sufficient time in which to publicly advertise for bids. Therefore, your authorization is requested for the award of contracts, without public advertising, to Faverman Press, Canton, and Spaulding Co., Inc. of Boston, on their low bids for the printing of the textbook catalogs. The costs of their services is reasonable.

Very truly yours,

Leo J. Burke,
Business Manager.

All bidders will be required to certify that they are not on the Comptroller General's list of ineligible contractors.

The provisions of Massachusetts Executive Order No. 130, Anti-Boycott Covenants, are incorporated by reference as part of this contract.
